April 22, 1993

Dear Mr. Corderman:

Thank you for the two copies of the 1992 S. C. Conference of The United Methodist Church Journal and the 1992 tapes of the same, which I found at the door to the Archives this morning. Someone at the Circulation Desk told me that whoever brought them asked him to give them to me. Thanks, again, and for those given in previous years.

Sincerely,

Herbert Hucks, Jr.

SECTION IV
JOURNAL OF PROCEEDINGS
SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE
FIRST DAY — SUNDAY EVENING
MAY 31, 1992

The Memorial Service and celebration of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper opened the 1992 Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference on Sunday evening, May 31, 1992, in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina. The preacher for the service was the Reverend Marshall L. Meadors Jr.; Liturgist was Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. Special music was provided by The Spartanburg District Choir under the direction of Lisa Pierce Litteral, the Covenant Winds Brass Ensemble from the United Methodist Church of the Covenant directed by Leigh Carroll, and handbell choirs from churches of the Spartanburg District directed by Lloyd Dennis. Beverly Barrs was the organist and Julie Smith was the pianist. An offering was received for the benefit of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR).

"CLOUD OF WITNESSES"

The Reverend Marshall L. Meadors, Jr.

This basketball arena is an appropriate setting for our scripture text tonight. The writer says that life is a race; the life of faith is a race. It's not an easy race, not a short 100-yard dash that's over in a few seconds. It's a long race. A tough grueling race filled with pot holes and stumbling blocks, disappointments and rejections, grief and pain. Then he tells us what we can do to find support and encouragement to run the race. First, he says, "Remember the witnesses." The older I get the more this Memorial Service means to me. In the last couple of weeks, I went on three occasions to the chapel of Buncombe Street Church to read over the names of those we are remembering tonight. To that list, two more have been added even in recent days. We'll remember them with gratitude, we'll remember the challenge and support that they offered to us. We'll remember the ministry that they provided for congregations and for church members throughout the conference. We gather tonight to remember and to give thanks.

But it's more than just remembering. We also derive from them strength and encouragement. The reason this arena is such an appropriate place for this text and for the service is that we might well imagine tonight that they, the cloud of witnesses, are here in the stands while we are down on the arena floor running the race. We don't just remember them as they're sitting there, but as we run we can hear them cheering us on. We can hear them saying to us, "Keep the faith. Keep hope alive. Never give up."

A few weeks ago, Hannah and I were down at the beach, and as we walked along the strand, we came upon a very sad sight. It was a huge Loggerhead turtle that had died, probably caught in the net of a shrimp boat. It had washed up on the beach. We stopped with others who were looking at the remains of the turtle. A little child was there and someone walked up and pointed to the back of the turtle — to the shell — and said, "What's that?" The little child said, "That's the turtle's house." Then this smart aleck went over to the "house" and knocked on it and said, "Is anybody home?" And the little child said, "She doesn't live there anymore. My mother said, 'She's gone to heaven. But even from heaven,' mother said, 'she will still watch over her baby turtles'."

For that child it was an experience of the cloud of witnesses that surrounded her and surrounds us with hope and encouragement when the race is long and we're saddened with the loss of our loved ones, our colleagues and our friends. We have the assurance of the promise that they here and now surround us as we run the race and encourage us with hope to keep the faith and to keep running.

Second the writer of Hebrews says, "Lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely." If you watch runners in a race, you know that one thing they do is wear the lightest garments. A runner will wear a t-shirt and shorts that weigh very little, only the lightest weight shoes and socks.

The word for us is "Lay aside the weights." I confess to you tonight that it has been tough for me at times as I have sought to carry too much weight in the race of life — not physical weight, not extra metal. Have you ever carried weights like this? Anger. Anger at God because your loved one died — died too young, died prematurely. Anger with the Bishop, the Cabinet, for appointments, places that you were assigned to serve? Have you ever carried the weight of bitterness? Has it become, for you, a weight of complaining? Have you gone about the Conference, to other pastors and people, and complained or criticized? Do you carry that weight? Has it led to the weight of despair and depression? Do you carry that weight through life? The weight of envy. Being envious of something someone else had — another house or parsonage. Have you carried the weight of failure? The weight of guilt — thinking of things you wish you had done for the loved one, or things you hadn't done. Have you carried the ultimate weight of disillusionment? The weight of thinking to yourself, "Why did we give our lives to this? Why did we give our lives to the church? Is there any hope?" The writer of Hebrews says "Lay aside the weight." Put it aside and then run, continue to run the race.

I heard one time about a preacher who had in his office some wallpaper, and if I ever find some I want to put a little of it in my office. It was very simple, it had one message. Running all over the wall paper in his office was one line repeated continuously, word after word, "Let go, trust God. Trust God, let go. Let go, trust God. Trust God, let go." Lay aside the weight.

The third thing that the writer says is "Run with perseverance." Do you know what that means? It means don't give up. It means never, never, never give up.

On Tuesday of last week Hannah and I received the great good news that once again we are going to be grandparents. My first response to that news was joy and excitement. We already have five grandchildren. They have brought so much joy to our lives that we agree with the bumper sticker: "If We'd Known How Wonderful Grandchildren Are, We Would Have Had Them First."

Just a few months ago one of our granddaughters, little Hannah, who is ten years old, was visiting in Greenville. She came to church on Sunday morning and after church, while I was still speaking to the worshippers, she and her mother and my wife, Hannah, went home and were preparing dinner. When I got home, as I walked in the door, little Hannah, who was setting the table, said to me, "Granddaddy, that was the best sermon I ever heard in my life." Well, she has a way of doing a number on her granddaddy. When I saw the twinkle in her eye, I said, "Hannah, did your mother tell you to say that?" And with a big smile she said, "No, sir. Grandmother told me to say it."

When I learned we were going to have another grandchild, my first feeling was one of joy. But then, a feeling of fear. To think that another precious child will be brought into this world which is not a child-friendly place. A world where the most abused and neglected people of all are the children. And in a moment there was almost a tear in my eye as I thought of the struggle this new grandchild would have to endure. But then in the next moment it was as if the Lord spoke to me through the news and said "And so, what are you going to do about it? What are you going to do about it?" "But Lord!" I said, "I've struggled hard to do my part — to help the Kingdom of God and the world. It's now my children's turn." And the Lord said "Run with perseverance. Keep running." And as a grandfather, and as grandparents, as we run the race of life the call of God is for all of us to proclaim by word — by deed — the Kingdom of God. God wants the Kingdom in the hearts of people, and once it's in our hearts, He wants us to be agents to bring the Kingdom into the world. And to do it for the sake of our children. As our loved ones surround us tonight as a great cloud of witnesses, they would say to us "Run with perseverance."

And the last thing he says "Therefore, since we're surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that's set before us looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith."

It's very important for us to begin Annual Conference with a Communion Service. Here we are reminded that although we've come this week to do some things for God and the church, before we do anything for God and the church, God has already done it in Christ for us. We come here this week to give — to give our time, our energy, our resources, our lives. But before we have anything to give, we first come to receive. We come tonight with open hands to receive the bread and the wine. Not to take them, not to grab. But to be open, and to accept them, and to receive them.

That day on the lake the storm came. It was about to capsize the boat and Jesus came walking to them on the water. He said to Simon Peter, "Get out and come walk to me." And Simon Peter did. As he stepped on the water, he looked around at those other disciples as if to say, "Ah ha, look at me!" And then he looked down at the waves; he began to sink. When he took his eyes off Jesus, he began to sink. The writer says to us, "Look to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith."

There were three little boys out playing one day in the snow. They threw snowballs and built snowmen. Their neighbor came out and watched them as they were playing. He said to them, "Would you boys like to have a race?" They said, "Sure!" He said, "Here's the way we're going to run the race. I'm going across the field and I'm going to drop a handkerchief. When I do, I want you to come running toward me. Now, the one who wins the race will not be the one who gets there first. The one who wins the race will be the one who runs in the straightest line." He walked across the field, raised his arm and dropped the handkerchief. They started racing across the field. One little boy decided the way to run the straight line was to look at his own feet. So he walked slowly. He didn't have to get there first, just make a straight line. He looked down at his own feet, putting one in front of the other. That's the way to run in a straight line. The lad in the middle had a different tactic. He thought the way to run a straight line was to stay the right distance between those on each side. "If I can stay the right distance between each one of them, I'll run the straight line." But the lad on the right understood the race. He didn't worry about his feet, he didn't think about himself, he didn't care where the other boys were. He looked at the man on the other side of the field and went straight to him. He not only got there first, but he had run the straightest line.

It's what we do always isn't it? We too often become obsessed with ourselves — "How am I doing? How am I looking? How am I walking?" Or we're concerned about our peers or other people — "How am I doing in comparison to them?" Where are they in the race? The writer of the Hebrews says "Remember the one across the field, remember the one across Eternity. Look to Jesus."

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so a great cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is before us looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith." Amen.

SECOND DAY — MONDAY MORNING JUNE 1, 1992

The second day of the Annual Conference Session began with Holy Communion celebrated in Leonard Auditorium at 7:30 a.m. The Reverend David E. Lupo was the Preacher. The Reverend Ricky Harrison was the Liturgist. Mrs. Lela Austin was the Lay Reader. The topic was "The Great Commission — Go."

The Ministerial Session was called to order by Bishop Bethea in Leonard Auditorium. The Reverend James L. Correll led in the singing of "Now Thank We All Our God" and also offered the prayer. The report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry was introduced by the Reverend Ted H. Walter, Board Chairperson. As directed by action of the 1991 Ministerial Session, copies of the Minute questions portion of the Board's Report were distributed to the members of the Ministerial Session.

The Minute questions and responses were presented by the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery, Board Registrar, assisted by the Associate Registrars. The Minute questions as reported, amended, and corrected are a part of the record of the Annual Conference and can be found in their entirety in the appropriate section of the 1992 Conference Journal.

The Board proposed to delete from its "Policy Guidelines" a policy adopted at the 1991 Session requiring "persons seeking appointment within the South Carolina Annual Conference (par. 425.2) while maintaining other denominational affiliation" to "declare in writing their intention to become members of the South Carolina Annual Conference..." Following discussion of the proposed change, the question was called. It was the decision of the body not to debate the policy.

The continued Honorable Location under question No. 43.b of J. Ronald Vehom was questioned by the Reverend Gene Norris who contended that Mr. Vehom should be reclassified since he was located outside of the geographical bounds of the Wayne Charge and was not accountable for his continued ministerial activity. Mr. Norris moved that the status of J. Ronald Vehom be referred back to the Board of the Ordained Ministry for reconsideration and a report brought back to the 1993 Ministerial Session. Mr. Walter stated that as a result of action taken recently by the General Conference, the "ministerial activity" of a person on Honorable Location is no longer limited to the geographical bounds of his or her Charge Conference. Questions were raised by Mr. Norris concerning the circumstances of Mr. Vehom's Honorable Location. Mr. Norris' motion, however, was not approved.

Mr. Montgomery moved the adoption of the report as a whole with the exception of Minute question No. 17 to be answered before the full session of the Annual Conference, and it was adopted.

A "Resolution On District Pastors' Councils" was presented to the Ministerial Session by the Reverend Franklin B. Buie as follows:

RESOLUTION ON DISTRICT PASTORS' COUNCILS by Franklin B. Buie

To the Ministerial Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, 1992

- 1 WHEREAS as pastor in three districts over a period of 25 years I have observed a yearning for fellowship and trust among my fellow pastors; and
- 2 WHEREAS many have demonstrated a desire for a clear voice in the affairs of ministry; and

- 3 WHEREAS we have much to share with each other in terms of both friendship and collegiality; and
- 4 WHEREAS we have much to offer each other, to the churches and special ministries our colleagues serve, and to the ministry we share in Christ, and
- 5 WHEREAS no one knows the parishes of the districts as well as those who serve them and no one knows the pastors as well as we know each other; and
- 6 WHEREAS the pastors possess treasures of knowledge about the communities, the ministries of our fellow pastors and the situations they serve; and
- 7 WHEREAS through the exchange of ideas, the various styles, traditions, and theological interpretations of our colleagues greatly enhance our insights and provide a direct benefit to our congregations or specialized ministries; and
- 8 WHEREAS our common tasks include all aspects of ministry in our parishes regardless of size or specialty; and
- 9 WHEREAS insights gained by experience may enhance the ministries of others, provided some vehicle enables the pastors to share their experiences in a professional manner; and
- 10 WHEREAS the success of Clinical Pastoral Education proves this possibility in matters relating to counseling our troubled parishioners the success of the Residency program offered by the Board of Ordained Ministry carries the proof to broader concerns of ministry the success of Doctor of Ministry studies shows the benefits of sharing concerns and concepts in theologically diverse groups and answers the yearning for collegiality for a few;
- 11 AND WHEREAS a larger forum for ministerial concerns than the efforts we have attempted so far in Conference and District Committees and in the fragmented efforts of Monday coffee hours and "kitchen cabinets" would assist the District Superintendent, Cabinet and District and Conference committees in fulfilling our ministry, give the pastors a sense of participation and provide avenues to appreciate the talents and gifts each of us brings to our common task;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that we, the ministerial members of the S.C. Annual Conference, form voluntary District Pastors' Councils to provide a medium for the exchange of experience that will assist the growth of individual pastors and the effectiveness of ministry in the several charges and districts offering nonbinding suggestions to honor the responsibilities of offices and committees designated by The Discipline and the integrity of the progressionist pastor while providing both the collegiality and mutual trust we so deeply desire, according to the following plan:

1. As soon as practical after moving day, the District Pastors' Council will convene at the direction of the District Superintendent to elect a covener, establish a schedule of regular meetings and select places for those meetings. The District Pastors' Council shall include all the pastors of the district retired and active in charges and special appointments.
2. Participation will be voluntary on the part of all pastors, but strongly encouraged by colleagues. The District Pastors' Council may choose to form subgroups within the District according to geographical or other practical needs. However, strict care shall be given to inclusiveness in terms of race, age, gender, and size of congregation.
3. The covener shall have no legal authority, but shall have the privilege of encouraging pastors to participate. The covener shall also have the privilege of meeting with other district coveners and the District Superintendent and Cabinet to express concerns of the Councils. Normally, expenses of the covener shall be paid by the covener or through voluntary contributions of the Council participants. It may be possible that some resources and expenses could be provided from the District Administration Fund at the discretion of the Superintendent and appropriate committees.
4. Topics of concern to the District Pastors' Council shall include all general and specific concerns of pastors and churches and methods of response; continuing education needs of the pastors, individually and collectively, listing of resources and offers of assistance between pastors and churches, including missional assignment of lay persons to both new and struggling congregations, the exchange of ideas and creative ministries in evangelism, attendance, and payment of apportionments. Recommendations may be referred to the individual pastors and churches and appropriate District and Conference committees for consideration.
5. Topics of concern shall include official reports such as those made to the District Superintendent and Annual Conference, but only to the extent of providing assistance in preparing the reports and understanding the requirements. Matters relating to the design of the instruments and their use would also be appropriate, along with questions and recommendations about their use. All official reports will be made in the usual manner directly to District and Conference committees.

6. The District Pastors' Council shall provide consultation with District committees on the establishment of new congregations and charges revitalizing and/or discontinuing churches; they shall offer, on request, consultation to individual pastors and churches in decisions relating to changes of appointments. Recommendations to the Cabinet and District Committees charged with disciplinary responsibility shall be nonbinding and advisory only.

Following discussion of the proposed resolution, the question was called. The chair announced non-approval. A request was made that the body vote again and that the vote be counted. The body voted again by a counted "show of hands" vote. The Resolution failed to win approval by a vote of 197 against and 111 for.

The Reverend Ted H. Walter expressed his appreciation to the members of the Board of the Ordained Ministry and to those assisting with the preparation of the Board's Report. He announced that there would be an organizational meeting of the new board during the Session of the Annual Conference. Bishop Bethea expressed his gratitude and the gratitude of the Session to the Board for its work and especially to the Registrar, the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery.

The Reverend Sinclair E. Lewis Chair of the Board's Committee on Continuing Education, expressed his concern over the poor response in supporting the Continuing Education Endowment Fund. This program was adopted at the 1990 Session. Each Full and Associate active Conference member was asked to give an amount equal to 1% of their next year's salary. Only about 130 out of 550 Conference Members have made commitments to this Fund to support Extended Study Leave for clergy. Mr. Lewis encouraged support for the Fund.

The Reverend Cynthia Swofford spoke about the upcoming 1992 Pastor's Seminar and encouraged participation in the event to be held August 17-20 at Springmaid Beach. A brochure describing the program was distributed. Bishop Bethea announced that he would call the full session of the Annual Conference to order at 11:00 a.m. The Ministerial Session was then adjourned.

During the Ministerial Session a program for "Orientation of Lay Members" was being held in Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center. The program was presided over by Mr. B.J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader, and included the following presenters: Mr. Robert Green, Dr. Carolyn Briscoe, Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt, Mrs. Becky Buie, Mrs. Harriett Mays, Mr. Harry Kent, Ms. Anne Horton, and Mr. James Salley.

FULL SESSION

The 20th Session of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and the 207th annual gathering of the Methodists in South Carolina was called to order at 11:12 a.m. on Monday, June 1, 1992, in the Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Center, Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea. The Session was led in singing "And Are We Yet Alive" by the Reverend Paul D. Frey assisted by Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt at the organ. An invocation was offered by the Reverend George B. Wilson. The Reverend Talmage B. Skinner, Wofford College Chaplain, was recognized to bring greetings on behalf of Wofford College. A huge gavel presented to the Reverend Needham Williamson for "hard to handle church members" was loaned to Bishop Bethea to use during the Annual Conference Session presumably for "hard to handle" conference members. The following organizational motions were made by the Reverend Delos Corderman, Conference Secretary, and were adopted, (a.) Bar of the Conference; (b.) Agenda of the Conference (c.) Record of Attendance; (d.) Tellers.

The Reverend Clyde Anderson, a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference, currently serving with the National Division of the Board of Global Ministries in the area of New Church Development was introduced and brought greetings to the Annual Conference from the Board. He recognized another member of the Annual Conference also currently serving with the Board, the Reverend Frank Portee, III, Executive Secretary for African American Ministries in the National Division. Mr. Anderson introduced and recognized the Reverends Luonne A. Rouse and Mary E. Rowell who have been identified and trained by the National Division as "Mission Developers and New Church Partners." Mr. Anderson indicated that the two new congregations being served by Mr. Rouse and Ms. Rowell, the Joseph B. Bethea United Methodist Church and the Reidsville Road United Methodist Church, are being tested and evaluated by the National Division as potential "new church models" for the denomination.

The "Certificate of Organization" for the Joseph B. Bethea United Methodist Church dated March 15, 1992 was presented by Bishop Bethea. It was announced that September 20, 1992 is the projected date for the chartering of the Reidsville Road United Methodist Church.

The Report of the Committee on Standing Rules, page 1 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend Luonne A. Rouse, Chairperson. Mr. Rouse announced that as a result of the action of the 1992 General Conference certain additional structures will have to be formed within the Annual Conference organization and members elected. The recommendation of the Committee on Standing Rules and the necessary members elected at the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference.

The proposed amendment to SR 120 as found on page 1 of the pre-conference material was approved as presented.

The Committee announced that the proposed amendment to SR 122 as found on page 1 of the pre-conference material be corrected by the deletion of "Camps and Retreats" in the third line. Following considerable discussion and questions, the proposed amendment was approved as presented and corrected.

The proposed amendment to SR 40 as found on page 1 of the pre-conference material was approved as presented.

The proposed amendment to SR 61.d found on page 1 of the pre-conference material was approved as presented.

Mr. Rouse directed the Conference's attention to page 226 of the pre-conference material for a proposed addition to the miscellaneous rules authorizing mail ballots. It was approved as presented.

It was announced that the Committee on Standing Rules would complete its report in the afternoon.

The Reverend James E. Hunter, Committee on Courtesies and Introductions, presented Mrs. Shirley C. Bethea and Miss Josefa Bethea to the Annual Conference and they were greeted by the Conference. Mr. Hunter introduced the Conference Preacher, Bishop James S. Thomas, a native South Carolinian and graduate of Claflin College. He noted Bishop Thomas' distinguished academic career and his service in two annual conferences prior to his retirement.

MONDAY, JUNE 1, 1992
MIDDAY PREACHING SERVICE
Bishop James S. Thomas
Acts 16:16-34

The entire scripture lesson is too long to be read. It is an exciting story from Acts 16:16-34. I urge you to read it just for the drama of it. I will read only verses 25 and 26:

But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them; and suddenly there came a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were unfastened.

Acts 16:25-26 NASB

This was a small but vital congregation. You will remember the story. Paul and Silas were on their way to prayer when they were encountered by a slave girl who had the spirit of divination — fortune telling. The man who owned the girl was making money off her talent and by that token had enslaved her. She was bound to him, could not escape from him, was the source of his income. She followed Paul around for several days saying, "These men are representatives of the most high God." And every day she said that until Paul became tired of it and turned upon her and asked the spirit to come out of her, which did take place.

When the spirit came out of her she could no longer tell fortunes. And her owners became angry. So they went before the Roman authorities and said, "These men are Jews." Interesting how we use class and race when we really want to get things stirred up. "They don't understand our customs. They are here doing things that we don't do. They should be jailed." And so Paul and Silas were thrown into jail. And this is where the vital congregation begins.

About midnight, they were singing hymns and praying, and the other prisoners joined the congregation. They began singing and praying. And then, in the latter part of Acts 16, a great earthquake came.

Have you ever had an earthquake in your church? Well pray for one! It might do you good. The kind of earthquake that shakes loose the prejudice of people and make them look upon all people as God's children can be a blessing. The kind of earthquake that can break my bonds and set me free might be beneficial. The kind of earthquake that can bring together people who have been separated over a long period of time and need to come together. It may be good to pray for an earthquake before we become a vital congregation. Do you know what happened after that? The earthquake shook loose the bonds which held the jail together. The jailer, having been warned by his superiors of this strange congregation, came in amazed. He wanted to kill himself. Paul said, "Do yourself no harm. We're all here. We're not going anywhere. We were free when we came in, we are free now, and we will be free when we go out. Do yourself no harm. Everything is in place." The one who was in control is now the one who becomes a slave of fear. The jailer laid aside his sword and then began his liberation. Paul began to speak to him and after that the jailer went to his family and all of them were baptized and verse 34 of Acts 16 says that they were "filled with joy" because they then knew that God was their God. This is one of the most dramatic stories in all of the scripture. A strange and vital congregation: Paul and Silas, prisoners, the jailer, the jailer's family, and some who didn't come to church that Sunday — the girl, and her owner. Strange people. We often forget that the church is by definition a combination of strange people. The church was meant to be strange. Strange enough to turn away from the ordinary customs of the world and follow Jesus. Strange enough to understand that what was morally wrong in the past could be morally wrong in the present. Strange enough to know that while God is a loving God there is a time of judgement and that time comes for all of us — and this generation does not like to hear this word — need to understand that we pay for what we get and we pay for what we do.

Let me refer to three points in this amazing drama. One is the encounter. As Paul and Silas were going up to the place of prayer they were encountered by a slave girl. Now, in South Carolina I've heard sermons on Paul and Silas in prison a long time, and sometimes at great length, but few people told me how they got in prison. They got in prison by releasing a slave girl from economic domination. That is a social gospel. I do not understand people who say, "I believe only in the personal gospel. What God does for me and what God does in church. I will have nothing to do with the social gospel of the politics out there." Well, these people were encountered by one who was being economically oppressed. And if the church does not raise a voice for those who are economically oppressed, where will the voice come from? Then they were thrown in jail because these unholy owners of the girl recognized how their source of income was getting away.

Have you recognized in this text the fact that so many things happen to people when they're on their way? Two Disciples of Jesus, walking after the crucifixion to a little village, were encountered by one who they did not know. And on the way as he talked with them, their souls literally burned with inspiration. But they were on their way.

In Acts 3, Peter and John were on their way to the place of prayer when they encountered a man who was lame from birth. The man was healed when Peter said, "Arise and walk." The scripture does not tell us whether they ever arrived at the place of prayer. In the 18th century a young man named John Wesley was on his way, reluctantly, to Aldersgate Street when his heart was strangely warmed. What happens to us on our way somewhere can often change our lives.

I had finished from Gammon, I had not yet found a wife and a wife had not yet found me, and I was of all men most miserable. I was on my way home on Manning Avenue in Sumter. It occurred to me that I should go by and say hello to some friends I had living on Harvin Street. I went by and there was a young woman there, I would be on my way to Drew University later on. We became engaged in conversation, and now, after 47 years of marriage I recognize that if this encounter had not been made at that time, it probably would never have been made. If I were 5 minutes later, I might never have met her. And she's responsible for most of the good things which have taken place in my life over these 47 years. Be on your way somewhere. The mission is what makes a vital congregation. Going somewhere, doing something, moving, singing, praying, serving in the community. Just go somewhere. A congregation is never vital unless it is active and moving. There was a sign in New York City that said what we need to hear in every church: "If You Intend To Do Nothing, Don't Do It Here." And that congregation speaks words.

I'm old enough now to think about the future. I want to be going somewhere, falling forward, giving my life, trying to do good. Not because I want to make a reputation; if I haven't made one in 73 years, there's not much sense in making it now. But I want to die with my face going forward. I want to live in such a way that eternal life will not have such a difficult time merging with where I am. I want to go feeling that there will not be too much cultural shock when I get to heaven. The encounter is very important. One never knows who one might meet on the way. And one reads the New Testament with many illustrations of people whose lives have been changed by those whom they have encountered.

I was a sophomore at Claflin, satisfied with a comfortable C, on my way to a movie, making too much noise in the hall when a professor who lived in our dormitory came out and of all the fellows (there must have been five or six of us), he said, "Mr. Thomas, come here." I tried to explain to him that I was on my way to the show. This was most important. Much more important than class. That's the way some sophomores think. I'm now ashamed that I thought that way. He said "Have a seat." The other boys waited for a while and then they went on to Orangeburg to the show. And here I was sitting before the professor angry because he would not let me continue to waste my life. He looked me in the eye and he said, "You have a good mind, but you're not using it. And I'm going to see to it that you use it in my class." As he talked I became more angry. After a while he said, "I'm going to give you a special assignment. Nobody else in the class will know it. I want you to write the best paper you can on Macbeth." I'll never forget it. "And give it all you've got!" No one had ever talked to me that way before. I had three jobs just to survive in school, I was trying to play football, I hadn't focused yet. But I said, "All right, I'll do it." I was angry enough then to do my best. I wrote that paper after studying everything on Macbeth I could find. He passed it back in the class and wrote on it these words: "A — You Have Finally Made It." And that encounter made me aware of how important it was to be a scholar and to make my mind a furnished mind that God could use and to give myself such rigorous intellectual discipline so that I would be able to serve God with all my mind. That encounter did that.

Come now and let us see in the second place: the worship. These people came together in a strange way and they were singing and praying in jail. Most prisoners with good sense spend their time in jail just talking. But those with good religion spend their time worshipping. And how many of us are prisoners? I was a prisoner once and God called me to worship in a strange place. And I said, "I cannot worship here — there is no cross." And God said, "There will be one when you're done."

God called me to give everything I had, whatever it is. And God sent me to a strange land, and I worshipped there. There are some people who cannot worship in a church unless it is their own. There are some people who cannot pray with other people unless they look like them. There are some people who cannot theologize unless they all believe like them. Thanks be to God that there is a place for worship when prisoners meet disciples. And somehow the Holy Spirit becomes alive and moves in the congregation. When one sings, all sing; when one preaches, all preach, when one gives offering, all give offerings. We can worship, my friends, anywhere.

I've spent a lot of time in doctor's offices since my last surgery. What do you do when you're just sitting in a doctor's office looking at other people who are just sitting in a doctor's office? I began to remember Stanley Jones who said, "Pray for these people in the time in between and pray for yourself." I find it much easier now to sit there. I'm not happy because I have to go so often, but thanks be to God that I can worship there in such a way that these people become a congregation and we're able to worship God together.

Now there is time for only one other point and that is the witness. Paul and Silas were free in prison so they could sing. Tell every jailer to beware of the prisoners who sing. You will never be able to confine them. You will never be able to depress them. You will never be able to drive them out. Beware of prisoners who sing. We've just moved from Dallas to Atlanta. Boxes are all over the house. I did the noble thing — I escaped from town and left my wife with the boxes. That level of nobility is rarely attained in life, and I'm rather proud of the fact that I could flee. Tomorrow I go back to the boxes. I heard my wife singing among the boxes and though I've been preaching 50 years, I thought, "How can she sing in all of this confusion?" We have boxes that have not been opened from Iowa! And here she was singing; here she was witnessing. And even though I was in the kind of mood husbands get in sometimes, I thanked God for someone who could witness for I could not at that time, I was not feeling very noble. Have you ever opened boxes? I'm praying for all of you who move because I know that to be the case.

Come now, let us hear the conclusions. When you're on your way sometimes God is able to use you. It often happens that the distraction from your course may be more important than what you're doing. Also, there's a strange congregation of people. I'm not holy enough to be patient enough to sit and listen to all of the people who want to argue about the Bible. I just never got patient enough to want to argue about that. The men in my barber shop would save up some of the questions for me in Ohio. And one time, with a whole crowd in the barber shop, they asked this question: "Bishop, we've been saving a question for you: Is it possible for a man to live in a whale for three days?" And that's the question which I had hoped no one would ask of me. But without blinking, I said, "Yes." And left them to ponder over my answer. Sometimes God wants us to give a direct answer and close our mouths.

Well, vital congregations? Yes. But how? Let us be doing something on the way. Go somewhere sometime. Join hearts and hands with the people of God. Let us worship people of all kinds, recognizing that God is not a United Methodist. And let us become a part of God's company to do in the world what needs to be done. Wouldn't you like to live like that? Amen.

Mr. B.J. Pasley made an announcement regarding the Laity Luncheon which this year featured Dr. Peter T. Mitchell as the speaker.

Bishop Bethea announced for the information of the Conference that the James S. Thomas United Methodist Church in Canton, Ohio is currently being served by the Reverend Cumell Graham, a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference.

The Session was recessed for lunch at 12:38 p.m.

SECOND DAY — MONDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 1, 1992

The Session reconvened at 2:05 p.m. with the singing of "For the Beauty of the Earth." The invocation was given by the Reverend James S. Gadsden.

The Reverend Sara Ann White, Chairperson of the Board of Trustees of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate was introduced by the Reverend Willie S. Teague, Editor, for a special presentation honoring the Reverend A. McKay Brabham, a former editor of The Advocate for his crusading leadership as editor during much of the civil rights era and especially during the period of the merger of the 1966 and 1985 Annual Conferences in South Carolina. A copy of "One Editor's Stand" by Susan Pierce Johnston which details Brabham years as editor of The Advocate was presented to the Conference. A response was made by Mr. Brabham to the recognition.

The twenty-first edition of the Summer Investment Program was presented by the Reverend J. Risher Brabham, Campus Minister at Winthrop College. Those serving as "summer missionaries" introduced themselves and told their assignments. Mr. Brabham also shared that Mr. Greg Borom has been selected for a three year period of missionary service through the United Methodist Church.

The report of the Salkahatchie Summer Service Program was made by the Reverend Michael L. Vandiver, Chairperson of the Steering Committee. Mr. Vandiver announced that this year was the fifteenth anniversary of the program and expressed appreciation to the Annual Conference for the support which makes the ministry possible. Mr. Vandiver stated that there would be fourteen work sites this summer involving more than a thousand people and using the gifts which have been contributed for the various projects. Appreciation was expressed to Ms. Annabelle Walker in the CCOM Office for the assistance which she gives to the program.

The Session joined in a "Litany of Sending" for both programs concluding with the singing of "The Voice of God Is Calling."

It was announced that the offering from the Sunday evening service for UMCOR amounted to $2,728.84. Bishop Bethea encouraged additional gifts to bring the amount up to $3,000.00 and the offering baskets were passed for that purpose.

Consideration of the report of the Committee on Standing Rules resumed. The committee reported the following proposed amendment to SR 66, the highlighted sentence representing the proposed change:

Recommended Change Standing Rule 66

"66. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations of twenty four (24) members composed of two representatives nominated by each district. It is recommended that these be one clergy and one lay representative from each district. The additional members shall include: the resident bishop, a youth and young adult nominated by the Conference Council on Ministries; up to six (6) at-large members, who may be nominated by the bishop to insure adequate representation; and the following members: the Conference Lay Leader, an elected member of United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry, a retired member of the Annual Conference selected by the retired ministers, and a District Superintendent named by the Bishop. The resident Bishop or his/her designee from within the Conference Committee on Nominations shall be chairperson. The following shall be ex-officio members without vote: the Chairperson of the Conference Standing Rules Committee, the Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, the Chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, the Chairperson of the Commission on Religion and Race, and the Chairperson of the Conference Missional Priority Coordinating Committee."

Considerable discussion and questions followed. The previous question was moved and approved. A motion to require that the vote be taken by written ballot was defeated. The proposed amendment to SR 66 was not adopted.

Mr. Bill Burroughs moved that Standing Rule 110.1 be amended to read:

"1. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: The district superintendent as chairperson; the District lay leader; one (1) representative from the District Council on Ministries; two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Women (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority); two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Men (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority); two (2) representatives of the District Youth Council (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority)." The motion was approved.

Mr. Rouse moved the adoption of the report of the Committee on Standing Rules as a whole. It was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on the Annual Conference found on page 58 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend Delos Corderman, Secretary. The Conference approved Wofford College as the site of the 1993 Annual Conference. The report of the committee as a whole was approved.

The following resolutions were received "by title" and referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals as required under the Standing Rules: (1) Resolution on Gambling, Particularly Video Poker Machines submitted by Marshall J. Parker; (2) Resolution Concerning the Red Ribbon Campaign submitted by College Place United Methodist Church, Joseph W. Alley, Pastor and (3) Resolution on Non-Denominational Released Time for Religious Education submitted by Bethel United Methodist Church (Columbia) James P. Rush, Pastor.

The following motion was made by Luanne Taylor that surviving spouses of deceased clergy be given the opportunity to receive publications under the same terms as when the clergy spouses were alive. The motion was approved and referred to the Committee on the Conference Journal.

The Report of the Committee on Nominations was presented by the Reverend Scott Middleton, Vice Chairperson, assisted by Miriam Alewine, Secretary. The report begins on page 207 of the pre-conference material. Mr. Harry Kent questioned whether all persons who have been nominated have been contacted and their consent to serve secured. The Reverend Robert Stillwell questioned the appropriateness of nominating persons to the Committee to promote Apportionment Payment, page 217, as this was to be a committee appointed by the Bishop. The Chair concurred that it should be deleted from the list. The Reverend David Lupo moved that Standing Rule 66.j be suspended to permit the nominations of persons who may not have been contacted in advance. The motion was approved.

The Conference moved to perfect the report. The Reverend Jimmy Adams moved to delete the name of Rufus Streater from the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals page 218, and also that John A. Mason be replaced by Ned Threatt. For the Board of Education, page 208, it was moved that the names "Jennifer Jackson" (resigned) and Patti Troxler Panetti be deleted and be replaced by Kristen Richardson and Ina Jean Steele. On the Camps and Retreats Board of Directors page 207 the name Thomas J. Bowman was substituted for Timothy Bowman. On the Board of Church and Society Molly Wilkes was replaced by Dr. Grady Brooks. The names R. Wayne Home, Jimmy J. Montgomery and George Manigo, Jr., all clergy, along with Lamais Muldrow, lay, were added to the Board of Diaconal Ministry, page 208.

There was considerable discussion about adequate representation from older persons, women and ethnic minorities. A motion was made that the report be referred back to the Nominating Committee to consider all ages, women, ethnic minorities in its report. The question was called. The motion to refer the report was defeated.

The Reverend Harrison Ervin moved to replace the name of John Warren with Jimmy Montgomery as a clergy member of the Committee on Standing Rules, page 218. The Reverend Reuben Marlowe moved to suspending the rules and add the name of Mrs. Thomasina McPhearson as a member of the Board of Evangelism, page 209.

The name of J. Austin Watson was substituted for the name of Joseph W. Pridgen on the Board of Health and Welfare, page 209. The name of Jerry Campbell was substituted for the name of John D. Thomas on the Board of Evangelism, page 209. The name of Barbara Borom was deleted from the Board of Laity, page 210. The names of John Redmond and Mildred Wright were added as "Lay Observers" on the Board of the Ordained Ministry, page 211. The name of Ann Walker, lay, was added to the Commission on Religion and Race, page 213. The name of Al Jeter was substituted for Alvin Shedd Jolley, lay, on the Commission on Worship pages 213-214. The name of Steve Jordan was substituted for Phillip Chance, Clergy, on the Committee on Deaconesses and Home Missionary Services, page 215. The Office of Ministerial Affairs Executive Committee was deleted from the list as it is not a Committee elected by the Annual Conference.

Under the "ex-officio" listing for the trustees of the Belin Property, page 219, all items were deleted and the position of "Marion District Superintendent" added. Under the Trustees of The Methodist Home Orangeburg, page 220, the name of the Board chairman was corrected to W. Robert Morris, Gene Couch was added as a clergy nominee and Betty J. Thompson, Chair of Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, was added under "ex-officio" members. The name of Grace Norman, deceased, was deleted from the Trustees of the Greenwood Methodist Home, pages 220-221.

Taylor Campbell was nominated to replace C.W. McNair, Clergy, and Harold Robinson was nominated to replace Erwin Paxton, lay, on the Trustees of the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee, page 221. The name of Roberta Josey was substituted for that of James S. Gadsden, Clergy, on the Trustees of Spartanburg Methodist College, page 222, and the name of Donnie James was added as a Student Advisory Trustee. On the Spartanburg District Board of Congregational Development and Redevelopment the name of Sara Ann White was replaced by that of Carolyn Brooks, page 225.

The Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery questioned what he perceived to be the small number of blacks nominated to chair conference boards and committees. The Nominating Committee responded that it had been deliberative and intentional in pulling the nominations together fairly and to include representation from all groups within the Conference. The Secretary of the Committee stated that worksheets used by the Committee contained information about the age, sex, and ethnic group of each nominee. A motion was made by the Reverend S. Alex Stevenson that future nominations indicate the ethnic group, age group and district of each nominee by means of a simple code placed before each name. There was considerable discussion. The motion was put to a vote and a clear call could not be made. The vote was taken again by a standing vote and counted by the tellers. The motion was defeated by a vote of 369 to 368.

The nominations for the Lay Leaders and Associate Lay Leaders which had not been before the body were presented by B.J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader and are as follows:

Questions were raised regarding the necessity of this Annual Conference nominating and electing the Committee on Petitions to the General Conference. It was concluded that the Conference did need to nominate this Committee at this time.

The Secretary moved that the nominations be closed with the exception of nominations for Chancellor, Parliamentarian, and Conference Secretary. The motion to close the nominations was approved.

The Bishop nominated Mr. Rudolph C. Barnes, Sr. to be Conference Chancellor and the Reverend Roger M. Gramling to be Conference Parliamentarian. The Reverend Delos C. Corderman was nominated by the Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr. for another term as Conference Secretary. A motion was made and adopted that the nominations be closed.

Mr. Corderman moved that following the evening worship service a business session be held to make up for time lost during the afternoon session to be adjourned at 10:00 p.m. The motion was defeated. With the Standing Rules requiring that the Report of the Council on Finance and Administration be presented on the first full day of the Session, Dr. Harry Irvin moved that the rule be suspended to hear the Report of CF&A on Tuesday morning. This motion was approved.

In the limited time remaining before adjournment, Bishop Bethea received the classes for ministerial membership in the Annual Conference. Those being received into Probationary Membership were called forward by the Registrar of the Board of Ordained Ministry. Traditional questions asked of probationers were posed to the candidates by Bishop Bethea. Those being received into Full and Associate Membership were called forward by the Registrar. The traditional questions asked of those being received into full conference membership were asked by Bishop Bethea. Following the reception of the classes, the Registrar of the Board of the Ordained Ministry presented the Board's reply to Minute Question No. 17 and the Board's Report as a whole was accepted.

SECOND DAY — MONDAY EVENING JUNE 1, 1992

"Celebrate God's Grace" and "Witness For Jesus Christ" was the theme of the Monday evening worship celebrating twenty years since the merger of the two South Carolina Annual conferences. The program was under the leadership of the Conference Council on Ministries and spotlighted agencies, institutions and special ministries supported by the Annual Conference.

Special music was presented by "Kids of the Kingdom" from Duncan Memorial United Methodist Church in Spartanburg, the "Prayer Band" and "Rural Mission Singers" from John's Island and the "Edisto Fork Parish Male Chorus" from Orangeburg.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY MORNING JUNE 2, 1992

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The Preacher was the Reverend Louise W. Newman. The Reverend Milton L. McGuirt served as Liturgist, and Mr. Charles Conrad was the Lay Reader.

The Conference reconvened at 8:30 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Blessed Assurance." The Reverend Phillip C. Thraikill began the first of three Bible Study sessions on the topic "Why The God-Man" examining John 1:1-18(RSV).

JOHN 1:1-18 "WHY THE GOD-MAN"

Purpose: To unfold this text and highlight its evangelistic center of concern

I. INTRODUCTION

Before us this morning is the prologue to the Fourth Gospel. It is the classic text for a number of important doctrines about Christ:

- (1) the preexistence and deity of the personal Word of God (v.1-5); and
- (2) the incarnation of that Word in Jesus the Messiah who is God's most complete self revelation (v.14, 18).

Since earliest days, theologians have set up their speculative camps around this text and pondered its poetic lines for insights into the deepest identity of the church's Savior. That is one use of this multidimensional text.

The thesis of this study, however, is that the focus and passion of this text is not speculative but practical and evangelistic. John presents the person of Christ and the purpose of God in the most exalted language because he is interested in the question of personal salvation: "How is it and through whom is it that persons are reborn spiritually as children of God?" The focus of the passage is not preexistence — v.1, "In the beginning was the Word" nor incarnation v.14, "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us." The focus is evangelistic — v.12, "But to all who received him, he gave power to become children of God; to those believing in his name."

In John's prologue we have theological speculation and the rehearsal of salvation history not as ends in themselves but in the service of faith-sharing and an invitation to conversion and incorporation into the church. Later, in chapter 3, John will give us a case study in the new birth with Nicodemus, but it is here in the prologue that the new birth is introduced as the center of concern. John was a competent theologian, a persuasive communicator, and a confident evangelist. Study of this text ought to strengthen us in those same disciplines. Close attention to this text answers the classic question posed by Anselm, "Why the God-man?"

II. STRUCTURAL COMMENTARY

In order to make my case we need first to examine the structure of this extraordinary passage. When we see the structure as John crafted it we will have a map by which to follow the development of his thought and discern his purpose.

Before the written text was the oral text. These verses were not so much for the eye to be read as for the ear to be heard. Rhetoric (skilled public speaking) was the dominant discipline of the ancient world, and ancient rhetoric took great care in the shaping of persuasive and elegant spoken texts. In written communication we use headings, paragraph indentations and punctuation as clues to structure and flow, where to begin and where to stop. But that is not possible in oral communication. Other techniques must be found, clues that alert the ear. In written communication we prize conciseness and avoid repetition; "wordy" or "redundant" are considered negative labels. But repetition with variation is at the very heart of oral communication. Preaching in the black tradition has maintained something of this ancient discipline.

1(vv.1-2)//1(v.18) The Thought Unit As A Whole

The first item to note is that John 1:1-18 is a thought unit. It stands apart from subsequent material and is bound at the beginning and end by key terminology. In vv.1-2 there is "the Word" and "God" (both shaded on your text), and at the end in v.18 the parallel terms "God" and "the only Son" (also shaded). By parallelism and inference John makes the point that the eternal Logos is also the incarnate Son. His new term "Logos" is thereby linked to a tradition designation of Jesus as "Son." The thought is also parallel. In the first two verses there is an emphasis on the companionship of the Word and God, "the Word was with God." This same theme is repeated in v.18 using a different image, "the only Son, who is in the bosom of the Father." To be "with God" is to be both close to and distinct from. To be "in the bosom of the Father" is to be both close to and distinct from. Thus, with repetition and variation of both terms and ideas, John marks out the beginning and ending of his first unit of thought.

It will help to visualize the structure if you imagine these outermost verses as the outside ring of a bulls-eye with each successive ring moving towards the center. Unlike us moderns who were taught to write in a linear fashion towards a conclusion, John does not write from beginning to end so much as from the ends to the center. The punch line is not at the end but in the middle. The central concern is then elaborated on in a series of parallel frames. Early Christian listeners would have picked up these verbal signals. What we see, they heard. Their expectation was that a speaker would work towards a major point through a series of moves and then repeat the themes in reverse order to make it memorable. The name for this pattern is a "chiasm"; other names are concentric or ring structure, and it was perhaps the most common construction in ancient rhetoric and thus in the New Testament. Once you see it, it will begin to appear in many other passages and yield valuable insights.

Because of the way our Bibles are printed in blocked columns with chapter and verse divisions laid over the text as a location grid, the internal structure of a thought unit is rarely noticed. We often misread a text because we don't see the map the author gave along with the content. It is not enough to understand the content and context of a passage if we put the emphasis in the wrong place. Knowing the structure enables the reader to put the emphasis where the author intended and see the balance between the parts of a thought unit. Whenever you read the New Testament and sense that the thought is repetitive (as so often in Paul and John) you are probably dealing with some sort of ring structure. This pattern was considered aesthetically appealing and also aided memorization. We see the structure of Greek architecture and admire its proportion and balance. The same is true of written texts once we see their artistry.

2(vv.3-10)//2(vv.14-16) John, Israel, And The Church

The next inside frame is vv.3-10 ("The Word And All Creation") parallel to vv.14-16 ("The Word And The Believing Church"). Think of these parallel sections as a wide ring just outside the center of the target. In vv.3-10 the key word is "light" which is repeated six times. These eight verses on creation and the history of Israel are stitched together by a common term. Note the structure as well. At the center in vv.6-8 is a word about John the Baptist and his ministry of bearing witness to the light. On either side of this are references to creation in v.3, "all things through him were made" and in v.10, "He was in the world, and the world was made through him." As in the whole of the prologue, we see the constant preference for concentric patterns even in sub-units.

We find the same pattern in vv.14-16. John the Baptist is at the center (v.15). Some scholars have said that the sections on John are later narrative comments inserted into an earlier poetic structure. I disagree. Whoever composed the prologue built them in from the beginning. And on either side of John the Baptist we find the repeated phrase "grace and truth." Again, we see the pattern of variation within repetition. John at the center with "light" as the repeated term in vv.3-10. John at the center with "grace and truth" as the repeated phrase in vv.14-16. It is a beautiful testimony to what care the author took in the composition of this meditation on Christian conversion. Here aesthetics, theology, a sense of redemptive history, and a passion for souls all blend together in a unified whole.

3(vv.11-13) The Core

Finally we come to the bulls-eye, the point of the arrow, the center of John's concern in vv.11-13. Reading from the outside to the center we have thus far touched two major themes: 1) Theology proper, the intimate relationship between God and the Logos/Son who reveals the Father through being co-creator and finally in the incarnation and 2) Salvation history: the ministry of John the Baptist in the context of creation, fall, and church. Now we come to the core theme: the new birth. John is an evangelist, a spiritual midwife who understands the process of the new birth from conception through gestation to delivery and aftercare. Look at the center, the second phrase of v.12, "he gave power (or authority) to become children of God." That is the pivot on which the whole prologue is balanced. The purpose of a concentric structure is to place emphasis at the center, and at the center of his magnificent text we find John's witness to the new birth.

On either side of this center are two parallel lines which delineate the human response to the liberating power of grace: "But to all who received him" (v.12a) before the center and "to those believing in his name" (v.12c) after the center. The first is an image of hospitality or welcome ("to receive") the second a combination of intellectual assent and heartfelt trust ("believing in his name"). Both are necessary. The new birth is of God, a miracle wrought by the Holy Spirit, a transfusion of divine life into a dead soul, but it is not without human cooperation. We must actively welcome the Christ who is offered and believe at least a minimal content about his person and work. Paul says, "For by grace are you saved through faith" (Eph. 2:8). John teaches the same truth in different language, "For by the new birth are you restored as God's children through receiving and believing." It cannot happen apart from God's initiating grace, but it will not happen without wholehearted human participation. It must be offered by a preacher or witness, and it must be received and believed. This is the primacy of grace and the dynamic synergism of the divine and human that John put forth and which lies at the heart of the Wesleyan vision of salvation.

What has John done in his prologue? With careful rhetorical symmetry and the beauty of near poetic language he has drawn us through a series of frames to the center of his concern and that is that we understand that all that God has done in the sending of the Son of light into the world of Darkness was so that men and women, boys and girls could be restored to God's family and reborn as God's children into the fellowship of the church, "Because out of his fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace" (v.16).

Now that we understand the architectural blueprint and theological movement of the text follow along as I read it aloud. Listen to this familiar passage and hear it again for the first time. (Read the text.)

III. LESSONS FOR EVANGELISTS

Thus far our study has been literary and theological. That is not enough where the topic of evangelism is concerned. From meditating on John's prologue I arrive at six practical insights for effective faith-sharing:

1) A Point Of Contact

First insight. You have to find a point of contact. For John it was the philosophical term "Logos." While it had roots in the Old Testament concept of the "Word of the Lord," the primary link was to Stoicism and other popular philosophies of the day. "Logos" was a bridge term with communications value. It referred to the reason or unifying principle behind all things. It is as if John was saying, "What you are speculating about as the reason or principle behind all things has become available to us in Jesus Christ." This point of contact must be discerned anew in each cultural setting. There are not many paths to God but there are many starting points towards the truth of Jesus Christ, and the first job of the evangelist is to discern a culturally relevant point of contact. Reading the works of George Barna (i.e., The Frog In The Kettle [1990], User Friendly Churches [1991] and What Americans Believe [Ventura, CA: Regal Press, 1991]) will begin to sensitize you to culturally relevant points of contact.

Just recently NASA astronomers revealed that their Cosmic Background Explorer Probe has detected background radiation from the very edge of the creation which confirms the big-bang theory and points scientists to a much clearer understanding of cosmic origins (see World, Vol. 7. No. 6 May 6, 1992, p.9). Science may give us the What? the How? and even the When? But it cannot give us the Who? and the Why? In a culture like ours where so many people give uncritical acceptance to science, this discovery could be a fruitful point from which to move towards the question of God and to retell the story of Jesus. The late Malcolm Muggeridge has written:

"With the Incarnation came the Man, and the addition of a new spiritual dimension to the cosmic scene. The universe provides the stage; Jesus is the play."

(Christianity Today, Dec. 19, 1975, p.22).

2) The Necessity Of A High Christology

Second insight. I see no way to do effective evangelism without a "high" Christology which confess with Thomas the doubter that Jesus is "My Lord and my God" (Jn. 20:28). Jesus was not a human being promoted to deity and adopted into the Trinity at resurrection and ascension. Jesus is the incarnation of the second person of the Trinity, the Logos, and is all the God that can be poured into the creaturely limits of human flesh. The Christ we offer to the lost is not some lesser divine being, some heavenly errand boy, but the very God who existed before time come among us in bone, in sinew, smile and sweat.

If you wish to explore this classical Christology, dig into the second volume of Thomas Oden's systematic theology The Word of Life (New York: Harper and Row, 1989). Better than anyone else Oden is helping us recover the classical consensus of early church theology as a remedy against the modern chauvinism which believes that if something is new it must automatically be better. We will be useless as evangelists unless we are convinced that putting the hand of the seeker into the hand of the man from Galilee is to place them in the hand of God. To do business with Jesus is to do business with God, for he alone is the one appointed by the Father to bring us home.

We need the same confidence as Ignatius of Antioch who was martyred in 110AD. The aged bishop was arrested, carried to Rome, tried, found guilty, and sentenced to be eaten by beasts in the arena. Tradition tells that when Ignatius was led to the arena at Rome, a sudden silence fell over the spectators. The venerable old saint stood steadfast in the center of the hushed silence. Then with a loud voice he shattered the stillness as he shouted, "Jesus Christ is the Word of God which has come forth out of the silence of God" (quoted in Richard Hoefler, A Sign In The Straw [Lima, OH: CSS, 1980], 110). That is the confidence of one who confesses the "godness" of Jesus.

3) The Reality Of Spiritual Warfare

Third insight. Evangelists are engaged in an invisible conflict that needs to be acknowledged. John stands apart from the Sumoptics for a number of reasons; one particular divergence between John and the other three is that they all contain numerous exorcisms and John not even one. If that brand of power ministry was historical, why did John omit it? Some modern commentators have taught that such stories are primitive and that John, being the most sophisticated of the gospel writers, omitted them. How modern! How wrong-headed! There is a better explanation. John omits the individual, personal episodes because for him the ministry of Jesus is a cosmic deliverance. Jesus is the light of the world who entered the territory occupied by spiritual darkness and was not overcome by it — v.5, "the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has not overcome it." Those who carry the light and witness to it will run into darkness — not just the absence of light but an aggressive, malignant, frustrating presence that actively diverts persons away from the gospel.

To evangelize is to engage in the spiritual equivalent of guerrilla action and hand-to-hand combat behind enemy lines. That is why it takes authority or power (exousia in Greek) to extract people out from under one spiritual dominion and restore them to the status of "children of God." Without Jesus Christ, persons remain trapped in spiritual darkness under a foreign power. Liberating spiritual authority is at the very center of John's concern, "he gave power to become children of God" (v.12).

Unless we acknowledge the reality of spiritual warfare and cosmic level opposition, we will never be very effective in evangelism. From Walter Wink's sophisticated exegetical studies (Unmasking the Powers [Philadelphia: Fortress, 1986]) to Hayner (Warfare Prayer [Ventura, CA: Regal, 1992]) and John Wimber's (Power Healing [New York: Harper and Rowe, 1987]) popular studies, and even the popular novels of Frank Peretti (This Present Darkness, Piercing The Darkness, The Prophet [Wheaton, IL: Crossway Books]) the church is recovering the early Christian consensus that the Evil One is no figment or specter but the one who through addictions, evil structures and personal power keeps people blind to the salvation and freedom found only in Christ.

Two sources of spiritual power, a revival of prayer and a recovery of the charisms of the Holy Spirit, are necessary tools for evangelism. Good theology and solid methods are not enough, for we are already glutted with both. There must be the power, exousia to use John's term, a living link to the living God. When a person surrenders to Christ as Lord and is baptized into the church, there the power of God is in evidence.

4) John The Baptist As The Model Evangelist

Fourth insight. John's prologue presents John the Baptist as the model evangelist. He is called and sent by God as a witness. He is not the light but bears witness to it. While personal testimonies are appropriate the evangelist does not rest the case on personal experience but points beyond it to Jesus Christ. It is Christ who is lifted up, not the evangelist, and not the church. The evangelist gives witness and always remembers that only the Holy Spirit can impart new life. Part of the witness of the evangelist is a bold testimony to the "godness" of Jesus. The Baptist was not shy at this point, "John bore witness to him and cried 'This is he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks before me, because before me he was''" (v.15). The work of Christ in cross and resurrection is important, but only because of his person, who he was — the Logos enfleshed and tented among us.

5) The Importance Of Aesthetics

Fifth insight. The Christian communicator must pay attention to aesthetics and the crafting of language. A roughhewn, no-nonsense gospel may be our frontier heritage, but when John wanted to open his story of Jesus he did it using the best of ancient rhetorical tools. Language that pleases and delights is not to be rejected. It is no crime to join beauty with truth in the presentation of Christ.

6) The Three Audiences Of Evangelism.

Sixth insight. Those who witness to Jesus Christ must be prepared to deal with three responses according to John. The first is indifference. Some cannot see, "He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world knew him not" (v.10). Our ministry for them is largely one of prayer. Stories abound in Christian lore of those who were converted only after years of prayer by a spouse or friend.

A second response is outright rejection "Unto his own he came and his own people received him not." Some persons, under conviction of the Spirit and fully aware of their need for Christ, still reject him. That is a testimony to two fundamental realities that deserve our respect: 1) the integrity of human freedom which grace upholds and 2) the enduring power of spiritual darkness. We have to love those people, let them walk away, and be prepared to share again when God gets their attention through pain or some other crisis to raise their level of receptivity.

Finally, there are those who receive, believe, and know the power of the new birth whether as a moment in time or a gradual dawning. It is those stories of personal transformation and spiritual growth that continue the trajectory established by the core of John's prologue. Why the God-man? Simply that we, as God's alienated offspring, might be rescued from spiritual and moral darkness and born anew into the family of God.

The business session of the Conference resumed with the singing of "Amazing Grace." The Report of the Committee on Courtesies and Introductions was made by the Reverend James E. Hunter who invited the Reverend Lemuel C. Carter to come forward for a special introduction. Mr. Carter introduced and presented the Reverend Lloyd A. Rollins, Executive Secretary for Emergency Response of the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR). Mr. Rollins brought greetings and words of appreciation from UMCOR for the support for UMCOR which has come from the South Carolina Annual Conference over the years. Bishop Bethea responded reminding the Conference of the tremendous amount of support which came into South Carolina through UMCOR in the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo and expressed the Conference's appreciation to UMCOR. Mr. Hunter also invited the Reverend Nellie G. Cloninger to make a special introduction. Ms. Cloninger presented to the Annual Conference the Reverend Wayne Bryant, Executive Director of the South Carolina Christian Action Council who brought greetings to the Conference on behalf of nearly two million Christians across South Carolina whose denominations are part of the Christian Action Council. Bill Beck, representative of the Heifer Project, was also presented to the Conference by Ms. Cloninger. He invited interested persons to a lunch on Wednesday to learn more about the Heifer Project.

The Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry, found on pages 34-41 of the pre-conference material was presented by Ms. Anne Horton, Chairperson, and Mrs. Hazel Bennett, Registrar. Item No. 9 on page 35 was corrected by the addition of the names of Ronald Ralph Brown and Tara Louise Lentz. Item No. 59, page 40, of the Minute Questions was corrected by the addition of the name of Katherine Lewis James. The Minute Questions were approved as presented. Those to be consecrated at this session of the Annual Conference were then "received" as Diaconal Ministers by Bishop Bethea. The Report of the Board of Diaconal Ministry was approved.

The Report of the Council on Finance and Administration was introduced by the Reverend M.L. Meadors, Jr. Mr. Meadors directed the Conference's attention to the yellow sheets numbered (2-A)-(4-A) which contained the updated Report No. 1 and Report No. 2. Mr. Meadors spoke briefly about the action of the General Conference specifically related to those apportioned items set by the General Conference. Mr. Meadors called attention to those items in the Report of the Council which contain changes over the previous year. The budget as being presented does contain additional funding for a new Associate Director in the Conference Council On Ministries. An 8.6 percent increase in the proposed salaries for district superintendents is contained in Report No. 3 along with a slight increase in the amount allowed for travel. There are changes in the dates for "special days" as proposed in report No. 4. In Report No. 7, the rate of reimbursement for mileage is to increase effective in 1994. Mr. Meadors also indicated the support of the Council on Report No. 8 for the request of the Council on Ministries for funding from the Permanent Reserve Fund for a new computer system.

The following was proposed by the Reverend Robert J. Howell, Jr. as a substitute to paragraph A, Report No. 3, page 5 of the pre-conference material:

A. The 1993 compensation for District Superintendent shall be as follows with the understanding that the item for in-district travel, which is paid from the District Administration Fund only by voucher, varies from district to district.

Average In Distance Travel	$2,200
Insurance	$960

For District Superintendents appointed during and before 1992, the salary for 1993 (exclusive of travel and insurance) shall be $53,060. District Superintendents appointed in 1993 and thereafter shall, upon appointment to the Cabinet, receive in addition to travel and insurance, a salary equal to their previous full salary (as calculated for moving purposes) minus the $960 cost of Conference Insurance. If the total Superintendent salary requirements are less than the amount budgeted for the year, the unused funds shall go to the Contingency Fund. If salary requirements exceed the amount budgeted, the additional funds shall come from the Contingency Fund.

In 1994 and in subsequent years each District Superintendent shall receive an equal salary increase computed as the average salary of the twelve District Superintendents times the percentage increase in the average salary of all Conference members in full connection for the preceding year, as calculated by the Commission on Equitable Salaries. The motion to amend was referred to CF&A as required by the Standing Rules.

There were a number of questions raised about the proposed 8.6% increase in the salaries for district superintendent. The Council replied that no increase was proposed in 1992 with the hope that local churches would follow suit; however, local churches have raised projected pastors' salaries for district superintendents. A question was also raised as to whether the Conference would have the opportunity to vote on the new Associate Director's position in the Conference Council on Ministries.

The Reverend A. McKay Brabham moved that a task force made up of three each of CF&A, Equitable Salaries, and the Board of the Ordained Ministry be established for the purpose of developing a plan to be brought to the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference which will assure that the differential between the highest and lowest salaries of conference members with at least ten years of service be no more than 50 percent. Following some discussion a motion to table the Brabham motion was made and approved. The Secretary moved to refer everything before the body to CF&A. This motion was adopted.

THE CABINET REPORT TO THE 1992 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Introduction

The prophet Jeremiah endears himself to me because he struggled so hard and so honestly, as he tried to reconcile the injustices of his day:

He struggled with rewards and punishment;
with recompense for good and evil,
for faithfulness and disobedience.

Scholars disagree on whether or not the prophet himself actually voiced this prophecy found in the 31st chapter of the Book of Jeremiah verse 33. However all agree that it reflects his profound insight into the conditions of his day and what he saw as the terrible need for covenant renewal and restored trust between God and Israel.

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Jeremiah believed that when the time of restoration came that the people would do what was right, not because of the law, but out of their inner convictions and deep desires. The covenant of Yaweh and Israel would finally be renewed and lasting.

However, when Jesus used the phrase, "New Covenant," at the Last Supper, he was talking about a covenant, not between God and a nation, but he was talking about a covenant between God and God's people; namely, people like us, gathered in this place, connected to each other by some common belief, commitment, faith. People like us — Bishop Bethea, Bishop Thomas, Cabinet Colleagues, Members of this Annual Conference, Clergy and Lay, Friends. It is my privilege to give this Cabinet Report on behalf of Bishop Bethea and my other colleagues on the Cabinet. The theme of the Report is "Strengthening the Covenant, Restoring the Trust."

We are people whose hearts have been touched by the sacrificial love of Jesus, and we have committed ourselves to being in Covenant with God, and in ministry and mission for Christ;

We are people called to be in covenant with the Annual Conference, to go where needed for the sake of ministry and mission;

We are congregations called to be in covenant with the Annual Conference, to accept those who are sent for the sake of ministry and mission;

We are people who struggle, I believe, to honor our covenant with God and with each other;

But we are all human, and at times we fail to uphold parts of the covenant. Sometimes we clergy laughingly say that we have promised to go where God wants us to go, not where the Bishop and the Cabinet want us to go, and we feel that the two are definitely not the same! When that happens, whatever the reason the result is pain, and often a weakening of the covenant, and of the trust level that we need to nurture and maintain.

Concerns Brought To The Cabinet

During the past months, the Cabinet has received both written reports and verbal communication from several sources, all of which address some common concerns about the appointment-making process:

Over the past two years, several pastors have raised questions about the Consultation Process in appointment making; the Cabinet believes that these are important issues within our covenant.

Last summer at the Ethnic Minority Local Church Pastors' School at Claflin College, some participants voiced concern and pain regarding appointments of black pastors in our Conference. Most recently these concerns have been addressed by some members of Black Methodists For Church Renewal; we believe that these are important issues within our covenant.

The Cabinet has received a report entitled "The Stress of Moving: Perceptions of United Methodist Ministers and Their Spouses" prepared as a doctoral thesis by one of our diaconal ministers and the wife of one of the elders in the Conference. This report has many implications regarding the appointment making process. We believe that these are important issues within our covenant.

Last summer we also received a report from the Commission On the Status and Role of Women, prepared by a male colleague who is an elder in our Conference. The report revealed the statistics showing salary patterns of all full-time pastors under appointment. It has strong implications about the effect of the appointment process on the salaries and future salaries of pastors, especially women pastors. The Cabinet believes that this is an important issue within our covenant.

Most recently we received the "White Paper on District Pastors' Councils" which was presented earlier today to the Ministerial Session of the Conference. In it, the elder who wrote the report talked about, a yearning for fellowship and trust among my fellow pastors." This report also addresses issues that relate to the appointment process. The Cabinet believes that these are important issues within our covenant.

All of these concerns and issues are important and need to be addressed. If they are not, the pain and frustration and disappointment that they foster will continue to weaken the covenant in which we share and the level of trust that we need to nurture and maintain.

In response to these and other concerns, Bishop Bethea has appointed a Cabinet Committee of five persons to study the issues and to prepare a response. This Committee is in the process of completing a paper; the Cabinet will decide how to most effectively share its contents with pastors and with members of the Pastor/Staff-Parish Relations Committee. One option being considered is to hold a Conference-wide Consultation or Consultations On Ministry, which would address these issues and concerns related to itineracy and ministry in our Conference.

These are concerns that belong to all of us not just the persons who have communicated them during these past months. All of these issues are important and there are no easy or simple solutions or answers to any of them. While it is not possible to deal with any of them entirely in this Report, we do wish to share some limited but important information, some facts and feelings, that affect all of us in our Conference — the clergy, the laity, and your Cabinet.

Facts

On the last day of this Annual Conference, Bishop Bethea will fix the appointments of pastors and churches. He will appoint pastors to 655 Charges that minister to a total of 1,072 churches.

There are several very important facts about these figures:

First, the top salary paid in our Conference is $69,253

- The minimum salary for an Elder in Full Connection serving full time is $25,650;
- 27 Charges pay exactly that amount;
- 35 additional Charges are on Equitable Salary at some level in order to have a full-time pastor (15 Elders, 6 PMs, 6 AMs, 8 LPs);

Secondly, within this range, consider the following: 71.5 percent of all pastors serving full-time appointments receive less than $35,000, while only 28.5 percent of all pastors serving full-time appointments receive more than $35,000.

In terms of pastors receiving financial affirmation when they change appointments, it is important to note that

- For every two pastors serving an appointment paying between $30,000–$39,000, there is only one appointment above $40,000;
- For every two pastors serving an appointment paying between $40,000–$49,000, there is only one appointment above $50,000.

In terms of membership of churches, not charges:

- 65 percent of the churches have fewer than 200 members; while 7.4 percent of the churches have 600 or more members.

What does this say about the upward mobility of pastors? What does it say about expectations that every move for every deserving pastor will be to a larger Charge with a higher salary? Some believe that in ministry we should not talk about upward mobility and should not make salary such an important issue; but clergy are human, and our ordained clergy have invested seven years of time and financial resources in higher education.

Cabinet members recognize that most pastors deserve affirmation when they move. When deserved affirmation is not possible, we all feel pain, frustration and disappointment, which weakens the covenant and the level of trust. The Cabinet believes that these are important issues within our covenant.

On the other hand, the Cabinet also recognizes that many churches are doing all they can do or should be doing toward salary; some are putting more financial resources into salary than into any other area of their total budget; yet, in order to keep a full-time pastor for that church or Charge, the pressure to do more continues.

Friends, it is a seemingly impossible situation! To use the education and the many other gifts and experience of pastors to the fullest, and to relieve some of our churches or Charges of financial pressures and free them for greater ministry and mission, we must work through Congregational Development at the Conference level. We need to create stronger churches and Charges with larger memberships and more adequate salaries. These accomplishments would enable the Cabinet to more effectively make appointments that recognize the gifts of the pastors and the needs of the churches.

We believe that this will greatly enhance the opportunities for ministry and mission for all of us who share in the covenant. However, for this to happen, Congregational Development must become more than a partially paid line item in the Conference budget. (In 1991, slightly more than half was paid toward that $1,000,000 line item.) We must make Congregational Development a priority in our Conference, for the sake of both pastors and churches. The Cabinet believes that this is an important issue within the covenant.

Local congregations will need to recognize their importance to the connection and members will need to reaffirm their vows to be loyal to the connectional nature of our Church. Congregations will need to be understanding and cooperative with Charge realignments — some station churches will need to be put on a Charge. In some cases, churches may need to merge; in other cases, churches already on a Charge, may need to be moved to another Charge, in order to better balance resources that are needed.

These are the hard facts. These are important facts, because they greatly impact not only potential ministry and mission, but they also impact the appointment making process. The Cabinet believes that these are important issues within the covenant.

Feelings

There are also some harsh realities related to feelings that impact the appointment-making process and affect all of us who share in the covenant.

Though every United Methodist minister took a vow to go where she/he is needed, it is not quite as simple as it sounds. Pastors have families, and families have needs which greatly affect appointment-making decisions: size and condition of parsonages; quality of schools and special education opportunities; salary levels; proximity to parents who are ill; nearness to a specific college or university to help cut costs; accessibility to special medical care; employment for pastors' spouses — name only some of these needs.

Appointment-making which ignores such needs of clergy families can lead to very difficult situations for both pastors and churches. However, with 150-180 pastors and Pastor-Parish Relations Committees requesting changes in appointments each year, the Cabinet finds it impossible to manage the system in a way that satisfies all the needs of every family.

The reason is simple: The needs of one family clash with the needs of another family.

To put a pastor at a church near a special medical facility because of the illness of a family member may deny another pastor's family a good school situation for their children, or an employment opportunity for another pastor's spouse.

The clashing of family needs guarantees pain for some pastors receiving appointments every year.

It guarantees frustrations and disappointments of Pastor-Parish Relations Committees and congregations, who cannot always get the pastor that they believe they need, or that their District Superintendent believed they need.

It guarantees struggle and frustrations and pain for the Bishop and the District Superintendents who deeply care and are committed to representing both pastors and churches in our districts. No amount of compassion by those of us making appointments can eliminate these difficult situations. Add to all of this the continuing issues of racism, sexism-ageism (older sometimes meaning 50!), and prejudice against single pastors, and it is easy to see why the process of appointment-making places such a difficult strain on our covenant and on the level of trust we need to nurture and maintain. The Cabinet believes that these are important issues within the covenant.

Summary

However, struggling with these issues is some of what it means to be bound together in covenant within the fellowship of The United Methodist Church in our Conference. Some of these factors cannot be changed. They will always be difficult and challenging. However, we believe that all of us — clergy, laity, your Cabinet, can and should address these concerns and issues and determine how we can renew our covenant and strengthen the trust within our connection. Even when a system cannot be drastically changed, it is possible to change the way we live and covenant within that system. As we work toward these goals, we all need to be led by the directives outlined in the Book of Discipline that address many of the aspects of our covenant that are so tested during the appointment-making process. However, we must also address these issues and concerns from the biblical foundation and the theological framework that makes us who we are.

Jeremiah was right. Change happens when people respond out of their inner convictions and deep desires. As we continue to live in the biblical tradition of covenant, out of our own convictions and desires we can strengthen the covenant and restore the level of trust that we need to nurture within our fellowship.

May God bless us and lead us as we seek to live the law that God has written on our hearts — and God will be our God and we shall be God's people.

Gloria Robbins Davis
For The Cabinet

Bishop Bethea expressed the appreciation of the Conference to Mrs. Davis and the other members of the Cabinet who are returning to local church service after this session of the Annual Conference — the Reverend James E. Hunter, the Reverend George J. Manigo, and the Reverend F. Oscar Smith, Jr.

A brief recess was observed at 10:30 a.m.

The Session reconvened with the singing of "I Stand Amazed in the Presence."

The Reverend James E. Hunter asked that Mrs. Hazel Schenk be escorted to the platform for a special recognition. She is retiring this year after six years of service as Secretary in the Spartanburg District Office. A Certificate of Appreciation was presented to her. The other District Office Secretaries were asked to stand and be recognized.

The floor was given to Dr. Carolyn Briscoe, Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries. Dr. Briscoe introduced the Reverend W. Robert Borom for the presentation of the Denman Evangelism Awards. Mr. Borom indicated that these awards are presented annually by the Board of Evangelism in conjunction with the United Methodist Foundation for Evangelism and awarded to persons doing work of responsible evangelism in the local church. Mr. Borom presented two lay awards: to Mr. Robert C. Warner, Kinards United Methodist Church and to Andy and Fran Jones, Trinity United Methodist Church, West Columbia. The clergy award was presented to the Reverend Luonne A. Rouse, Pastor of the Joseph B. Bethea United Methodist Church, Myrtle Beach.

An overview of the program of the Council on Ministries was presented by Dr. Briscoe. Appreciation was expressed to the Reverend Lemuel C. Carter, Council Director, upon completion of an exciting and rewarding first year as director. Mr. Carter recognized the Council's three associate directors, James S. Arant, Clarence O. Pittman, and Jack C. Washington. He also expressed appreciation to the members of the Council, the Council staff, the Cabinet and Bishop Bethea, and the pastors and local churches for their support of the work of the Council during the past year.

Dr. Briscoe directed the attention of the Conference to the Report of the Council which begins on page 100 of the pre-conference material. Recommendation No. 2, page 101, was presented for consideration. Concern was expressed regarding the procedure followed in developing and filling this position. The recommendation was approved and Mrs. June B. Willson was presented to the Conference as the Associate Director of Youth and Age Level Ministries. Report No. 1, was then adopted as presented.

Report No. 2 was adopted as presented.

Under Report No. 3, Section I, the date for Native American Awareness Sunday was corrected to April 25, 1993. Section I was then approved as presented. Section II and Section III were deferred to be acted upon as a part of the Report of CF&A. The recommended increase in the cap on Conference Advance Specials to $15,000.00 in 1994-96 was approved. Section IV, pages 107-115, was approved as presented. The Reverend Gene Norris moved that the programs of the Conference Council on Ministries shall include in its pre-conference report the number of persons participating in each conference program and the cost of the program for the previous year. The motion was approved. Report No. 4 was received as information to be acted upon as a part of the Report of CF&A.

The Reverend Ted H. Walter, chairperson of the Board of Ordained Ministry called the Conference's attention to information on page 42 of the pre-conference material concerning scholarships, grants and loans for ministerial education and the endowment fund for continuing education. Mr. Walter noted that there were no applications this year for the Bessie Bellamy Parker Memorial Scholarship. The information was moved to record.

Bishop Bethea in promoting continuing education recognized the Reverends Timothy and Thomas Bownan, recent recipients of the Doctor of Ministry Degree from Columbia Theological Seminary. Others who have earned the Doctor of Ministry Degree were asked to stand also. It was announced that the offering received during the Monday evening service to assist with the travel expenses of the John's Island Group amounted to $633.21.

The hour having arrived for the Midday Preaching Service, the business of the Conference was recessed. The Session joined in the singing of "I Love To Tell the Story." Bishop James S. Thomas was introduced and presented again to the Conference.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2, 1992
"What It Means To Be A Faithful Disciple"
Luke 4:9-13
Bishop James S. Thomas

Bishop Bethea and members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, as I came here with anticipation, I leave now with great joy. I rejoice in the warm welcome that you've given to a son who wandered away from home but came back; for your gracious words as I have moved among you; and for the splendid spirit which I have sensed at this Annual Conference.

I leave now with a feeling of deep gratitude for this conference, both as it has been and as it is now, and as it will be. Thanks be to God for this.

You know how close I am to your present Bishop. That closeness will continue and will grow, and so will my love for you. Let us pray.

Oh God, our minds are filled with so many things from so many places: with concerns that we have brought and some that we have gained. Come now and settle our minds; be at the center of our hearts; open our ears so that we may hear, that we may hear you, that you will speak through us. Give us that peace which passes understanding. And let Jesus Christ be Lord, for it is in his name that we pray. Amen.

Next Sunday is Pentecost Sunday and that should be noted by all of us, but this morning I will take a flashback to think about what it means to be a faithful disciple. I read that memorable setting of Jesus at the temptations, beginning at verse 9 of Luke 4

"And he led him to Jerusalem, and had him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, If you are the Son of God, throw Yourself down from here; for it is written, He will give his angels charge concerning you; and on their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone. And when the devil had finished every temptation, he departed from Him until an opportune time."

Luke 4:9-11, 13 NASB

That is the way the devil always does it, isn't it? He departs until another opportunity presents itself, and then he stays with us for a while. At least that's the way it's been for me. We would all be good disciples if the temptations were not so strong: to continue in our own ways, to stay home from church when it's cloudy, to forget the vows which we have made, to seek the security which comes primarily from the hands of humans but not from God.

Jesus has given us the way to discipleship, and it's clear in the New Testament. But in this temptation story there is so much that should be noted.

The setting is a rural church in Appalachia. A man lifts his eyes to heaven, and places his hand in a box of rattlesnakes. He takes one out of the cage, holds it over his head, and chants a tune. In a moment, out of fright or instinct, the snake strikes him and he's dead. That's the way he thinks of discipleship. Do something spectacular. Do something that people will see. Don't be ordinary. If you are the Son of God, jump from this place and test God. And if God holds you up everybody will know that you are God's Disciple.

Jesus did not look upon this as the way to discipleship. But we're all tempted in this way, aren't we? If you're a Christian, do something unusual, even spectacular. Then people will believe. This is continuing temptation for you and for me because we find it difficult to stand the ordinariness of our days. And yet, life is filled with the ordinary. I have few extraordinary days and I thank God for them, but for most of my days, I'm fighting the battle of the bills, getting clothes from the cleaners, going to the barber shop. If I don't do these things nobody else will. So I've made up my mind to do them, and my day is filled with them. I want to do all these holy things, and here I must do the ordinary. But being a disciple of Jesus means that we find meaning in the ordinary. We find Christ in the ordinary. We find Christ among the person who walks the street, even sometimes the homeless. And yet we're always looking for the spectacular. And we're weary of ordinariness.

After the late Bishop J. Chess Lovern returned home after his election, his wife informed him that the garbage needed to be carried out. He said, "Would you ask a Methodist Bishop to take out the garbage?" His wife said, "Yes, you can put on your robe while you do it, but do it." There comes a time when we must see Christ in the ordinary things because that's what life is mostly about. Ordinary people, even ordinary Bishops, ordinary preachers who find Christ in the ordinary church. That's what life is mostly about. And if we do not find Christ in the ordinary, we may not find Christ at all.

I got a phone call in Dallas from a young man whom I had a little trouble remembering. I had ordained him 25 years ago. I will never know how he got my phone number. I remember him well, but we hadn't seen each other in 25 years. He said, "I want to come and talk with you. And I'm willing to drive the four and a half hours that I need to see you." And I thought that was a mighty miracle. But he came. He said, "Now, you may not recognize me — I don't have as much hair as I once had, and what I have is gray." And I said, "Well, I don't have as much as I had, and there is gray." He said, "I'll be coming in a Honda." And wanting to be in one "accord" with him I said, "Alright. I'll meet you in the churchyard." He came and talked to me. He said, "I am not in the conference any longer. I can't stand the ordinariness of the church. I want to go places and so many people in the church don't want to go. I see visions and so few others see them with me. I want the church to be out front and there are people who want the church to stand still. What do I do?" Well, no one can tell anyone else what to do, but I suggested that life might be found in the ordinary places of life — where meaning is, where Christ is, where the Holy Spirit is — if only we could see God there. In the ordinary. I said, "I have no other message than that. Life will always be this way. And maybe we can find Christ there." He went back home and called me again and came back to talk to me and the message was the same.

For me, during my common days I've had to find the Holy Spirit in the ordinary places of life because that's mostly what life is made up of. I was talking to an administrator of a university who said, "All these problems have come now and it's getting to be very heavy." I said, "Well, we get a chance to wear our robes twice a year, and if you can find a little bit of glory in your life you can keep going." That's the way to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. Not looking for the spectacular or those things that are so far out, but finding Christ where Christ would find us: in the ordinary things of life. That is where we do the ordinary things and do them well and where we give our lives to Christ in all that we do.

I.

First, then, being a disciple of Christ, a faithful disciple, is just sometimes being there. Being older now with a little more time, I find that opportunity. A friend called and said, "I'm in the hospital. I don't know how things will go." And my only message was: "I'll be there. As soon as I can weave my way through the Dallas traffic I'll be there." That's the greatest sermon I could preach. I'll be there. And her daughter called from college and said, "I think that things are getting rather heavy." And I said, "As soon as I can get a flight I'll be there." That's my sermon — I'll be there. There isn't time to talk about the many ramifications of this. But just being there is a benediction.

In York, South Carolina there was a man who has now gone to the church triumphant whom I could count on to be in the left-hand corner near the front every Sunday. Even though some of the sermons his preacher preached would not call anybody to church. But he was there. Good sermon, bad sermon, rain, storm ... he was there! Because loving Christ meant being there. I'm thankful for what the church has been for me because through God's grace this was the place I was baptized and I'm here.

II.

In the second place being a good disciple means going to church before we go to church. I sat in the pew in Dallas more than I have in 35 years. For 25 years (24 years as a Bishop), it meant being the preacher, and one has to be very careful about that. But sitting in the pew as I did for four years, and being there every Sunday, sitting there and listening to my pastor taught me how to go to church before I got to church. There are 168 hours in the week and if I sleep 56 of them, I've still got 112 hours left. I've got to balance out the time that I look at television by praying for my pastor before I go to church. Pray that God can cut through all of the triviality of our time, all of the secularity, all of the pomp and the splendor, and go to the deepest part of my heart and convert me again. So I prayed for my pastor before I went to church. Because, you see, my life is overbalanced with so much now — the commercials are enough to do one in. And I've got to find a way to pray before I get there. So that when I do get there I might find a way to praise God, to be renewed and made whole because I come in great need.

I come with all of the burden of my own sins and all of the hurts and the anger that I've known. I come with the burden of my physical pain, and more than that my emotional instability. I come needing so badly to hear the word. To hear anybody preach. To tell the story of life that opens up, gives me a chance to be new. I've been on the road now a long time, but I still need it. And I pray for the man who stands here that that man or that woman might tell the story and make me feel new, give me a new sense of who I am and who God is.

III.

Thirdly, being a disciple of Jesus Christ means that I come to support. I had a student once in seminary, a smart student who is now a university professor, who went to church and would always criticize the minister's sermon. And you will always find someone to criticize a minister's sermon. Nobody's so smart that they could preach a sermon that everybody would like, and if he does it wouldn't be a Christian sermon. And so he said to me, "I'm getting disgusted with hearing such poor preaching." And I said, "I like the preaching that he does better than I like the preaching that you don't do." Anybody can preach a perfect sermon if you're willing to fit yourself to it, but listen for God's word, for God is speaking. And God has something to say to you, even through broken words, and if you listen you may be renewed. But if you fail to listen, your own arrogance might do you in.

Now we must come to the conclusion of the matter. I tell you, my friends, when you're this kind of disciple, whether you're in pulpit or pew, there is a great joy that comes to you. In these latter days of my life I've got to tell the story. I do not know where I would be if it were not for the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. I do not understand how I could be in any profession that would bring me greater joy than ministry. I do not know how it is that God has made of one person, who could make nothing of himself, the person who was able, at least, to serve. But God can do great things with you. Whatever you have done, wherever you have been, whatever you want to be. You don't have to be spectacular. You have to be a faithful disciple finding Christ in the ordinary things of life, and serving Christ with all you have.

I love to tell the story, for that story is a story of redemption that finds me where I am and makes of me what I never dreamed I could be. I love to tell the story, for that story brings enemies together and causes people of different heritages to live as one. I love to tell the story, because it inoculates me against all of the secularity of our time and lets me know that God alone is God, and God will save me, even me. Thanks be to God for the story. Amen.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 2, 1992

The Conference reconvened at 2:00 p.m. with special musical selections presented by the Mechanicsville Children's Choir. The Invocation was given by the Reverend Olene Civils.

The Reverend James E. Hunter introduced the Reverend Debra Quilling who invited the Conference to greet and welcome Dr. Elaine Jenkins from South Carolina who serves as Associate General Secretary of the Commission on Religion and Race of the United Methodist Church. Dr. Jenkins thanked the Conference for the progress which it has made towards inclusiveness.

Dr. and Mrs. Merrill Odom from the New Mexico Annual Conference were presented by Mr. Hunter. The Odoms from Floyd, New Mexico, were among those who came to assist the Conference in the aftermath of Hurricane Hugo.

The annual Scouting Recognitions were introduced by Mr. Harry Kent, President of the Conference United Methodist Men and Mr. Paul Williford assisted by the Reverend Kenneth Phelps. The following eight units were recognized for receiving the Bishop's Award of Excellence:

- Cub Scout Pack No. 507, Lexington United Methodist Church
- Girl Scout Junior Troop No. 1103, Wesley United Methodist Church, Columbia
- Boy Scout Troop No. 476, St. Paul United Methodist Church, Florence
- Cub Scout Pack No. 7, Grace United Methodist Church, North Augusta
- Cub Scout Pack No. 190, Trinity United Methodist Church, Orangeburg
- Boy Scout Troop No. 190, Trinity United Methodist Church, Orangeburg
- Girl Scout Cadet Troop No. 67, St. Luke United Methodist Church, Lancaster
- Girl Scout Cadet Troop No. 253, Limestone United Methodist Church, Gaffney

Ms. Anne Horton requested the privilege of introducing Ms. Clara M. Welch, a Diaconal Minister, coming by transfer from the Baltimore Annual Conference, and J. Keith Locklair, a candidate for consecration as a Diaconal Ministry who was unable to be present earlier. Mr. Locklair along with the Reverend S. Alex Stevenson were then received into Diaconal Membership and Full Membership respectively.

The Report of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry pages 124-129 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Bob Stillwell, chairperson, who thanked the Annual Conference for its support of the areas and institutions represented under the Board including support for the Africa University. Mr. Stillwell presented a copy of the new handbook on United Methodist institutions of higher education to the Conference. He also introduced and presented Ms. Tonya Denise Brown, a student at Rust College, Holly Springs, Mississippi, and an interpreter for the Black College Fund, to the Conference. Ms. Brown spoke about the important ministry of the historically black colleges of the United Methodist Church.

The reports found on pages 124-129 of the pre-conference material were then moved to the record without reading. Reports about religious activities on the campuses of Claflin, Columbia, Spartanburg Methodist and Wofford Colleges were made by the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery, the Reverend Toni L. White, the Reverend Michael Bowers, and the Reverend Talmadge B. Skinner.

Mr. Stillwell spoke about the many responsibilities of the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry including nominations for the trustees of the three senior colleges and for the directors of the Wesley Foundation boards. He noted the addition and expansion, on a part-time basis, of a campus ministry program at Francis Marion State College. Mr. Stillwell also announced that the names of two winners of the Merit Scholarship Awards would be announced soon by the Merit Scholarship Committee.

A question was raised by the Reverend Rosetta E. Ross about an update on the progress of a study concerning the numbers of ethnic minority students, faculty and staff being employed in conference-related institutions. Mr. Stillwell reported that reports are still being received and that the information will be forthcoming. Ms. Ross moved that the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry include in future reports: (1) the total number of students, administrative staff, full-time faculty, and tenured faculty, and a breakdown of each by race and gender, for each of the senior colleges; and (2) a statement assessing the relationship of the numbers of administrative staff and tenured faculty to the number of students at each institution on the basis of race and gender. The motion was defeated.

The Report of the Board of Laity, page 119 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Mr. B.J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader. As a part of his report, Mr. Pasley stressed the importance of participation once elected to a board or committee. He also stressed that we must trust God to provide the resources necessary to carry forth his ministry. Report No. 1 of the Board was moved to the record without reading.

The Report of the United Methodist Women, pages 139-140 of the pre-conference material, was introduced by Mrs. Harriet Mays, President. A special presentation was made by a group in the form of a "conversation" about the missional program of the UMW. With the addition of the figure $637,188.00 as the amount given for "Local and Community Work" the report was moved to the record.

The Reverend Carol R. Cannon reported that this year marks the 20th anniversary of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women. The occasion is being observed with the serving of birthday cake in the Tony White Theatre and the Conference is invited. A brief recess was observed.

The Session reconvened with the singing of "Standing In the Need of Prayer."

A Resolution regarding paper usage was introduced by the Reverend Elizabeth George. It was agreed to "suspend the rules" in order to receive the resolution. The Resolution was referred to the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals.

The Report of the United Methodist Men, page 140 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Mr. Harry Kent, President. Mr. Kent moved the adoption of Report No. 2 of the Board of Laity to reelect Mr. B.J. Pasley as Conference Lay Leader, and it was approved. Mr. Kent moved the report of UMM to record, and it was adopted.

The Reverend Calvin Harris requested a point of personal privilege to express concern for the desperate need for ministry to those incarcerated in the correctional system of our state and especially to those in the juvenile settings. Mr. Harris moved that the Annual Conference request the Conference Council on Ministries between the 1992 and 1993 Sessions of the Conference to prepare a proposal for missional ministry to persons at all age levels incarcerated in correctional institutions in South Carolina. Several persons spoke to ways in which the church is already involved in a prison ministry. Mentioned was the Karios Ministry, an ecumenical ministry among Catholics, Episcopalians, Methodists and Presbyterians among others which began in 1983 and needs volunteers especially among the Black constituency; the Alston Wilkes Society founded 30 years ago through the efforts of a Methodist Minister of the South Carolina Annual Conference; and the new "Prison Fellowship" program. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Conference Council on Youth Ministries, page 140 of the pre-conference material, was presented. An oral report was also given by Tricia Watson, Chairperson, and Kalisha Tarrence, Vice Chairperson. The report was then moved to record.

The Reverend Elisabeth George stated her desire to withdraw the resolution on paper usage which she had previously presented.

In the absence of Mrs. Martha Alewine, Chairperson, the Report of the Board of Health and Welfare, page 200 of the pre-conference material, was introduced by Dr. Carolyn Briscoe. The Report of Epworth Children's Home, page 134, was made by Mr. Charles A. Hutchins who made some additional remarks about the ministry of Epworth. The Reverend C. Burton Sheffield presented the Report of the Methodist Home, Orangeburg, pages 132-133, expressing appreciation for the support of the Annual Conference. The Reverend Ted R. Morton, Jr. presented the Report of the Greenwood Methodist Home, page 132, noting that we are on the fringe of a "tidal wave of aging" in America, and that our homes are a vital ministry for the church as we seek to "care for the people who cared for us." Mr. Bert Mask presented the Report of the Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee, pages 133-134; the new facility opened on December 2, 1991. Presently there are 35 apartments occupied and 9 "assisted living" rooms occupied. A 22-bed skilled nursing infirmary is scheduled to open in July. Mr. Mask expressed appreciation for the support given to this facility and especially for the support provided through the Support Fund. Dr. Briscoe moved to record the reports as found on pages 200 and 132-134.

The Report of the Board of Education, page 117 of the pre-conference material, was moved to the record without reading.

The Report of the Board of Camps and Retreats, page 118 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Mrs. June Willson. A report on the response thus far to the Camps and Retreats Development Campaign was distributed to the Conference. $146,701.68 had been contributed to the Campaign as of April 30, 1992. The Report along with the Report of the Camps and Retreats Development Committee, page 60, was moved to the record.

The Report of the Board of Missions, page 120 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Dr. Michael C. Watson, Chairperson. Dr. Watson began by speaking briefly about the Haitian Refugee problem. He asked that letters be written urging recognition of rights for the Haitian refugees. He stated that "missions" is the most important ministry of the church and encompasses all other areas. He urged local churches to increase their missional outreach and raise missional consciousness. Dr.

Watson challenged every Methodist in South Carolina to be in mission. The Report of the Board was moved to record. "VIM, Vigor, and Vitality," the newsletter of the South Carolina United Methodist Volunteers in Mission was distributed to the Conference and received as the Report of UMVIM. The Report of the Committee on Congregational Development Redevelopment and Revitalization, page 138 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Lemuel C. Carter on behalf of the Reverend Edward H. McDowell, Jr. A moment of silence and prayer was observed for the McDowell Family in the recent death of Mrs. McDowell. The Report was approved as presented.

The Report of the Commission on Worship, page 119 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt, Chairperson. Mrs. McGuirt spoke briefly about the new Book of Worship approved by the recent General Conference and stated that it should be available soon. The Report was approved.

The Report of the Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling, pages 137-138 of the pre-conference materials, was approved with appreciation expressed to the Reverend Robert J. Norris who has chaired the Committee.

The Report of the Commission on Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns, page 135 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Nellie C. Gray Cloninger, Chairperson. Mrs. Cloninger urged local churches to staff this area and to pursue this work in the local church program. The Report was moved to record.

The Report of the Commission on Religion and Race, page 135 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Debra A.S. Quilling, Chairperson. She highlighted the upcoming workshop on "Combatting Racism in the 90s." Ms. Quilling stated that while pain and tension are still here, God is moving in the life of this Annual Conference and the Conference is moving towards being truly Brothers and Sisters in Jesus Christ. The Report was moved to record. The Report of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, page 136 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Carol R. Cannon and was moved to record. The Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridgebuilder Award was presented by the Reverend Roberta C. Josey. This year's award recipient was the Reverend John Wesley Culp, founder of the Salkehatchie Summer Service program. Mr. Culp responded expressing his appreciation for the support given this ministry by the Conference and stressing the need to help people in need in our communities. The Commission also presented a corsage to Mrs. Cannon in appreciation of her service as chairperson of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women.

THIRD DAY — TUESDAY EVENING JUNE 2, 1992

The Service of Ordination of Deacons and Elders and the Consecration of Diaconal Ministers was held on Tuesday evening, June 2, 1992, at 7:30 p.m. in Johnson Arena. Bishop Joseph B. Bethea presided. The Reverend Sheila D. Rogers was the Preacher. Music for the service was provided by the Clergy Choir under the direction of Avery Brown and Carter Breeze. An offering was received for the benefit of the Seminary Students Scholarship Fund.

The following persons were consecrated as Diaconal Ministers: Hazel Correll Bennett, Richard William Branch, Laurie Gamble Brandes, Katherine Lewis James, Joseph Keith Locklair.

The following persons were ordained as Deacons: Michael Leroy Boughman, Charles Samuel Branch, Barry Webb Cannon, Bernard Carlton-Wallace, Richard Glenn Davis, Sr., Joseph Duane Flowers, Douglas Wayne Gilliland, Kenneth Joel Kovas, Lee Ann Livingston, James Jeffrey Merck, Wyatt Clifton Minton, III, Audrey Geissinger Ritter, David Carroll Taylor, Grady Edward Usher, Mary Jane Shoemaker Walden, Lloyd Earl White, Thomas Byars Wilkes, III, George Mowry Workman. The orders of the following persons were recognized as the Order of Deacon: Robert Clayton Childers, David George James, Michael Steven Leonhardt.

The following persons were ordained as Elders: Emmett Warren Ashmore, Elizabeth Burgess Drennan, Jack Lee Fenner, Jerry Louis Gadsden, Hayes Timothy Gainey, April Lee Hall, Josephine Mellichamp Locklair, Susan Leonard Ray, Stephen McDaniel McCormick, Miyoung Paik, Karen Hollis Radcliffe, Mark Freeman Robinson, Marguerite Kempson Stilwell Shephard, Scott Alexander Stevenson, Steven Medlin Todd, Carol Jean Peppers Wray. The orders of the following persons were recognized as the Order of Elder: Jacqueline Connerly, Keith Erick Shivers, Sr.

"Fulfill Your Ministry"
Matthew 28:16-20
The Reverend Sheila D. Rogers

My name is not Paul.

Nor do I claim to be a modern day version of the apostle by that name (I imagine he would be glad to hear that).

But the words Paul wrote to his young friend Timothy are appropriate for all who are in ministry.

"Preach the gospel, in season and out. Preach the gospel when it is convenient and when it isn't. Preach the gospel when you feel like it and when you don't. For the time is coming when people will not listen to sound doctrine, but they will long to hear only that which appeals to them."

G. Campbell Morgan heard these words: "The preacher must capture the spirit of the age." He responded, "God forgive him if he does! The preacher's business is not to capture the spirit of the age, but to correct it."

Every preacher in every age must struggle to preach the Word of God that people need to hear, not the word that they want to hear; to be sure that the word we speak is God's Word and not our Word. After Paul listed several things that Timothy should do as a minister he concluded by saying, "fulfill your ministry."

Good, broad, general advice. Who could disagree with the notion that we should fulfill our ministry? But how? What do we have to do to be faithful to our call?

I used to think my father-in-law, Will Rogers, was the luckiest man in the world. It seemed that everywhere he went he was blessed with the most wonderful, loving, and precious people in the world. How did he continue to receive such unique appointments, I wondered.

The answer is that Will has found one of the secrets of a successful ministry and that is to be where you are. To really be there.

How can you minister to a congregation when your heart is with the people at your last appointment and your mind is busy planning where you will be next? So, wherever you are, be there; heart, mind, and body.

There was once a man who sold newspapers on a street corner. Each day he would wait for the truck to arrive bringing his stack of papers. One day when the papers were thrown from the truck they struck the man knocking him to the pavement. Slowly he got to his feet, looked around, and said, "I can't see." He adjusted to being blind and continued working. In a few weeks the man throwing the papers from the truck once again knocked the man to the pavement. He got to his feet and shouted, "I can see! But I can't hear."

Several weeks passed when lo and behold the man was once again knocked to the pavement. This time he staggered to his feet. He looked this way and that. And then he leaped into the air shouting, "I can see! I can hear! But ... who am I?"

Who are you?

Are you who others think you are?

Are you who others want you to be?

Whoever you are, you are unique.

God has given you special gifts and graces to be used in ministry.

You are not like anyone else.

One of our struggles is to affirm our uniqueness; to be confident in who we are and not try to pattern our ministry after someone else. Someone else might be a better preacher, a better administrator, a better visitor. But you have something special to offer; discover it and use it.

You are an individual, but as you come to be consecrated or ordained, you join a group of others who have been set apart for ministry. We need to remember that the sum of us is greater than any single one of us. We're not here to compete with one another, but to complement and to work together so that in the end, it is God who gets the final credit.

When you go to a church you are not the only minister who has ever been there. If you do a good work remember that you are building on a foundation laid by someone else.

I am presently serving in Duncan Memorial which is located in a community that is changing racially and economically. If I am able to do any good work in that community I know it will be because Joe Cal Watson laid the foundation.

Let us be secure enough in who we are to be able to give credit to those who served before and will serve after we do. It is a sad thing when our own insecurities cause us to tear down our brothers and our sisters.

Whether we like it or not we are examples. How can we tell our members that they must love one another, when we in the clergy do not follow our own advice? God's heart must be sad when he sees how we destroy one another with our attitudes and words.

Jesus said that if anyone says they love God and they do not love their brother or sister, then they are lying. How can you love God whom you have not seen, if you do not love your brother or sister whom you have seen? Let's work together for God's kingdom, not for a bunch of individual kingdoms.

Be faithful. Fulfill your ministry. Know who you are as both a unique individual and as a member of a special group set apart for ministry.

In 1981 my husband, Paul, our three children, and I went to the tiny Caribbean Island of St. Vincent to serve as missionaries.

It was the perfect place for us. Paul loves the beach. I love the mountains. From our front porch we could both have the view we desired. Our three years there were wonderful and healing for me. When we left South Carolina, I was determined that I would never again be a minister in this conference.

Before going to St. Vincent, Paul and I had both been serving churches in the Greer area. When we decided it was time to move, we discovered what a problem we were as a clergy couple. It seemed that there was just nowhere to send us. And so, we left the States, and I was both angry and hurt. In St. Vincent there was such a shortage of pastors that there was not much time for me to brood; there was much work to do — preaching two or three times every Sunday, taking communion to the shut-ins, working as advisor to the youth of the island, taking care of the many work teams who came to build a parsonage and two churches. But as the time approached to return home, I began to wonder what I would do.

I remember one day as I was driving along the road thinking about my life — things that had happened to me as a child, and the way I perceived I had been treated by the conference — and I was feeling very sorry for myself. Tears were streaming down my face as I thought, "No one has ever wanted me." At that moment I heard God speak to my heart in an unmistakable way: "I wanted you." And I knew then what I had to do. I had to be what God called me to be. I knew that regardless of the problems and difficulties, I would be a minister in this conference because it was God who called me and not the system.

Sisters and brothers, if you are expecting the system to call you, if you are expecting this conference to uphold you, if you are expecting those in power to sustain you, then you had better think twice. This road is littered with shattered dreams. The system doesn't always want you, the churches you serve will not always want you, sometimes even your own friends will not want you. But thanks be to God we serve one who is sufficient for all our needs. Have courage and be who God intends you to be.

Several years ago Candid Camera pulled a masterful stunt. They went to a college in the Northeast and there they interviewed the best and the brightest of students — those who were studying engineering, pre-med, law — the straight A students. They took them into an office two by two and told them that after extensive testing and examination of their records they had come to the conclusion that they were best suited to become shepherds. The young men appeared to be in shock with blank expressions on their faces they looked at each other and then back at the interviewer. Finally one of them repeated the word as if trying to take it in — shepherd. After all their hard work and determination, their dreams were shattered. They were advised to enter a profession they had never considered. One that would certainly not bring them material wealth, or prestige or respect.

Shepherds.

God has called you to be shepherds.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY MORNING
JUNE 3, 1992

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The Preacher was the Reverend Harold P. Lewis. The Reverend Roberta C. Josey served as Liturgist, and Mr. John Newt Campbell was the Lay Leader. The topic was "The Great Commission — Teach."

The Conference reconvened at 8:35 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Go Tell It On The Mountain." The Reverend Phillip C. Thrailkill led the second in a series of three Bible Study sessions on the topic "The Complementary Community" examining I Corinthians 11:2-6.

I Corinthians 11:2-16 "THE COMPLEMENTARY COMMUNITY"

PURPOSE: To recover an abused and neglected text on the transforming church

I. INTRODUCTION

Today we walk across a mine field together. This morning's text is one of the most difficult, disputed, and misinterpreted in all the New Testament, and for that very reason avoided by most preachers. All that mess about veils and headship and long hair and angels, what does it mean anyway? What could it possibly have to say to the church in the 90s? Easier to skip over such a passage than to study it seriously. A recent book by Manfred Brauch, Hard Sayings of Paul (Downer's Grove, IL: Inter Varsity, 1989), includes three different chapters on verses within this thought unit. So if you want the hard sayings of Paul, this passage is a mother-lode. Many whose consciences have been raised by the feminism of recent years find this passage an embarrassment and a confirmation of the widely held stereotype that Paul was a hopeless misogynist.

That this passage is excluded from the three year Common Lectionary (and for that reason will never be heard by most congregations in public worship) is a witness that some do not consider it fit for public consumption. Like some of the imprecatory psalms or erotic passages of the Song of Solomon, some texts of Scripture are not fit for public worship. At last fall's Columbia District Laity Rally, however, this text slipped into the worship service unawares to the consternation of all. A young adult was chosen to read the epistle lesson and not given much guidance in the choice of a text for such an occasion. So there in front of all the pastors and key laity of the district, this passage was read from the RSV translation. As soon as the reading began, I noticed nervous laughter among the male clergy and some real concerned looks among the women reverends. That it was a young woman who read the passage made it doubly politically incorrect. It was up to the special music which followed to erase the memory of the embarrassing word from Paul.

When confronted with such a text, there are two options: Ignore it, or else reexamine it carefully for what hidden insights might be uncovered. That is what I have done with the help of two scholars: 1) Dr. Jerome Murphy-O'Connor, a Roman Catholic from Jerusalem ("Sex and Logic in I Cor. 11:2-16," Catholic Biblical Quarterly 42, 1980, pp. 483-500) and 2) Dr. Charles Talbert, a Baptist scholar at Wake Forest University (Reading Corinthians [New York: Crossroad, 1987], pp. 66-80). I think that you will be surprised with the results and how much this text has to say to our current situation. There are fresh insights here for the role of women in church leadership and also for ministry with homosexuals. If this text answers a question, it is this: What is the nature of the transforming community into which men and women are evangelized? What kind of experimental community ought the church to be?

II. STRUCTURAL CLUES

We noted in yesterday's study that rhetoric (the art of saying things well) was the dominant discipline in the ancient world and that concentric or ring structure was a common way to organize speech and therefore writing. First the spoken, then the written; first the ear, then the eye. The key insight this yields is that a text is not only to be heard or read from the beginning to the end in a sequential fashion but from each end towards the center where the author puts the punch line or major emphasis. Once the center of a text is located, the series of frames that bracket it on either side can be laid out and the text mapped. Having the map helps the interpretive journey. Listeners and readers in the ancient world expected a skilled rhetorician to build a case through a number of interlocking points and then to reverse course at the center and expand on those same points a second time with variation. Repetition with variation fixed the themes in the mind and also aided memorization. Once the first half was learned, the second flowed from it as a mirror image. This is precisely the pattern we find in I Corinthians 11:2-16 which consists of seven sub-units arranged in three parallel pairs with v.10 at the center or apex.

Note first the synonyms that open and close the thought unit — "traditions" (shaded) in v.2 and "practice" (shaded) in v.16. This is an "inclusion," a verbal and thematic bracket that marks the boundaries of the thought unit from the material before and after it. When Paul's letter was first read to the gathered assembly at Corinth, hearers would have understood these terms as the entrance and exit of a paragraph. The obedient are commended because they keep the traditions Paul solemnly handed on to them during his stay (see Acts 18:1-11) and in v.16 the contentious are warned not to break apostolic practice. Like a good parent, Paul praised good behavior first and warned against rebellious behavior at the end. This particular thought unity is part of a larger section of I Corinthians that runs from 11:2 through 14:40 and has as its theme the relation of men and women in worship.

The next inside layer as we move towards the center (vv.4-6 parallel to vv.13-15) deals with behavior and appearances during worship. Each has two parts: a) A word about prayer and prophecy which both sexes share; and b) A cultural appeal which emphasizes those things both sexes ought not to share. It is at this layer that we need the most help to understand the cultural situation in Corinth which caused Paul to write this section.

The third layer towards the center (vv.7-9 parallel to vv.11-12) deals with male and female interdependence. As taught in the second creation story of Genesis men and women are complementary in creation (vv.7-9) and in the new creation "in the Lord" (vv.11-12). Mutuality and complementarity, not domination and authority are normative. This brings us to the enigmatic core of Paul's thought in v.10; "This is why a woman ought to have authority on her head because of the angels." Whatever that verse means, it is the hinge of Paul's argument and the center of his concern.

To review, the outside layers (vv.2-3//v.16) alert us in both praise and warning that the issue is one of apostolic tradition and practice which Paul considered inviolable. An important ecclesiastical issue is at stake. The next inside layer (vv.4-6//vv.13-15) gives us the specific locale of the problem, a worship setting of prayer and prophecy and how men and women appear in that setting. All we know at this point is that it has something to do with hair as a social symbol. The next inside layer (vv.7-9//vv.11-12) alerts us to the theological principle that grace completes nature, that creation and redemption are not opposed, that the interdependence and complementarity of men and women in creation is fulfilled in the redemption that is ours in Christ. This brings us again to the confusing center, v.10, "This is why a woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels."

III. UNIT BY UNIT COMMENTARY

1) vv.2-3 The Obedient Commended: Appeal To Tradition

There were apparently those in the Corinthian church who were not a problem. They remembered and kept the traditions Paul passed on to them as a sacred trust. Paul stood in a line of authority with direct links to the risen Lord who called him and also to those who were apostles before him. He commended them in v.2 because of their caring concern for him as a person and also because of their obedience, "I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you." Those kind of folk make any pastor happy.

He then goes on in v.2 to recall for them one of the bits of teaching he had earlier given them. When Paul uses a phrase like "But I want you to know that..." or "I do not want you to be ignorant of..." he is usually drawing on traditional material which he assumes the community already knows. Therefore, what he presents in v.3 is not new stuff but rather the common basis on which he will build his argument to address the problem at hand. If v.2 is Paul's compliment, then v.3 is the text of his sermon.

This brings us to the first interpretive problem, the Greek word kephale translated "head" in v.3. When we hear the word "head" we automatically think of a phrase such as "head-coach," "head-honcho," or "head of a corporation." Head can thus be another word for "boss," and conjures up image of power, primacy, authority and hierarchy. Conservative interpreters (i.e. Protestant fundamentalists and Roman Catholic traditionalists) use this passage to set up a hierarchical understanding of male female relationships: God at the top, then Christ, then men, then women and presumably children. Feminist criticism has alerted us to how this vertical understanding disempowers each lower level. It implies that men are closer to God than women, have more power than women, and are therefore meant to rule women. But the word head, even in English, has another connotation, that of source or origin. So we speak of the "head-waters" of the Mississippi; we follow a river from its mouth to its source, its head. This is the meaning of kephale in this passage, not "boss" but "source" (Brauch: 134ff; Talbert: 67; O'Connor: 491-493). In the ancient world it was assumed that the origin or source of something determined its purpose (Talbert: 67). Once these two items are cleared up, 1) that head means source and 2) that source determines purpose, the three assertions of v.3 are seen to be an interlocking whole.

- 1) "...the source of every man (genetic) is Christ." The meaning is the same as II Cor. 5-17. "If any man (anyone) be in Christ, he is a new creation." Christ is our head, our source, and from him we draw new life. That is the new creation.
- 2) "...the source of every woman is the man." This is a cross reference to the second creation story in Genesis. Eve was taken from Adam's side as a perfect compliment — his glory or completion. Men and women are different and complimentary by the Creator's design. That they are not created by the same process points to differentiation. This is the first creation.
- 3) "...the source of Christ is God." Since he was sent from God, Christ finds his fulfillment in carrying out God's plan. Christ is the one who gives new life to men and women, but not in such a way that eliminates their differentiated creation. Our created differences and our redemptive equality in Christ are both from God! The rest of Paul's argument will oscillate between these two levels of creation design and redemptive fulfillment. It is illegitimate to use this passage to justify a hierarchical understanding of men and women in the home or church.

Thus we have three distinct statements tied together with the word kephale, the first and third deal with the new creation, the middle one with the first creation.

2) vv.4-6 Worship: Distinctions Maintained In Appearances

Vv.4-6 bring us to the next interpretive issue and to the Corinthian problem. If you read this text in any modern translation you will find the word "veil" used. It is not found anywhere in the Greek text but is supplied by translators to clarify an ambiguous phrase which I have translated literally as "something hanging down from his head" (kata kephales echon). The issue is not veils or hats but hair as the parallel passage in v.14 makes clear, "Does not nature itself teach you that for a man to wear long hair is degrading to him?" One of the values of mapping the text is that the parallel components help interpret one another. In the liturgical assembly men and women are both praying and prophesying. There is a sharing of leadership both to God (praying) and to the people (prophesying). But there is something about the hairstyles of some that irks Paul.

Here is where things get interesting. The Greek world of the first century was characterized by two relational realities: 1) Widespread homosexuality, especially between educated adult males and younger boys, known as pederasty, and 2) a hatred and fear of women. The one fed the other. Aristotle, Euripedes, Aeschylus and Hesiod all practiced homophilia and were not inclined to marry or bear children (Richard and Catherine Kroeger, "St. Paul's Treatment of Misogyny, Gynophobia, and Sex Segregation in I Cor. 11:2-16," SBL Proceedings Paper, n.d.). Anthropologists tell us what we know from common observation, that dress and hairstyle are sexual indicators. So it was in the Corinth of Paul's day. Young men who were the companions of older men would grow their hair long and wear it elaborately curled. Their long tresses were often braided and wrapped around the head to give the appearance of a round cap. We know from Roman coinage that women wore their hair in such a fashion (J.M. O'Conner, Becoming Human Together [Wilmington: Glazeer, 1982], 194). Paul refers to this in v.15, "But if a woman has long hair it is her pride. For her hair is given to her as a covering (wrapping)." The Roman writer Horace proclaimed that nothing could sunder him from his present love except a ravishing young woman or else a "well-shaped youth whose long hair is tied in a knot" (Epodes 11:28 in O'Conner, 1980: 486). A contemporary of Paul gave this frank advice to parents:

"If a child is a boy, do not let his locks grow long on his head. Braid not his crown nor make cross knots on the top of his head. Long hair (see v.14) is not fit for men, but for voluptuous women. Guard the youthful beauty of a comely boy, because many rage for intercourse with a man" (Pseudo-Phocylides in O'Conner, 1980: 485).

The issue on Corinth was not long hair as such but long hair as a socially understood symbol of sexual confusion. We know from I Corinthians 6:9ff that there were both the active and passive members of homosexual liaisons converted into the Corinthian church. Paul uses the technical terms malokoi ("call boys" or male prostitutes — the passive member) and arseno-koitai ("those who have coitus with men" — the active member) in his list of those who would not inherit the kingdom of God had they not been washed, sanctified and justified "in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God" (v.11b). The NRSV translates these two Greek terms as "male prostitutes" and "sodomites." The RSV lumps them together under the term "sexual perverts." Whatever the translation (and the NRSV is more accurate), Paul had an evangelistic ministry in the gay community! Young call boys and their older partners had both been converted, baptized, filled with the Spirit, and were now praying and prophesying in the assembly. The problem was that the call boys (malokoi) still maintained the social indicators of their preconverted status, long and elaborately dressed hair. To Paul they were men who looked like women, and since in salvation their creation purpose was restored, they were now to fix their hair as was customary for men in that culture. They were to become what they already were by grace which was new creations in Christ, and for them that meant learning a new male identity and the social signals that went along with it.

To use our terminology, the Corinthian church was not homophobic, but neither was it a "reconciling congregation" (technical term for UM congregations that accept homosexuals without question) that demanded no changes. It was a "transforming congregation" (technical term for UM congregations that believe homosexual orientation can be changed) that instructed converts in a new life style. They left their old life-style through repentance and conversion. Now they were to learn a new identity, which is sanctification. This helps us make sense of Paul's assertion in v.4. "Any man who prays or prophesies with something hanging from his head dishonors his head (a play on words: 1) his own head, and 2) the source who created him a male — Christ)." Christ caught them, and Paul had to clean them. It was not enough to be a new creature, in this case they had to look like one as well!

The parallel situation is dealt with in v.5 concerning women. Apparently some women in the community believed that since in Christ there was neither male nor female (Gal. 3:28) that they could begin to appear as men to display their new freedom in Christ. That was infantile in Paul's mind, men appearing as women and women appearing as men. While the cultural indicators that distinguish men and women vary from culture to culture, Paul asserts that they are an abiding witness to the good design of God. In v.6 Paul engages in a bit of bitter sarcasm, "If you won't fix your hair as a woman, then go ahead and shave it off altogether." There is no hierarchy between men and women, but there are differences to be maintained as a witness to God's good creation. The new creation does not cancel out the old but restores and fulfills it. That this passage and the scholarship that backs it have been ignored in the recent debate on homosexuality is a testimony that some of our supposed scholars have not done their homework. Rightly understood, this text supports our current statement in the Social Principles that the practice of homosexuality is incompatible with Christian teaching but also pushes us towards more outreach into the gay subculture. If you are not convinced that the homosexual orientation can be changed, then you will probably ignore this text. But if you are convinced it can be changed, this text strengthens your arsenal of biblical passages. Paul expected change and encouraged it through his counsel: "Look like a man," he said.

3) vv.7-9 Male And Female Interdependence In Creation (Genesis 2:18-25)

A second fact from the ancient world was the hatred and distrust of women. Some philosophers taught that women were made of a different substance than men and were therefore inferior in every way. C.E. Carlson has summarized a number of ancient proverbs that show the radical hatred on women. He writes:

"Women, if we are to trust the ancient wisdom, are basically uneducable and empty-headed; vengeful, dangerous, and responsible for men's sins; mendacious, treacherous and unreliable; fickle, valuable only through their relationship with men; incapable of moderation or spontaneous goodness; at their best in the dark; interested only in sex — unless they are with their husbands, in which case (apparently) they would rather talk. In short, women are one and all a 'set of vultures' the 'most beastly' of all the beasts on land or sea, and marriage is at best a necessary evil."

(Journal Of Biblical Literature, 99, 1980, 95-96).

This gives us the cultural background for vv.7-9. In terms of the audience he was facing, Paul was a feminist. The "glory" of something is that which gives it honor. By drawing on Genesis 2, Paul asserts that man and woman are not made of different stuff but the same stuff. And if origins define purpose, then they are profoundly "for" one another. Again, note the parallel passage in the structure, vv.11-12, which expand the point "Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman is not independent of man nor man of woman. For as woman was made from man so man is now born of woman. All things are from God." In a culture that said women were trash, Paul said "No." His Bible included a story that said they were made of the same stuff and therefore of equal worth. What was true in creation is enhanced in Christ: men and women are equal, complimentary, and profoundly interdependent.

4) v.10 Those Who Guard The Created Order: The Angels

Now we arrive at the center of the text — v.10, "This is why a woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels." Like his Jewish contemporaries, Paul understood angels to be creative beings of a heavenly order who mediated between God and creation. They delivered the law to Moses (Gal. 3:19) and were God's eyes and ears in the world (I Cor. 4:9). They were also entrusted by God to watch over the orders of creation (Talbert: 69; O'Conner, 1980: 496-497). The authority of which Paul speaks is the social symbol that indicates the acceptance of one's created sexuality, and in this case it meant hair fixed as a woman. Jewish women could not pray and prophesy in the synagogue, but in the Christian assembly they could. This restoration to full status was given to them precisely as women. So completely did Paul believe in the equality of men and women in the liturgical setting that he could use it as the basis of an argument for a distinction in appearances (O'Conner, 1982: 196).

The angels had been informed of the women's new status in Christ. But they might be perturbed if they saw that this new authority was exercised by beings of indeterminate sex. It is as what we were created to be, men and women, masculine and feminine, that we enjoy equal status before God and shared leadership in the church. Our current fascination with androgyny and unisex would not appeal to Paul. He was not a gender blender, but neither did he use differentiation as an excuse for domination.

Once the center of the text is found, the second half unfolds in predictable order in vv. 11-16 repeating and elaborating the earlier material. Paul appeals to multiple authorities to make his case. He appeals to Scripture, to church tradition, to nature, and reasons from what was appropriate and inappropriate in his culture. His pastoral goal was to order the church according to the gospel and to teach men and women how to relate to themselves and to one another in worship. Certain behavior was prescribed.

IV. LESSONS FOR EVANGELISTS

I conclude with the opening question: What is the nature of the transforming community into which men and women are evangelized?

- 1) The Church is a complementary sexual community of men and women. We live in a culture that is sexually obsessed and filled with all sorts of aberrations and perversions. Marvin Gaye may sing about "sexual healing" but the church is God's place for that to happen. Paul and the Corinthian church had both an evangelism and counseling ministry with homosexuals. We do not evangelize neuter persons but men and women broken by sin at every level. Does your church have a support group for sexually broken persons?
- 2) Churches that are progressive on equality issues may soon have an evangelistic edge. More and more women (and some men) will be attracted to churches where leadership is shared. At Northeast we have women in visible liturgical leadership every week, and it is fascinating to hear the comments of unchurched visitors and those from other traditions. With the Baptists, PCAs, and Roman Catholics agreeing that women are not the spiritual equal of men, a door is now open to us United Methodists to ask the hard question when newcomers are out church shopping, Why would you go to a church that treats you as a second-class citizen? Brutal, but often very effective!
- 3) This passage speaks of a radically shared ministry, not only between men and women but between rank and file laity and their leaders. What would our churches look like if all our people were freed to pray and prophesy instead of being passive pew-potatoes who come, sit, pray, pay, and obey? Think about it.
- 4) The church is ruled by apostolic norms, and for us that means Scripture. V.16 demonstrates that the church is a bounded community with limited toleration limits. We are a community where creation distinctions are maintained in sexual practice and in culturally appropriate male and female appearances. We are a community where those who do not meet our norms are welcomed and offered therapy in the direction of conversion and sanctification.

Bishop Bethea called to the attention of the Annual Conference the picture of Mrs. Thomasina McPherson which appeared on the front page of the Spartanburg paper that morning.

Courtesies were presented by the Reverend James E. Hunter and included remembering the James McGill Family and Mrs. Willie Barr. It was moved also that the Conference send greetings and a message of support to the Reverend Edward H. McDowell, Jr. and Family.

It was announced that the offering from the Ordination Service for the benefit of the Seminary Students Scholarship fund amounted to $2,264.25.

Churches receiving the Bishop's "Five Star Award" for church growth and development were announced. Criteria for the award includes a minimum 5 percent increase in Sunday School Attendance, a minimum of 1 percentage increase in church membership and all apportionments paid in full. The following churches were recipients of the award for the 1991 conference year:

- Wayne UMC, Georgetown; pastor, the Rev. Gene Norris
- Hopewell UMC, Jefferson; pastor, the Rev. Lester Graves
- Sandy Grove UMC, Jefferson; pastor, the Rev. Lester Graves
- Rehoboth UMC, Columbia; pastor, the Rev. Debra A.S. Quilling

- Fairview UMC, Easley; pastor, the Rev. Scott Ghan
- Trinity UMC, North Myrtle Beach; pastor, the Rev. John Stapleton
- Bailey Memorial UMC, Clinton; pastor, the Rev. Ben Herlong
- Grace UMC, Pickens; pastor, the Rev. Morris C. Thompson
- Mauldin UMC, Mauldin; pastor, the Rev. Carl D. Clary
- First UMC, Lancaster; pastors, the Revs. Frank J. Griffith and Jennifer Copeland Cox
- Simpsonville UMC, Simpsonville; pastor, Dr. Gareth Scott
- St. Michael UMC, Bennettsville; pastor, the Rev. Earnest J. Reece
- Mount Prospect UMC, Lando; pastor, the Rev. David E. Lupo
- Platt Springs UMC, West Columbia; pastor, the Rev. Thom Jones

A motion was made by the Reverend William R. Bouknight and adopted that the Annual Conference requests that on or about May 1st of each year the Conference Statistician give to the Advocate for publication prior to the Annual Conference the following information about each of the charges of the Conference: the number of persons added by profession of faith and the net gain or loss in membership during the previous calendar year.

The Report of the Commission On Archives and History was presented by Mrs. Esther Witherspoon. The written report appears on page 48 of the pre-conference material. Mrs. Witherspoon noted that the Conference Historical Society was reorganized in 1987 and that the Society's newsletter, "The Mark," was included in the Registration material. She urged persons to consider membership in the Society. It was reported that grave markers are being distributed to be placed at the graves of deceased ministers. Churches known to be celebrating 50th, 100th, 150th, and 200th anniversaries were announced. Certificates of Recognition are available for these churches. The Reverend A.V. Huff presented a plaque to Mrs. Witherspoon as an expression of appreciation for her leadership as Chairperson of the Commission. The report was concluded with presentations by four local church archivists detailing many things which local churches could do to collect, preserve and promote its history. The report of the Commission was approved as presented.

A question was raised by the Reverend Lewis Sherard regarding whether the location of Lewis Timothy's Print Shop in Charleston has been determined. Mr. Sherard moved that the Commission on Archives and History research the site of Lewis Timothy's Print Shop in Charleston and when located, promote it as a shrine of the United Methodist Church. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals was presented by the Reverend James C. Adams. The Committee reported the Resolution introduced by Marshall J. Parker on "Gambling, Particularly Video Poker Machines" with a recommendation of concurrence, and it was adopted. The Resolution as adopted is as follows:

RESOLUTION ON GAMBLING, PARTICULARLY VIDEO POKER MACHINES

WHEREAS, the Discipline of the United Methodist Church states that: "Gambling is a menace to society, deadly to the best interest of moral, social, economic, and spiritual life, and destructive of good government." (Section 73, G), and

WHEREAS legislative hearings, public testimonies, recommendations by law enforcement agencies and personal observations in South Carolina only add strength to that statement by the Discipline, and

WHEREAS our beloved State of South Carolina has enjoyed a fine Christian heritage and our members of the South Carolina legislature, for the most part are a product of that heritage, as well as other Judeo Christian faiths and need to be reminded of that heritage and the greatness thereof, and

WHEREAS the 1991 Annual Conference adopted a resolution asking the members of the Legislature to make gambling, specifically payoffs on video poker machines illegal, and in turn members of the South Carolina United Methodist Church, along with many others including the Christian Action Council, worked hard to implement that resolution, and

WHEREAS the forces supporting gambling, with all of its attendant evils were able to pressure and persuade the Legislature, namely, some members of the Senate, not to abolish video poker machine payoffs and by this action, gambling continues in South Carolina, and

WHEREAS it is already acknowledged that legalized video poker machine gambling is only the first step toward making lotteries and pari-mutuel betting legal in South Carolina.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. This Annual Conference of the South Carolina Conference reiterate its stand in opposition to all payoffs of video poker machines and all forms of gambling.
2. Local United Methodist Churches are requested to form a coalition in cooperation with other denominations and organizations, with the express purpose of making an all-out effort to convince the members of the General Assembly to take the necessary action to make gambling on video poker machines illegal, and all District Superintendents are requested to aid and guide that effort.

3. The Board of Church and Society is requested to prepare a program focusing on the devastating results of gambling, using real examples, for use in the local churches and to set forth a plan of action for local congregations.
4. We request the Bishop to designate a Day of Prayer for the success of the effort to make gambling illegal in South Carolina.
5. We hereby express appreciation to all members of the South Carolina Legislature who have stood firmly against the forces promoting gambling, and we pray for their continued efforts. We request the Christian Action Council to send a copy of this Resolution to those members.

Marshall J. Parker, Lay Delegate
St. Mark United Methodist Church
Seneca, South Carolina

The Committee reported the following resolution introduced by James P. Rush with a recommendation of concern:

RESOLUTION ON NON-DENOMINATIONAL RELEASED TIME FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

WHEREAS, there are some forty-one million children in America's public schools and
WHEREAS, today's public school children face a myriad of moral and ethical behavioral choices because of limited, specific training in our Judeo-Christian values and traditions and
WHEREAS, American youth continues in an epidemic of destructive, even deadly consequences and
WHEREAS, with parental consent for voluntary participation, school children in every state may enroll in nearby, off-campus programs of religious and moral instruction known as "released time for religious education" and
WHEREAS religious released time education was deemed constitutional by the United States Constitution in 1952 (Zorach vs Clauson) and
WHEREAS United Methodists highly value religious and ethical training as witnessed by our baptismal covenant made on behalf of children and our attention to the quality of local church Christian education.
BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we, members of the South Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting at Wofford College on May 31-June 4, 1992, do call upon the South Carolina legislature to enact legislation to provide for interdenominationally developed, religious, released time education in South Carolina, and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we call upon Boards of Education in all South Carolina school districts to recognize and accommodate those interdenominational committees wishing to implement religious released time education, and
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge individuals, churches and local interdenominational committees to begin immediately to take advantage of this resource to address the moral and ethical crisis which is wrecking the lives of escalating numbers of America's youth by destructive behavior which results in imprisonment, damaged health, even death, and a lifelong blight on their opportunities due to interrupted education and development into effective persons.

James P. Rush, Pastor
Bethel United Methodist Church
Columbia, South Carolina

There was considerable debate with the maximum of three speeches "for" and three speeches "against" the Resolution. The recommendation of concurrence was rejected, and the Resolution was not adopted.

The Committee reported the Resolution endorsing the "Red Ribbon Campaign" with a recommendation that the Resolution be referred to the Conference Council on Ministries to be included in its program report next year. Discussion followed including mention of the "Born Free, Stay Free" Program. The recommendation of the Committee was adopted by the Conference and the Resolution as follows referred to the Council on Ministries:

WHEREAS the national RED RIBBON CAMPAIGN has become a strong, united effort in the fight against illegal drugs, including alcohol, and

WHEREAS the goals of the RED RIBBON CAMPAIGN are congruent with United Methodist goals related to illegal drugs, and

WHEREAS the CAMPAIGN calls into coalition all medical, media educational, social services, business, government, law enforcement and religious communities for this fight,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT

1. Every church and institution shall study the goals of the RED RIBBON CAMPAIGN;
2. Churches and institutions in areas where no local campaign is in place shall take initiative with South Carolina Families In Action, P.O. Box 10203, F.S., Greenville, S.C. 29603;
3. Churches shall study and implement ministries which emphasize prevention for non-users of illegal drugs and redemption for those who do.

College Place United Methodist Church
Columbia, South Carolina

The Reverend John C. Pearson, Greenville District Superintendent was granted a point of personal privilege for a special announcement. Mr. Pearson reported that last Thursday night the Jackson Grove United Methodist Church was totally destroyed by fire. He asked the Conference for some appropriate expression of its concern and care for this congregation. The suggestion of an offering was made and an offering was taken. The Conference observed its morning recess at 10:55 a.m.

The Session reconvened at 11:05 a.m. with the singing of "Blessed Assurance, Jesus Is Mine." The Reverend James S. Gadsden, a member of the Board of Publications of the United Methodist Church, presented the Reverend Walter McKelvey, a South Carolina native, who serves as a Vice President of the Publishing House. Dr. McKelvey spoke briefly about the many and various publications and resources of the Publishing House including the publication of approximately 120 new titles each year. Other current projects of the Publishing House include the gathering of books and resources for the College of Theology Library at Africa University. Ms. Toni Robb, Manager of the Columbia Cokesbury Store, joined Dr. McKelvey in presenting to the Annual Conference for its pension program its proportionate share of Publishing House profits in the form of a check for $20,833.00.

The Report of the Board of Pensions, page 43 of the pre-conference material, was introduced by Mrs. Anne Drake, Chairperson. Mrs. Drake noted the remarkable performance enjoyed by the Board in its investments with good returns and significant actuarial progress being made. Mrs. Drake introduced the Reverend W. Timothy McClendon, Secretary of the Board, to complete the Report. Mr. McClendon moved the adoption of Report No. 1, pp. 43-44, having noted an increase in the per service year rate of $16.00 and a smaller apportioned amount being requested for 1993. A motion to amend Report No. 1 was made by the Reverend Joe Nicholson that the Board of Pensions come back next year with a solid move toward a 1 percent goal with a recommendation equal to at least 97 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation. The motion to amend was not approved. Report No. 1 was adopted as presented. "Addendum" to Report No. 1, page 44, was adopted as presented. "Addendum A," pages 44-46, was adopted as presented. "Personal Notations" from the Board of Pensions were presented and read into the record.

The Report of the Committee on Proportional Payment, pages 227-228 of the pre-conference material was presented by Mr. Hammie Chaplin. The Report was corrected by the deletion of defaults and/or liens for the following participants: No. 0706069, No. 0591735, and No. 0706044. Mr. Chaplin moved the adoption of the Report as presented and corrected, and it was adopted. Mrs. Drake then moved the adoption of the Report of the Board of Pensions as a whole, and it was adopted.

A "Celebration of Retirement" for the South Carolina Annual Conference was observed. The Preacher for the Service was the Reverend R. Wright Spears who spoke on the subject "Recalled For Service." Other participants in the Service were the Reverend C.W. McNair, Bishop Joseph B. Bethea and the Reverend J. Dan Clark who responded on behalf of those entering the retired relationship. The following persons with a total of 668 years of service were recognized along with spouses who were present:

James Edwin Alewine
Wyman Wayne Ballentine
Paul Augustus Betsill
Jack Daniel Clark
William Thomas Cooke, Jr.

George Walter Couch, Jr.
 Charles Smith Crenshaw
 Robert Davenport
 Duncan Leroy Floyd
 Thomas Carroll Gilliam
 John Thomas Hayes
 Adlai Cornwell Holler, Jr.
 Freeman Roy Orr, Jr.
 Clayton Zeno Price
 Jack Ewell Ray
 Thomas Henry Ross
 Claude Martin Shuler
 Howard Durant Sweat
 Henry Shedron Suggs
 Willie George Wright

"Recalled For Service"
John 15:14-17
The Reverend R. Wright Spears

What a time of joy. What a blessing to be honoring these wonderful people who have for many years served the church of God in such a splendid way. We salute you; we're grateful to God for this moment of privilege to thank God and thank you.

I looked over the list of 20 persons and found that you have served 668 cumulative years to this conference. But that's not all. Your wonderful companions have been at your side for the same number of years, so that comes to be 1336 years. I tried to figure why you did me this honor, but I came to the conclusion that you looked over this longevity and said, "We really ought to call on some symbol of antiquity to bring the word." So here is the word, not from me but the word is from God, and from our Master who said, "I chose you. You did not choose me, but I chose you." A better version, perhaps, is, "I picked you out."

A little while ago I saw a fun license plate on the front of an automobile that caught my eye. In very large letters was the word "RETIRED" and in small letters — "no boss, no paycheck, no worries, no mortgages." I didn't rush out to buy one of those plates, because that much negativism turns me off quickly. I'm for something positive to describe retired ministers, like "RECALLED — to think, to act, to love, to trust." Lancelot Andrews in his Private Devotions prayed, "O God, I thank thee for my call, my recall; yea many calls besides."

Looking back across these years, all preachers came to a time when there was a call. Well, dear friends, isn't it just as valid, when we come to moments of retirement to experience a recall? Somehow, when I retired 15 years ago I felt the need of being called again. Would you feel with me the need to hear God calling us again today?

The word "recalled" has several connotations. One of them relates to an automobile or a computer that has been recalled by a company because it doesn't function correctly. You have been working well, and we're proud of you. That's not why you are being recalled or sent back for retraining. Another connotation of the word recall has to do with the use of the human mind. We cannot operate very well as human beings unless we have recall ability. May I suggest a recall which is valid for this treasured moment? When we retire, isn't it good to say, "Yes, God, I'm ready to be recalled. I need to be called again. I'm going to do my service a little differently now, but it will be just as good and it will be a time of joy — years of joy ahead." As a matter of fact, isn't it true that many great servants of our Lord had to be recalled? Peter had a call from the Master, but he became a giant in the spirit when he was called again. He became a stronger person. Paul didn't start off as the flaming evangelist; only after Saul was called again did he become an evangel on fire for the world. And so can be said about a host of others — Wesley, Schweitzer, Luther, et al. — that they became more effective when they were called again. How does God recall us and what does he ask of us?

Does not our Lord recall us ministers to think, to learn? But you say, "Just a moment. We've come to the age now that our thinking process has slowed down. You don't mean that the Lord has called us back to do some thinking?" Tell me about it! Yes, I'm saying exactly that. We are all recalled to grow. Where does it say in the Discipline, or in the Law of the Land, or in the Law of God that I have to quit thinking when I become 65 or 75 or 80? I may not think as quickly, as alertly, but surely God is saying to us now, "Keep on thinking." Dr. Will Lou Gray used to have a wonderful thought. She put a slogan over her Opportunity School gate: "Why Stop Learning?" And, bless her heart, at about 100 years of age, she was still saying, "Keep on going, don't stop, Why quit learning?" God recalls us, doesn't he, to keep us thinking.

I know that at our age, we have trouble thinking. For instance, realizing that I was becoming forgetful a few years ago, I went to my doctor and said, "Doctor, I have a problem. I forget some things, I've read about a new medication called geravite and I know very little about it. Perhaps you know all about it." "No," he said, "I've never heard of it, but I'll study it." And I said, "If you would please prescribe this for me, I'd appreciate it, that is if you think it will be helpful." After a few days he called me and said, "I'm ready to give you the prescription. I don't know what good it will do, if any, but I'm sure it won't do any harm. So I went by and got the prescription. He saw me in the hospital a few days later, and said, "Wright, how are you getting along with your memory medicine?" And I said, "My problem now is, doctor, I can't remember to take it." But why quit thinking? Why use the excuse that we are now old and worn out.

Listen, dear friends, not all of this thinking process is falling apart, some of it is still there. And every now and then there is a flicker of light and I feel that I can think a little more.

And I come back to a quotation from Pascal. "Thought constitutes the greatness of man. He derives his greatness from the government of his mind. He can have no more greatness though he possess the world, because the world can swallow him up like an atom, but by thought man can comprehend the world." Carl Sandburg had a way of saying that the eleventh commandment really ought to be: "Thou shall not commit nincompoopery." What in the world, Mr. Sandburg, is nincompoopery? It is our willingness to stop thinking, planning and dreaming.

Aren't we recalled as ministers to act with meaning in our communities? God can see us as catalysts for change. These communities to which we retire — cities, villages, or open country — should not be the same 10 years from now as they are on the day of our retirement. We ought to make a difference! Don't you believe that we may be more effective in some ways in our mature years than we were in our youthful years? It's just the result of years of experience. It's just a fact of life that we can be agents of goodness, and perhaps serve God in a better way now than we could when we were just beginners.

An old Jewish legend has it that there were two blades of wheat standing side by side in the field. One of them was just a sprout that stood straight and strong. Nearby was an old blade of wheat wrinkled and certainly not straight and strong. It was bent toward the ground. Said the young sprout to the mature blade of wheat "How did you get that way? The old blade said, "It's as simple as this I was strong and straight at one time, but I had very little in my head. Now that I am mature, my head is full so I am bent toward the ground."

Think of the ways that we can be helpful in these communities. Sometimes we'll be called on to do interim service. There's a bit of danger in this interim business. When Mary Blue and I retired fifteen years ago, we were privileged to serve two interim ministries — several months in each. Later a friend said: "It seems that you enjoy these interims: If you ever make it to heaven — and there may be a real question at this point — do you suppose St. Peter may say, "Welcome, Wright. Have you just stopped by for an interim?"

Surely we can work in the local church where we are, and without getting in the way of the pastor in charge. He doesn't need us in his way, but he needs us as helping hands. Some of my retired friends spend each week teaching 4th and 5th grade Sunday School. Another friend takes great joy in translating into Braille every week the complete worship service for the blind persons in the church. There are many other ways to serve: hospice, Alzheimer's Support Groups, Born Free/Stay Free/drug prevention programs, Habitat for Humanity, United Way, Salvation Army, etc. And remember we are to be working a locality where we are known. There seems to be little impact we can make on world problems, like global warming, population explosion, and hunger. But there are some things I can do in my local community to make a difference!

The old Saturday Review, under its editor, Norman Cousins, once carried a cartoon series entitled "John Wesley Smith." One cartoon had an old man, obviously in the Graeco Roman era seated on a curbstone, buried in deep thought. A courier runs up to him saying: "Mrs. Socrates says for you to stop solving world problems and come home and clean out the drains." Our Moravian friends have a symbol of their church and faith which is an ox standing between an altar and a plow. Underneath the caption reads "Ready for either."

In this recall today, aren't we given another chance for having our ministry balanced? I don't know about you, but I have had to struggle on this matter of a balanced ministry. I was tempted so often to give too much time to one cause to the detriment of another. Tempted to do too much of that and too little of this. Now I have a bit of terrible news for you. You are going to have far fewer meetings to attend. I know it breaks your heart, but you're going to have about 80 percent fewer reports and administrative details demanding time. But when you get over that disappointment, consider this: You can call the shots now. You can control your schedules. And it is very important, isn't it, that we have balance in our ministry.

Carlyle Marney, in his Beggars in Velvet, describes a young preacher just assigned to his new pastorate. Someone asked a church member what he thought of the pastor. He answered: "He is a real nice fellow, but for six days a week he is invisible, and on the seventh he is incomprehensible." That young minister needed a recall! Maybe you and I have had some imbalance in our ministry now and then. Now God is giving us another chance — a recall. I cherish for you this marvelous privilege of keeping actively engaged in your local community. Eric Pfeiffer, gerontologist, has a word for each one of us, the recalled: "The secret is to stay in the mainstream and develop new usefulness. The happiest aging people are those in business or in volunteer social and recreational activities; because, far from complaining about the burden of their years, they have prepared for it and welcome it with open arms. They are older people having a good time."

Doesn't a balanced ministry demand our sensitivity to the hurts of people, the tragedies of life, around us? Is there not the temptation to ignore crucial concerns, thus losing our focus on the main thrusts of Christian ministry — preaching, evangelism, study, pastoral care? An old English novel, The Cathedral by Hugh Walpole, describes a clergyman at a time when tragedy had fallen on his community: "The parson," he wrote, "was distracted by this tragedy from his usual business of moderating the incidents of illegitimacy in the village, of visiting old ladies and preparing each week a sermon that would pass muster with the more intelligent children of the parish," God save us from insensitivity! In retirement we can continue to stand as citadels of caring and instruments of love.

As you enter into this fellowship of the recalled don't you have another opportunity to let the world know who you are and to whom you belong? Years ago as I left a meeting in Denver, Colorado, I saw Jack Benny in the hotel lobby — with his entourage of friends and staff. I wished for my father, because he always enjoyed Benny so much. I enjoyed the moment — a country guy from Clio, South Carolina in the presence of a renowned personality! When I returned to Columbia I called my father: "Papa, I wanted you to know that last night I saw your old television friend, Jack Benny. In fact he was about 20 feet from me." There was a brief silence. Then Papa said "That's fine, son. You told him who you were, didn't you?" What about that for a quick refresher course in theology? If a natural father can think of his son, unknown to most of the world, as important as any celebrity known almost universally, how much more does God love each of his children! Is there any better way to serve than by making sure the community and the world know who we are — and whose we are?

"Jesus calls us (and recalls us) o'er the tumult of our life's wild restless sea
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth
Saying, 'Christian follow me'."

Jesus reminds us: "You did not choose me, I chose you." Yes and he is choosing us again! Indeed, we can pray with Lancelot Andrews "Oh God, I thank thee for my call, my recall, yea, many calls besides. Amen."

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON JUNE 3, 1992

The Conference reconvened at 2:12 p.m. with the singing of "Standing on the Promises." An Invocation was offered by the Reverend Frank J. Griffith, Jr.

The Reverend Jack Buckley of Educational Opportunities was introduced by the Reverend Lee Cothran. Mr. Buckley spoke regarding the scheduled Holy Land Trip in February, 1993, and invited interested persons to attend a breakfast meeting on Thursday morning. Mr. Buckley presented an olive wood creche as a gift to the Episcopal Office.

The Reverend Roosevelt Geddis was recognized and introduced to the Conference by the Reverend Jimmy J. Montgomery who spoke of Mr. Geddis' excellent record at Claflin College as a "non-traditional" student who returned to college after rearing a family. Mr. Montgomery also announced the establishment of a lecture series in honor of the Reverend Granville A. Hicks.

The Reverend James E. Hunter, Committee on Courtesies and Introductions, requested the Annual Conference to send greetings to the Reverend H. Levy Rogers, recently hospitalized, and to the Reverend Bob Tanner to have surgery today. A member of the New York Annual Conference, visiting from Brooklyn was also recognized.

The Report of the Commission on Group Insurance, pages 52-57 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend John W. Hipp, Chairperson, Report No. 1 and Report No. 3 which contained no changes except for the lifetime maximum deductible, were adopted as presented. Report No. 2 was received as information. Report No. 4 with certain editorial changes was approved. Reports No. 5, No. 6, and No. 7 with no changes were approved as presented, Report No. 8 contained a 15.4 percent increase in the apportioned amount. Reports No. 8, No. 9, and No. 10 were approved as presented. The Report of the Commission of Group Insurance was then adopted as a whole.

The Conference turned to action on the Report of the Committee on Nominations. The Reverend Scott Middleton presented a report from the Committee stating that the Nominating Committee had responsibility for nominating 27 boards, committees and commissions and 23 chairpersons. Of the 23 chairpersons, seven ethnic minorities have been nominated. This represents 34 percent. Out of a grand total of 384 nominations 27.5 percent are ethnic minorities. The nominations for the Orangeburg Wesley Foundation, left off page 130 of the pre-conference report were corrected by the addition of the following "Class of 1995: the Reverend George N. McClenan, Mr. Paul Thomas, Jr., Dr. Vermelle Johnson."

The rules were suspended upon motion by the Reverend James C. Adams to permit the nomination of a new chairperson for the Committee on Resolutions and Appeals. The Reverend M.L. Meadors moved that the Reverend James C. Adams be designated Chairperson. The motion was approved.

Regarding the Committee on Standing Rules the Conference considered the nomination of Jimmy J. Montgomery to replace John L. Warren. A motion to suspend Rule No. 70 was made by the Reverend James E. Hunter. The motion was approved but no action taken consequently. The Reverend H. Sam Johnson moved to suspend Rule No. 100 but the motion was defeated. A vote was taken between John Warren and Jimmy Montgomery. John Warren remained a nominee to the Committee on Standing Rules.

Under Trustees of the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee, page 221 of the pre-conference material, the Reverend Taylor Campbell was elected as a nominee to replace the Reverend C.W. McNair and Mr. Harold Robinson was elected as a nominee to replace Mr. Erwin Paxton.

Mr. B.J. Pasley moved to suspend Rule 112 to allow election of more than two Associate Lay Leaders per district. The motion was defeated. The Reverend William R. Bouknight moved that Rule No. 100 be suspended in order to change Rule No. 112. This motion was also defeated.

The Conference then approved the nominations as presented by the Committee and amended by the Conference.

Mr. Rudolph C. Barnes was re-elected Conference Chancellor. The Reverend Roger M. Gramling was elected Conference Parliamentarian. The Reverend Delos Corderman was re-elected Conference Secretary. Mr. Corderman then nominated the following persons as "assistant secretaries": the Reverend David E. Lupo (First Assistant Secretary), the Reverend Alice Linder (Second Assistant Secretary), and the Reverend Lorenzo Moses (Third Assistant Secretary).

The Reverend Gary D. Phillips moved that in the future the Committee on Nominations provide the written pre-conference report with statistics concerning the race, gender, age, district make-up of the membership of each committee and at the conclusion of the written report they provide a summary of all committee profiles further that in the future the pre-conference nominations report be presented in a manner that makes clear the distinctions between the nominations made by the Nominating Committee and those generated by other sources. Lastly, that two copies of the Nominating Committee Report detailing the biographical information of each nominee be placed with the district offices where it would be made available to members of and delegates to the Annual Conference upon request, this report to be placed no later than distribution of the pre-conference journal. The motion was not approved.

The nominations for the Committee on Investigation for both the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Diaconal Ministry were presented and were approved. The nominations for the Board of the Ordained Ministry were presented and were approved. The nominations for the Board of Diaconal Ministry were presented and were approved. Those nominated for district Boards of Laity were approved.

The Report of the Committee on Career Planning and Counseling, pages 136-137 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend David C. Surrent and was approved as presented. The Conference observed a break at 3:55 p.m.

The Conference reconvened at 4:10 p.m. with the singing of "We're Marching To Zion."

A motion was offered by Mr. John Johnston that the Conference set a limit on the presentation of committee heads of 15 minutes. The motion was approved.

The Reverend A. Mickey Fisher moved that the Committee on Standing Rules for possible elimination and/or redrafting with the intent of reducing the number and complexity of the rules so that they enable rather than confuse the Annual Conference. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, pages 49-52 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend Rutledge D. Sheridan, Chairperson. Report No. 1 was approved as information. Some opposition was voiced to the proposed 4.9 percent increase in the minimum salary scale. Report No. 2 was approved as presented. The Report of the Commission as a whole was approved. A motion was offered by the Reverend James E. Hunter that the Equitable Salaries Commission study all levels of support to determine the impact that Equitable Salary has on budgets of the Annual Conference and local churches, that special attention be given to the Student Pastor category by asking the Annual Conference to provide additional scholarship assistance should reductions to this category be necessary. The motion was approved.

The Report of the Trustees of the S.C. United Methodist Advocate page 61 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Sara A. White, Chairperson, and was approved as presented.

The Report of the Committee on the Conference Journal, page 58 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Delos D. Corderman in the absence of the Reverend Samuel H. Poston, Interim Chairperson. The Report was adopted as presented.

Nominations from the Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry for the Trustees of Claflin, Columbia, and Wofford Colleges, found on page 131 of the pre-conference material, were approved as presented. Nominations from the Board of Missions for the Trustees of Spartanburg Methodist College, found on pages 222-223 of the pre-conference material, were approved as presented. The nominations for various district committees and boards, found on pages 223-225 of the pre-conference material, were approved as presented.

The Charge Line Changes, found on page 226 of the pre-conference material, were approved as presented.

The Report of the Committee on the Episcopacy, page 58 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Clyde Calhoun, Chairperson, and moved to the record.

The Report of the Trustees of the Annual Conference, page 59 of the pre-conference material, was presented by the Reverend Wayne Home, Chairperson. The Resolutions found on pages 203-204 of the pre-conference material were presented to the Conference. The Resolution to Discontinue Bethel United Methodist Church, Abbeville, South Carolina was approved with the following additions at the end of the first sentence: "and title of its property be transferred to the Trustees of the South Carolina Annual Conference." The Resolution to Discontinue Brunson Chapel Methodist Church, Brunson, South Carolina was approved with the deletion of the phrase "and that its membership" in the first sentence. The Resolution to Discontinue Springfield United Methodist Church, Denmark, South Carolina was approved. The Resolution to Discontinue and Transfer Property of St. John-Union, Spartanburg, South Carolina was approved. The Resolution to Release All Claims in connection with the Shiloh Church Property in Jenkinsville, South Carolina was approved. The Resolution to Discontinue and Deed the Laurel Bay Property, Walterboro District was approved. The Resolution to Sell the Wesley United Methodist Property, Georgetown, South Carolina was approved. The following resolution was distributed to the Conference and was approved:

RESOLUTION TO DEED
MARSHALL CHURCH & CEMETERY PROPERTY
HARTSVILLE DISTRICT

WHEREAS, the Marshall Church was discontinued by action of the 1973 Annual Conference and WHEREAS a group of persons who have family buried in the cemetery and have interest in the property have expressed a desire to have the Marshall property deeded to a church and cemetery association, and

WHEREAS the above group is now in the process of setting up an incorporated cemetery association through the Secretary of State of South Carolina.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the South Carolina Annual Conference in session May 31-June 4 in Spartanburg, S.C., consents to the deeding of the Marshall property to the Marshall Church and Cemetery Association when it is duly chartered.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the cemetery association be responsible for the cost of transaction and the officers of the Conference Trustees be authorized to sign agreement.

The Report of the Trustees of the United Methodist Center, page 60 of the pre-conference material was presented. A question was raised regarding the effectiveness of the present telephone system at the Center. This problem is being addressed. The Report was approved as presented.

The Report of the Committee to Promote Apportionment Payment, page 59 of the pre-conference material was presented by the Reverend Rutledge Sheridan, Secretary. The Reverend Edward J. Stiltz moved to amend the Report by the deletion of paragraph "C" in its entirety. There were several speeches against the motion. The question was called and the motion to amend was defeated. The Reverend Michael L. Vandiver moved that the Committee be asked to bring as a report to the Annual Conference a summary of the reasons given by churches for not paying their apportionments. The motion was approved. The Report of the Committee with the addition of this amendment was adopted as a whole:

The following amendment to Standing Rule No. 1, f., was adopted as presented:

It is recommended that the District Mission Secretary be named from the representatives on the Conference Board of Missions from each district.

The following two announcements were made by the Secretary

(1) The ordination of Thomas B. Wilkes, III on Tuesday evening marked the fourth generation of that family line to enter the Methodist Ministry in South Carolina;

(2) The Reverend Charles W. Brockwell, Sr., is attending his 59th consecutive Annual Conference Session.

The Conference observed a dinner recess.

FOURTH DAY — WEDNESDAY EVENING
JUNE 3, 1992

The Conference reconvened at 7:35 p.m. with the singing of "Savior, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." An Invocation was given by the Reverend Anna G. Miller.

Under Courtesies and Introductions, the Reverend James E. Hunter presented the Reverend Kevin LeGree, new dean of the Candler School of Theology at Emory University who spoke briefly to the Annual Conference.

The 1992 General Conference Report was presented by the delegation heads, the Reverend M.L. Meadors, Jr. and Dr. Carolyn Briscoe. Dr. Meadors interpreted the General Conference as following a "middle course" in its actions. There were several events of special interest to South Carolina. The South Carolina Annual Conference was recognized as one of five annual conferences maintaining an increase in the payment of its apportionments during the quadrennium; Bishop Betha was chosen to preside over a session of the General Conference; the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe and the Reverend Ted H. Walter were elected to the nine member Judicial Council of the United Methodist Church. On behalf of the South Carolina Conference Delegation to the 1992 General Conference, Dr. Briscoe moved that the Reverend M.L. "Jack" Meadors be endorsed as the Episcopal Candidate of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the 1992 Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. The motion was approved as presented. Dr. Meadors responded with words of appreciation for the support of the Conference and pledged that if elected he would be faithful to Christ and to the mission of the church. Mrs. Meadors was also recognized for a brief response.

A delegation of members from the Jackson Grove United Methodist Church were presented to the Conference by the Reverend John C. Pearson, Greenville District Superintendent. The Congregation was founded in 1831, and the building which burned was the third building to serve the congregation. Speaking on behalf of the congregation the Reverend Julian Ford expressed appreciation for the concern and support extended to them by the Annual Conference Session and stated the congregation's pledge to rebuild the church.

The Report of the Board of Church and Society, pages 121-124 of the pre-conference material, was presented by Mr. Jim Harrison, Chairperson. The Board moved the adoption of its Resolution on Death With Dignity found on page 123 of the pre-conference material. The Reverend Robert E. McKeown in association with the Reverend James Ellis Griffeth moved to amend the Resolution by substitution and addition of items No. 5 and No. 6 as follows for item No. 5:

"5. We also support permitting the withholding or withdrawing of life prolonging interventions in situations where such interventions prolong the dying process and jeopardize the dignity of the dying patient. We support laws permitting such withholding or withdrawing of life prolonging interventions in cases of terminal illness or persistent vegetative state. We insist that appropriate standards of informed consent and surrogate decision-making be maintained in such cases. We also insist that strict standards of medical judgement be maintained in making such decisions.

"6. We oppose euthanasia (the intentional ending of a person's life at the request of or in the assumed best interests of that person) as inconsistent with Christian principles."

There were two speeches favoring the amendment. The Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe moved that item No. 5 and item No. 6 be separated. The question was called and the motion to separate was approved. Item No. 5 of the Resolution was then amended by substitution of the new item No. 5. Item No. 6 was considered with one speech against and three speeches favoring the addition. The question was called and item No. 6 was approved and added.

Dr. Michael Watson moved to amend the Resolution by the addition of an item No. 7 to read as follows:

"7. We ask that the Conference direct the Board of Church and Society to conduct a study on the subject of the ethical and legal considerations of terminally ill and dying patients. This study should be done by a special panel constituted for this purpose and who will hold at least one public hearing on this subject as a part of the study. The panel should include one or more pastoral ministers, hospital chaplains, plaintiffs' attorneys, and physicians."

The amendment was accepted by the Board. A point of order was called. The chair overruled the point stating that the Resolution was still the property of the Board. The chair was sustained by the body in its ruling. A question was raised about the funding for such a study. Mr. Harry Kent moved that item No. 7 be deleted. There were three speeches against the motion and one speech for deletion. The question was called, and the motion to delete item No. 7 was defeated.

The Reverend John Mason Stapleton moved to amend item No. 4 by placing a period after the word "possible" and deleting the remainder of the sentence. There were four speeches for the amendment. The amendment was approved. The Reverend Fred M. Reese moved that funding for the proposed study come from the Conference Contingency Fund. This motion was approved. The previous question was called. A point of order was raised as to the amount of funding to be approved. The Reverend M.L. Meadors moved that the amount of $2,000.00 be set as the limit to be spent from the Contingency Fund for the study by the Board of Church and Society for ethical and legal considerations of terminally ill and dying patients. The motion was approved. The "resolves" as amended were then approved. It was agreed that the Board of Church and Society would perfect the "whereas" sections and bring them in line with the "resolves" to complete the Resolution.

Mr. Harrison then moved that the balance of the Resolutions be approved as presented. The motion was rejected by the Session.

The Resolution on Issues Affecting The Lives of Children was presented as found on page 122 of the pre-conference material. The Reverend Willie S. Teague moved to amend the Resolution by addition of the following:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Board of Church and Society of the South Carolina Annual Conference develop a plan for ministry that might assist local churches in providing creative ministry for and with children. This plan will be presented to the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference. There were three speeches favoring the amendment. The question was called. The amendment was approved. The Resolution as amended was then approved.

The Resolution on Information Rights, page 122 of the pre-conference material, was presented. There were three speeches favoring and three speeches opposing the Resolution. The question was called, and the Resolution was adopted as presented.

A motion was offered by the Reverend Clarence D. Williams that the Report of the Board of Church and Society be made an Order of the Day earlier in the 1993 Conference Session and be presented during the daytime. The motion was not approved.

Mr. Rhett Jackson moved that the body set the adjournment time at 10:15 p.m. and set the balance of the Board of Church and Society Report at 9:00 a.m. tomorrow morning as an Order of the Day. This motion was approved.

The Resolution on the Economy, pages 122-123 of the pre-conference material, was presented. The Reverend Richard Seignious moved that the words "be urged to do" be substituted for the words "will do" in the "resolved" at the bottom of page 122. This amendment was accepted by the Board. The Reverend Kim Strong moved to amend the Resolution by deleting item No. 3 on page 123. There were two speeches for the deletion and two speeches against the deletion. The question was called. The motion to amend by deleting item No. 3 was approved. The Resolution as amended was then adopted.

The Resolution on Health Care, found on page 123 of the pre-conference material, was presented. There was one speech favoring the Resolution. The Resolution was adopted as presented.

It was announced that additional offerings to assist the Jackson Grove United Methodist Church had brought the total to $5,154.65. The Conference adjourned for the evening at 10:17 p.m.

FIFTH DAY — THURSDAY MORNING JUNE 4, 1992

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 a.m. in Leonard Auditorium. The Preacher was the Rev. Sammie E. Jackson. The Reverend Janet Joens served as Liturgist, and Miss Darby Wallace was the Lay Leader. The topic was "The Great Commission — Baptize."

The Conference reconvened at 8:35 a.m. for Bible Study with the singing of "Take the Name of Jesus With You." The Reverend Phillip C. Thrailkill led the Session in the third in a series of three Bible Study Sessions on the topic "Evangelism, the Holy Spirit, and Power-Encounter" examining Acts 13:1-14a. At the conclusion of the session the Conference expressed its appreciation to Mr. Thrailkill for his excellent leadership in the Bible Study.

Acts 13:1-14a "EVANGELISM, THE HOLY SPIRIT, AND POWER-ENCOUNTER" PURPOSE: To alert the church to an oft-neglected dimension of evangelism.

I. INTRODUCTION

A brochure comes in the mail for an evangelism or church growth conference. You look at the list of speakers and workshops and decide it's worth the investment. And if it's like so many of the others I have been to, you will receive lots of good information and perhaps even a new notebook to file on your shelf with all the others. New methods will be discussed. Growing churches and their pastors will be featured in an endless stream of "how I did it" lectures. There will be workshops on how to share your faith effectively, using your own testimony as a tool or some other aid to sharing Christ. Goals will be set for training laity in the strategies and methods. The whole affair will be very technique and content oriented. The underlying supposition seems to be that if we just get the methodology right and memorize a slick presentation of the basic message, then we will be effective as personal evangelists. If we can just get the information transferred from us to the unbelievers then evangelism and church growth will result.

I have probably been to as many of those kinds of events as anyone in this room, and much of the material is helpful, but there is something very wrong with this approach because it ignores three factors without which real conversion growth never occurs:

- 1) Worship and prayer;
- 2) The initiative of the Holy Spirit through spiritual gifts and regular infillings; and
- 3) The inevitability of spiritual conflict.

We Western Christians are good at spiritual technologies and methods and not so good at listening to and following the leading of the Holy Spirit. We are highly pragmatic and non-mystical. We are also allergic to the New Testament principle that evangelism inevitably involves one in spiritual conflict with evil. Is this one of the reasons we seem to be so perpetually ineffective at leading persons to faith in Jesus Christ?

This is why I have chosen Acts 13:1-14a for our final study together. It challenges many of the ways we think about church and do evangelism. It ushers us into a strange new world of prophecy and power encounter in a church that had regular interaction with the supernatural. Careful exegesis and meditation on this passage answers the question, "What are the spiritual forces, both negative and positive, that influence the Church's mission?" My own pastoral experience with those who have been involved in satanism and the occult has sensitized me to the importance of rethinking the issues of spiritual power.

II. STRUCTURAL CLUES

Thus far we have dealt with texts from John and Paul and noted how they both used techniques of ancient rhetoric in similar ways to structure their written texts in concentric patterns. Both were highly sophisticated theologians and communicators who crafted their texts with care. The same is true of our third author, Luke, who uses the same technique of ring structure throughout both volumes of his work, the Gospel and Acts.

The text falls into two parts: 1) vv.1-3 which introduce the prophets and teachers of the church at Antioch, and 2) vv.4-14a which narrate a mission trip and power encounter. The first three verses need no other structural comment than to note that in vv.2-3 the fresh direction from the Holy Spirit is bracketed beforehand by worship and fasting and afterwards by fasting and prayer. This is another example of inclusion or verbal bracketing with repetition and variation. It is also an example of how the techniques we have noted can be used not only for large units but small ones as well.

But vv.4-14a are a bit more elaborate. The story opens in vv.4-7 with a travel and ministry report and closes in vv.12-14a with a parallel travel and ministry report. The city name "Paphos" is repeated in both sections as is the name "John." Remember that we look for both repetition and variation. We find it in the "Word of God" in v.5 parallel to "the teaching of the Lord" in v.12.

Again, remember that Luke's audience was trained to hear such patterns and would have noted that this was a discrete thought unit or paragraph. These verses then serve as the frame for the center of the unit which is a power encounter. In v.8 Elyman resists Paul with magical power, and in vv.9-11, Paul overcomes the opposition with the superior power of the Holy Spirit. In such a ring structure, the focus is on what is at the center, and at the center of this passage is a spiritual showdown, a gunfight at the Good News Corral!

One other item worthy of notice is the concentration of language concerning the Holy Spirit. In v.2 "the Holy Spirit said." In v.4 the missionaries were "sent out by the Holy Spirit." And in v.10 Paul is "filled with the Holy Spirit and said." Now that we understand the structure, focal point, and key terminology, let's turn to the text itself.

III. UNIT BY UNIT COMMENTARY

A. 13:1-3 Leadership For Mission From Worship

Chapter 13 marks a major division within the Book of Acts. In Acts 1:8 the outline of the mission (and the book) is given. "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem (phase 1) and in all Judea and Samaria (phase 2) and to the end of the earth (phase 3)." The mission to Jerusalem is chronicled in the first seven chapters. The mission to Judea and Samaria in 8:4-12:25. The mission to the end of the earth begins in Antioch with chapter 13.

It is a principle in Acts that every time the mission expands there is an expression of spiritual power and new conversions. The mother of them all is the Day of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit lands on the church in a display of pyrotechnics and three thousand new souls are swept into the kingdom. Since the respondents are faithful Jews in Jerusalem for a festival, there is no power encounter to speak of though there is the unpleasant incident with Ananias and Sapphira in chapter 5 where Peter asks why Satan has filled Ananias' heart to lie to the Holy Spirit. Power encounters, it seems, may occur within the church as well as at the growing edge between the church and the world.

But at the next major advance into Judea and Samaria there is a definite power encounter. Philip preaches in Samaria with great results (Acts 8:1ff). The Jerusalem apostles hear about the revival and send Peter and John to check it out. There Peter has a power encounter with Simon the magician. The same is true in chapter 13. The Holy Spirit initiates the third thrust to the end of the words and the first encounter is with another magician, Bar-Jesus, or Elymas.

Why has Luke structured the narrative this way? Because his first volume on the life of Jesus and his own experience in the church teach him that there is no spiritual advance without spiritual opposition. So it was with Jesus who at his baptism prayed and was anointed with power by the Holy Spirit. And what is the first thing that happens after that? Luke 4:1. "And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit for forty days in the wilderness tempted by the devil." For John the Holy Spirit is the Comforter, but for Luke the Spirit is a warrior who initiates conflict with the forces of darkness. After Jesus is victorious over the Evil One in the wilderness, his public ministry of healing and preaching begins. What Jesus does, his followers do as well. They encounter and overcome the Evil One and his underlings. That is the purpose of Acts, to show how the life and ministry of the founder is carried out in the lives of his followers. The church for Luke is the continuation of the ministry of Jesus.

In the genre of the ancient world, Luke — Acts is an "A plus B" biography (Charles Talbert, Acts [Atlanta: John Knox, 1984], 1-3). The life of Aristotle and the Aristotleans; the life of Pythagoras and the Pythagoreans. The life of Jesus (volume I — the Gospel) and the life of the Christians (volume II — Acts). What he molded, they repeat. Jesus faces off with Satan in the wilderness. Peter faces off with Simon Magus. Paul faces off with Bar-Jesus. Spiritual showdowns occur at critical points of missionary expansion. Whether you like Luke's theology or not is a different matter, but Luke taught that there is no spiritual victory without spiritual warfare. If that doesn't fit your worldview, if you are part of the liberal residue that doesn't acknowledge such reality, I suggest that you reexamine your worldview because it is the worldview of every writer of the New Testament (see Charles Kraft, Christianity With Power [Ann Arbor, MI: Vinme Books, 1989]). The church does not just operate in the visible world but in the invisible world as well. Evangelism is not just about making people nice to Methodists who pay their apportionments and have a keen social conscience. It is about extracting people out from under one dominion and placing them under the benevolent reign of the risen Jesus. Rather than stripping the New Testament down to our level of what we think is possible, why not ask God to raise our experience up to that of the New Testament?

Dr. Susan Garrett teaches New Testament at Yale Divinity School. Her dissertation is titled The Demise Of The Devil: Magic And The Demonic in Luke's Writings (Minneapolis, MN: Fortress 1989). Listen to her description of the world surrounding the ministry of Jesus and the apostles

"The dark regions are the realm of Satan, the ruler of this world, who for eons has sat entrenched and well guarded, his many possessions gathered like trophies around him. The sick and possessed are held captive by this demon; the Gentiles, too, are subject to his dominion, giving him honor and glory that ought to be offered to God... To be sure, the final victory (of Christ) lay in the future. But no longer could Satan and his demonic and human servant harass and torment at will. Satan's kingdom was splintering around him, and his authority was no longer acknowledged by all. The battle still raged but Christ's ultimate victory was certain. Christian experience — from the earliest days to Luke's present — testified to the demise of the devil" (quoted in Peter Wagner, Warfare Prayer [Ventura, CA: Regal, 1992], 69-70).

Professor Garret's robust language should not sound so strange. Our own new baptismal service opens with a renunciation of such forces. "Do you renounce the spiritual forces of wickedness, reject the evil powers of this world, and repent of your sin?" ("The Baptismal Covenant" The United Methodist Hymnal [Nashville: UM Publishing House 1989], 34). Some of my colleagues are sorry that vow is in there. I'm not, because it's rooted in the early church's conviction that people need to be detoxified when they change kingdoms.

I am continually struck in Acts by what you find the spiritual leaders doing and not doing. In chapter 6 they say No to serving tables to devote themselves to the ministry of the Word and prayer. And in Acts 13 we find a new set of leaders in the church at Antioch fasting, worshipping the Lord, praying, and expecting a prophetic word from God. I've been ordained since 1976, and never has anyone called a meeting for fasting, prayer, worship, and waiting on God. We meet for lots of other stuff, why not this? It's in our ordination vows. What if we tried it some time for a whole day, all the pastors of the conference (or even in a district) with no agenda except to fast, pray, worship, and listen for God. What might happen at such a solemn assembly? In this case God spoke through the charism of prophecy, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Then they fasted and prayed a second time, laid on hands, and sent them off.

We use Robert's Rules of Order, The Discipline, and management by objective. And if there is no word from God we just keep on doing what we've always been doing even if it no longer works. They operated with a different set of tools: prayer, fasting, worship spiritual gifts, and church-wide discernment. They were lean and action oriented. A local church created a new mission structure to reach out to the Gentile world. They didn't even have the good manners to check back with Jerusalem to make sure it was OK. I like the way the Roman Catholics do it. They have over 300 mission sending agencies. We have one official and one unofficial. Why so few when the task is so large?

B. 13:4-14a The Word Of God Precipitates A Power Encounter

"Power encounter" may be a new term for some. It is a missiological term that denotes a clashing of invisible spiritual forces with visible results. Peter Wagner defines a power encounter as "a visible, practical demonstration that Jesus Christ is more powerful than the false gods or spirits worshiped or feared by a people group" (quoted in John Wimber, Power Evangelism [New York: Harper and Rowe, 1986] 16). It is like when a warm front and cold front collide, there is conflict and even violent releases of energy. There are four such encounters in Acts involving Christians facing off with magicians:

*Peter and Simon Nagus in Acts 8;

*Paul and Elymas in Acts 13;

*Paul and the woman with the spirit of divination in Acts 16; and *the burning of magical books in Ephesus in Acts 19.

As we said earlier, Luke (the same guy that wrote the enchanting Christmas story!) taught that there is no advancement without spiritual warfare. Luke also taught that demonstrations of power can be a catalyst for faith.

The newly-formed mission team sailed from Seleucia and landed at the port of Salamis on the eastern coast of Cyprus which was the homeland of Barnabas. Luke gives us a barebones report in v.5, "When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John (Mark) to assist them." Was anyone converted or any churches planted? Luke typically gives a success report if there is one. But there may be a reason for no reported results. The team then works its way ninety miles down the island to the seat of government Paphos from which Sergius Paulus the proconsul ruled the senatorial province of Cyprus. It was there that the warm front of the gospel collided with the cold front of occult power which had influence in the government and therefore over the whole island.

"When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet, named Bar-Jesus. He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. But Elymas the magician withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith" (vv. 6-8).

Here is a clashing of the kingdoms, a power encounter. Who will win? Elijah or the prophets of Baal? Simon Peter or Simon Magus? Paul or Elymas? If the principalities and powers that have infected the government can be broken, maybe the whole island will become receptive. Did it bother you as much as it did me to learn in 1988 that the President's calendar was set by the astrological consultation of Joan Quigley (see Russ Parker, Battling the Occult [Downer's Grove, IL: Inter-Varsity, 1990], 38)? Not very far from Acts 13 are we? The prevenient grace of God is drawing Sergius Paulus towards the light of the gospel, and Elymas is seeking to pull him back into the darkness of sorcery and magic. This is a classic account of how a human being can be caught between opposing spiritual forces. Elymas had sold out his Jewish faith which forbade involvement in the occult (see Deut. 18:9-13, 1 Chron. 10:13-14) and given himself over to sorcery (see Clinton Arnold Powers of Darkness: Principalities and Powers in Paul's Letters [Downer's Grove, IL: Inter-Varsity, 1992], 71ff). Through his patron Sergius Paulus he exercised a dampening spiritual influence over the whole island.

Those who have been to Haiti tell me that you can feel the effects of suspicion and voodoo. Friends of mine who used to live in Newbern, NC, tell me that the multiple covens of witches who live there effect the spiritual climate of the whole area. It makes me want to ask a question. What are the principalities and powers over Columbia and Spartanburg, even over our whole state which keep the Christian church weakened and ineffective? Why is our culture growing more pagan every day? Why are all the old gods rearing their heads again in the New Age movement? Why do we hear the word "spiritual" applied to everything except the church? What do you think? Is it possible that Paul was right? That we are not "contending against flesh and blood, but against the principalities against the powers against the world of rulers of this present darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Eph. 6:12). Is it time to reconsider that there is more to this world than meets the eye?

On their own all Paul and Barnabas and John could do was share the gospel message. They had the truth, but they needed something more. But then something happened to tip the scales. The same Holy Spirit who spoke as they prayed and fasted and who sent them out showed up in power. Throughout Acts there are occasions where leaders who have already received the Holy Spirit are said to be "filled with the Holy Spirit." This is always for a particular form of ministry, in this case a spiritual showdown. Paul was anointed to speak words laden with power, "You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness full of deceit and villainy, will not stop making crooked in the straight paths of the Lord? And now, behold the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you shall be blind and unable to see for a time." Don't ever try that unless you're sure it's God. You could look pretty stupid!

Using the catalog of gifts in 1 Cor. 12, it seems that Paul exercised the word of knowledge and the gift of miracles. At that moment mist and darkness fell upon Elymas and "he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand." Was this some cheap parlor trick, an example of miracle mongering? No, it was a demonstration of who was the true and living God and an exposure of the pitiful weakness of Elymas' claims. And for the Roman proconsul it was an impetus to faith, "Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had occurred, for he was astonished at the teaching of the Lord." Isn't that an interesting phrase, "the teaching of the Lord"? Apparently for Luke it meant more than words. I like what John Stott says about this passage:

"He (Luke) brings before his readers a dramatic power encounter, in which the Holy Spirit overthrew the evil one the apostle confounded the sorcerer, and the gospel triumphed over the occult. More than that, Luke surely intends us to view Sergius Paulus as the first totally Gentile convert, who had no religious background in Judaism"

(The Spirit, The Church, And The World [Downer's Grove, IL: Inter-Varsity, 1990], 220).

If you want to trace our spiritual lineage as Gentile Christians, it starts with a Roman leader who came to faith in Christ out of an occult background through a power encounter initiated by the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is a warrior who pushed Jesus, Peter, and Paul into power encounter to overcome spiritual resistance to the advance of the kingdom of God.

A few months ago I received a letter from a missionary friend in India. I share it with you as a contemporary example of how a power encounter can open the way for new waves of conversions.

His name is Prem Shastri and he writes

"In a certain Hindu village in the district of Allahabad there was a recent outbreak of a serious illness. Since the people are very poor and quite far from the nearest town, they couldn't get medical help. Then some of the young men remembered seeing an evangelist in another state praying for sick people in the name of Jesus. So they also decided to pray for the sick in the name of Jesus (remember, these are Hindu young men!). The Lord heard their prayer and many were healed. On seeing this (just like Sergius Paulus), the villagers decided to become Christians. Later they invited the out-of-state evangelist who baptized 23 people. These people meet under a tree for worship. They are poor, illiterate, and spiritually needy. The evangelist cannot care for them because of other commitments" (March, 1992 prayer letter).

I know the man, and I believe the report. But it makes me wonder, Why is there such a lack of spiritual power in our churches? How have we in our sophistication quenched the Holy Spirit? Are we foolish enough to believe that we can do the job without God?

IV. LESSONS FOR EVANGELISTS

I close with a story from the life of John Wesley. To me it bears a remarkable resemblance to Acts 13:1-3. Leaders gathered in prayer at 3:00 a.m. followed by a visitation of the Holy Spirit. It is recorded in the Journal for Jan. 1, 1739 when our movement was still in its infancy:

"Mr. Hall, Jinching, Ingham, Whitefield, Hutching and my brother Charles were present at our love feast in Fetter Lane with about 60 of our brethren. About three in the morning as we were continuing constant in prayer the power of God came mightily upon us, insomuch that many cried out for exulting joy and many fell to the ground. As soon as we were recovered a little from the awe and amazement at the presence of His Majesty we broke out with one voice, "We praise thee O God, we acknowledge thee to be the Lord"

I love it! They are praying in the middle of the night. God shows up, and they end up on the floor. And when they recover, they sing the Te Deum from the Anglican liturgy. How's that for charismatic and liturgical integration?

Without our seeking and God granting a fresh visitation of the Holy Spirit, we will have neither the vision nor the power to do much in evangelism. A few workshops, new goals and objectives, a new church here or there, but nothing like what is needed if the lost in our own towns are to be reached and the Great Commission advanced. Luke and Wesley agree. We must fast and pray and worship and seek the face of God together if there is to be a spread of scriptural holiness throughout the land.

The Conference joined in the singing of "A Charge To Keep I Have."

The Report of Courtesies and Introductions was presented by the Reverend James E. Hunter. Mr. Hunter introduced and presented to the Session the Reverend Reginald W. Ponder, Executive Director of the SEJ Administrative Council. Mr. Ponder's written report is found on pages 229-230 of the pre-conference material. He spoke to the Session on the work of the SEJ Administrative Council completing its first quadrennium of existence. Improvements at Lake Junaluska include the renovation of Stuart Auditorium and the paving of South Lakeshore Drive and Halston Road. Mr. Ponder reported the continued expansion on the program ministry and growth in the six agencies of the SEJ. He expressed his appreciation for the Conference's support of the work of the SEJ Administrative Council. He noted the significance of South Carolina having two of the nine members serving on the Judicial Council out of 73 annual conferences in the denomination.

The Reverend Robert J. Howell, Sr., noted the important work of the Bennettsville Cheraw Area Cooperative Ministries and introduced Ms. Shirley Townsend Jones, Church and Community Worker, who is the director of the program.

The Reverend James E. Hunter requested the Conference to send greetings to the Reverend Enoch Finklea who has recently been hospitalized.

The following churches were recognized as having recently celebrated significant anniversaries and it was asked that the Secretary send greetings and congratulations to them: Trinity UMC, Charleston District (200th), Cannons Campground UMC, Spartanburg District (200th), Tabor UMC, Anderson District (150th), Mt. Carmel UMC, Walterboro District (150th).

Mr. Harry Kent requested the Conference to send greetings to Mrs. W. Newton Pough recovering from recent hospitalization.

The Reverend Lloyd E. White asked the assistance of the Annual Conference in completing a Church School Survey Form for an independent study project.

The Reverend Julian Ford expressed appreciation on behalf of the Jackson Grove United Methodist congregation for the offering taken for its benefit by the Annual Conference and the love and support extended to them.

The Annual Conference resumed consideration of The Report of the Board of Church and Society. The Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe requested a point of personal privilege to move that the Conference send greetings to our Sisters and Brothers in the California Pacific Annual Conference to express our concern and support for them in the midst of their pain and suffering in the wake of the recent riots. The motion was approved.

The Resolution of Racial Cooperation, page 124 of the pre-conference material, was presented. The Reverend Joseph Alley moved that the Resolution be amended by the addition of an item No. 5 which would read: We call upon the South Carolina State Legislature to remove the Confederate Flag from a place of authority and place it with other honored symbols of South Carolina history. There were two speeches favoring the amendment. The amendment was approved as presented. Mr. Rhett Jackson moved to amend the Resolution by substituting the word "blatant" for "thinly veiled" in the third "Whereas" paragraph. It was also moved to amend the Resolution by deleting the phrase "barely disguised" from the fourth "Whereas" paragraph. Both amendments were approved. The Reverend Albert Cox moved to amend the Resolution by deleting the 3rd, 4th, and 5th "Whereas" paragraphs in their entirety. There were three speeches favoring the amendment and three speeches opposing the amendment. The amendment was not approved. The Resolution as amended was voted upon and was adopted.

The Resolution on Distribution of Church and Society Resolutions, page 124 of the pre-conference material, was presented. It was suggested that the word "directs" be changed to "respectfully requests" and this was agreed to. It was requested by the Reverend Gene Norris that the Resolution on Health Care be sent as information to all physicians in South Carolina. Mrs. Sara Shingler suggested that this could be accomplished by placing the Resolution in the Journal of the South Carolina Medical Association. The Resolution was then adopted.

Mr. Harrison then urged the Conference to write the Governor to express appreciation to Mr. Campbell for signing the South Carolina Trust Fund Bill to provide funding for the building and rehabilitation of low income housing. The Report of the Board of Church and Society was then adopted in its entirety with commendation to Mr. Harrison and the Board.

The Conference stood and joined hands to sing together "They Will Know We Are Christians by Our Love" led by the Reverend Debra Quilling.

A point of personal privilege was granted to Mrs. Connie Rouse for a statement to the Conference from the Spouses organization. The following Resolution was presented by Mrs. Rouse:

Be It Known that the United Methodist Ministers' Spouses of the South Carolina Conference have requested that Bishop Bethea proclaim this day, Thursday the 4th Day of June in the Year of our Lord 1992, as "Shirley Bethea Day" for her tireless effort, diligent support and courageous display of faith. To join in this celebration, we ask that you prayerfully consider the idea of organ donation as requested by Mrs. Bethea.

The Resolution was adopted as presented.

The Report of the Council on Finance and Administration was presented for approval by the Conference. Mr. Meadors recognized and expressed appreciation to Mrs. Virginia Smith, the Reverend Susan Ulmer, the Reverend Robert McKeown, and Mr. Newton Pough who have completed their period of service on the Council. Mr. Meadors summarized the efforts of the Council in developing the budget for the Annual Conference as seeking to maintain a responsible balance between available resources and the mission of the church.

In regards to the proposed amendment to Report No. 3, Section A as referred to the Council earlier in the Conference, Mr. Meadors reported that the Council has reviewed the proposed amendment and voted not to concur with the amendment nor accept it as a part of the Report. Mr. Meadors stated several reasons for the Council's non-concurrence. There was a speech favoring the amendment and a speech opposing the amendment. The Reverend Richard Allen moved to amend the proposed amendment by deleting the sentence which reads "If the salary requirements exceed the amount budgeted..." and add "In 1993, the total combined compensation of all district superintendents shall not exceed $663,000.00. In subsequent years the total amount for district superintendent's salaries shall increase or decrease by the same proportion as the increase or decrease of the average salary of all conference members in Full Connection for the preceding year as calculated by the Commission on Equitable Salaries." A point of order was raised but the chair overruled the point. A question was raised about the way in which a district superintendent's performance is evaluated. The Bishop responded that the criteria is disciplinary and the evaluation is done by a District Committee on the Superintendency and the Bishop. A motion to table the Allen amendment was offered by Mr. Marshall Parker but then withdrawn and the previous question moved. The question was called. The Allen Amendment was voted upon and was not approved. Discussion continued on the original amendment to Section A, Report No. 3. The question was called. The amendment was not approved.

Section A of Report No. 2 was considered next and was approved. Report No. 2 was approved. Report No. 1 was considered. Questions were raised concerning the proposed 8.6 percent raise in the salary for a district superintendent. There were several speeches against the proposed increase. The Reverend Gene Norris moved to amend Report No. 1 by limiting the increase in the proposed salary of a district superintendent to 3.0 percent for 1993. Following one speech for and one speech against the amendment, the question was called. The motion was not approved. Speeches continued. The Reverend Julian R. Ford moved to amend Report No. 1 by limiting the increase in the salaries of district superintendents to the percentage of increased approved in the Report of the Commission on Equitable Salaries, later identified to be 4.9 percent. The question was called, but questions continued. The conference eventually moved to vote on the amendment proposed by Mr. Ford. A secret ballot vote was requested. The body did not concur with the request for a secret ballot. The vote was taken by a standing counted ballot. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 521 to 222.

The remaining items of Report No. 1 were then approved as presented. Reports No. 3 through No. 9 were then approved one by one. Mr. Meadors then moved the adoption of the report as a whole. There were some questions about adjustments to budget items, and it was stated that these would be made. The Report was then adopted as a whole. Mr. Meadors then reported that the Council recommended concurrence with the $2,000.00 appropriation from the Conference Contingency Fund to refund the study directed in the Resolution on Death With Dignity. This was approved.

Dr. Carolyn Briscoe moved that with the adoption of the Conference Budget, the Report of Conference Council on Ministries be adopted in its entirety. This motion was approved. Dr. Briscoe then introduced, with special appreciation and thanks, Mrs. Doris Chambers for her vital service to the Council on Ministries. Dr. Briscoe also expressed appreciation to the various board, committee and commission chairpersons related to the Council and to the Reverend Lem Carter for his leadership as Director of the Council on Ministries.

The Conference paused to receive an offering to benefit the Bethea Scholarship Fund.

The Conference Secretary noted the changes in the composition of the delegation to the Jurisdictional Conference brought about as a result of the election of the Reverend Ted Walter and the Reverend Susan Henry-Crowe to the Judicial Council. The Secretary also offered the following omnibus motion: All reports in the pre-conference materials distributed in the registration packets or by the tellers and not previously acted upon, be considered accepted and/or approved by the 1992 Session. The motion was adopted.

The Reverend Willie S. Teague moved that the motion proposed earlier in the Conference by the Reverend A. McKay Brabham regarding a study to propose a way to reduce the differential between the highest and lowest salaries in the Annual Conference be removed from the table. The question was called and the motion to remove from the table was approved. The motion as follows was again before the Conference: It is moved that a Task Force made up of three members each of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Commission of Equitable Salaries, and the Board of the Ordained Ministry be established for the purpose of devising a plan to be brought to the 1993 Session of the Annual Conference which will insure that the differential between the highest and lowest salaries for conference members of 10 years or more service shall be no more than 50 percent. Mrs. Sara Shingler moved that funding for the study come from the three Boards involved in the study. The Reverend M.L. Meadors moved a substitution that the funding be taken from the Conference Contingency Fund up to the amount of $2,000.00. This was approved. The Brabham motion as amended by the funding provision was then adopted.

Appreciation was expressed by the Conference Secretary to the Assistant Secretaries, the Tellers, the persons assisting with the sound equipment, Chaplain Talmadge Skinner and the staff of Wofford College. Chaplain Skinner added his thanks to people from the Spartanburg District who volunteered their assistance during the Conference.

Mr. B.J. Pasley, Conference Lay Leader, encouraged support for the total financial program of the Annual Conference. The Reverend Willis T. Goodwin urged the Conference to support the episcopal candidacy of the Reverend M.L. Meadors and that of the Reverend Samuel Nesmith of the Virginia Annual Conference.

It was reported that the organizational meeting of the Board of the Ordained Ministry elected James S. Gadsden, Chairperson; T. Lee Bryant, Vice Chairperson; Patricia Parrish, Secretary; Kay A. Best, Treasurer; and Sara Ann White, Registrar.

Bishop Bethea expressed his appreciation to the churches supporting the Conference program at the 100 percent level. He called the Conference's attention to the report included in a recent edition of the Advocate which show the level of support for the apportionments across the Conference.

The Reverend Willie S. Teague expressed his appreciation for the work of the staff of the Advocate especially in preparation of articles and materials leading up to this Session of the Annual Conference. He recognized the following members of the staff: Mrs. Allison Askins, Miss Linda Green, Mrs. Gail Corn, and Mr. Tom Meares.

The Reverend Lem Carter introduced Miss Victoria Shearin, Conference Coordinator of Communications for the Council on Ministries.

The Conference joined in the Covenant Renewal Service. Bishop Bethea expressed the appreciation of the Conference to Mrs. Betty Moss McGuirt and the Reverend Paul Frey for leading the music during the Session. Bishop Bethea preached on the topic "When Pentecost Comes" using Acts 2:1-21 as the Scripture Lesson. He noted that when Pentecost came, changes took place. Disciples were made faithful, congregations became vital and caring and the Spirit overcame the differences that existed. Following the sermon Bishop Bethea proceeded to "fix the appointments" for the 1992-93 Conference Year.

The four retiring district superintendents were invited forward and their appointments "fixed" for each of them. The twelve district superintendents were then called to the platform and the listing of the printed appointments distributed to the Session. Corrections, if any, to the printed listing were made by each district superintendent for his district. Upon completion of the corrections, Bishop Bethea declared the appointments "fixed" for the 1992-93 Conference Year.

The benediction was offered by the Reverend J.W. Robinson, attending his 58th Annual Conference Session.

Following the benediction, the Annual Conference Session was adjourned.

SECTION VII

REPORTS OF BOARDS, COUNCILS, COMMISSIONS, COMMITTEES, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

THE COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES

The Committee on Standing Rules recommends the following changes in the Rules of the South Carolina Annual Conference:

Item #1 from current S/R 120

120. Membership on all quadrennial boards, councils, commissions and committees shall not exceed eight (8) consecutive years. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same agency until a lapse of two years.

to proposed S/R 120

120. Membership resulting from election by the Annual Conference on all boards, councils, commissions and committees which are considered quadrennial shall not exceed eight (8) consecutive years. After this period of service that member shall be ineligible for re-election to that same agency until a lapse of two years.

Item #2 from current S/R 122

122. All Annual Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees are quadrennial except the following: The Board of Pensions; The Committee on Investigation; Joint Review Committee; and the Boards of Trust of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; Belin Property; Claflin College; Columbia College; Epworth Children's Home; Greenwood Methodist Home; The Methodist Home, Orangeburg; Spartanburg Methodist College; Trustees of the Annual Conference; Wofford College; the Methodist Center; Pee Dee Methodist Manor.

to proposed S/R 122

122. All Annual Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees are considered quadrennial except the following: The Board of Pensions; The Committee on Investigation; Joint Review Committee; and the Boards of Trust of the South Carolina United Methodist Advocate; Belin Property; Claflin College; Columbia College; Epworth Children's Home; Greenwood Methodist Home; The Methodist Home, Orangeburg; Spartanburg Methodist College; Trustees of the Annual Conference; Wofford College; the Methodist Center; Pee Dee Methodist Manor.

Item #3 from current S/R 40

40. The Commission on Archives and History shall be composed of eight persons nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that four (4) be lay persons and four (4) clergy persons. Ex-officio members shall be: the Conference secretary, the archivist of Claflin College, the archivist of Wofford College. The libraries at Claflin College and Wofford College shall be designated as depositories of all Annual Conference minutes and records. Where possible duplicate copies of all material shall be furnished; in case of materials which cannot be furnished in duplicate, the secretary of the Annual Conference shall make the determination as to which depository shall be used.

to proposed S/R 40

40. The Commission on Archives and History shall be composed of eight persons nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference. It is recommended that four (4) be lay persons and four (4) clergy persons. Ex-officio members shall be: the Conference secretary, the archivist of Claflin College, the archivist of Wofford College, and the Annual Conference Historian. The libraries at Claflin College and Wofford College shall be designated as depositories of all Annual Conference minutes and records. Where possible duplicate copies of all material shall be furnished, in case of materials which cannot be furnished in duplicate, the secretary of the Annual Conference shall make the determination as to which depository shall be used.

Item #4. from current S.R. 61.d

- d. The Committee shall be responsible for the publication of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall be printed every six years, and which shall feature biographical sketches and pictures of all the ministers of the South Carolina Conference.

to proposed S.R. 61.d

- d. The Committee shall be responsible for the publication of the volume entitled United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina, which shall be printed every ten years, and which shall feature biographical sketches and pictures of all the ministers of the South Carolina Conference.

Mr. Bill Burroughs moved that SR 110.1 be amended to read:

1. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: The District Superintendent as chairperson; the District Lay Leader; one (1) representative from the District Council on Ministries; two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Women (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority); two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Men (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority); two (2) representatives of the District Youth Council (it is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority).

Approved.

Add a new standing rule to Section IV (Miscellaneous Rules):

"The resident bishop may authorize a mail ballot on matters arising between sessions of the annual conference and requiring a vote of the ministerial members of the conference. Chairs of annual conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on matter arising between regular meetings of these bodies."

Rationale:

Roberts Rules of Order prohibits mail ballots unless they are expressly authorized by the rules of the organization. This rule allows the ministerial session, the Conference Council on Ministries and the other conference agencies named to conduct a ballot by mail when this becomes necessary.

Respectfully submitted,
Luonna A. Rouse, Chairperson
Mae Ruth Cooke, Secretary

Report No. 3

A. The compensation for District Superintendents for the year 1993 will be as follows, with the understanding that the item for in-district travel, which is paid from the District Administration Fund only by voucher, varies from district to district..

Salary	$ 51,223
Average in-district travel	$ 2,200
Insurance	$ 960
Total	$ 54,383

B. The Council on Finance and Administration of the South Carolina Annual Conference, The United Methodist Church, hereby designates up to 15% ($7,683.00) of the district superintendent's salary for the year 1993 as allocated for parsonage utilities and maintenance, not including maid service and such expenses as paid by the district.

C. The District Administration Fund will be handled as follows:

1. The item "Office Expense" in the District Administration Fund will be for the operation of the District Office to pay such items as secretary, postage, and supplies and will be set at $17,200 per district.
2. Exception: Inasmuch as the Columbia District Office must be in The United Methodist Center, one-half of the rent of that office will be paid from the Conference Expense Fund.
3. The funds for program in each district are based on the membership of the district, beginning with a base of $3,000 for the smallest membership district and adding $100 for each one thousand (1,000) members, or major fraction thereof, above 15,000. The schedule for 1993 will be as follows:

	Membership	Amount
Anderson	15,775	$3,100
Charleston	25,753	4,100
Columbia	28,127	4,400
Florence	21,870	3,700
Greenville	21,148	3,600
Greenwood	19,766	3,500
Hartsville	21,651	3,600
Marion	20,641	3,600
Orangeburg	19,113	3,400
Rock Hill	17,701	3,300
Spartanburg	18,345	3,300
Walterboro	15,010	3,000

4. Travel (in and out-of-district) is set at $6,500, insurance & pensions at $11,365, and continuing education at $500.
5. There will be no shifting of funds among travel, program, and office expense.
6. Vouchers for continuing education must be approved by the District Committee on Continuing Education prior to payment. The unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance may be carried forward from year to year during a district superintendent's tenure, not to exceed a total amounting to three years' Continuing Education allocation. Not more than fifty percent of accumulated funds shall be used for travel expenses. The accumulation is cancelled in full when a district superintendent leaves the superintendency. It does not carry forward to the new district superintendent. However, by application to the CF&A in advance of leaving the superintendency, the district superintendent may within a reasonable length of time use the unused portion of the Continuing Education allowance to take training which would assist in his/her return to the parish ministry or other appointment. For the year in which there is a move, one-half of the Continuing Education allowance will be available for each superintendent.

D. Each District Board of Trustees shall elect a treasurer from the elected trustees of said district. The treasurer of the Board of Trustees shall administer all funds for the District Parsonage Fund, writing all vouchers for parsonage payments, repairs, insurance and furnishings (not to include parsonage utility payments). The moving expenses of an incoming district superintendent may also be paid from the District Parsonage Fund, not to include more than $150 packing expenses. The treasurer shall report to the board all receipts and expenditures of the District Parsonage Fund.

E. Below are the percentages of average net funds that each church is asked to pay to its respective District Parsonage/Office Fund:

Recommended for 1993

 United Methodist Student Day — November 28, 1993

- B. An offering may be taken to support the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund as a part of the observance of Women in the Pulpit Sunday, March 14, 1993. Also, it is recommended that all gifts from individuals or churches designated for this cause may be received for the scholarship.
- C. We offer the following recommendations:

1. That all boards, commissions and committees receiving funds from the conference treasurer shall submit with each voucher adequate supporting data.
2. That boards, agencies and conference institutions which are allowed to withdraw lump sums from the conference treasurer shall submit an annual audit by a certified public accountant to the Council on Finance and Administration.
3. That all boards, commissions and agencies of the conference pay a standard rate of 20 cents a mile when a representative travels on church business. In order to encourage car pooling, we recommend that if a car contains two persons traveling on church business, the mileage rate be increased to 25 cents; if a car contains three persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 28 cents; and if a car contains four or more persons all traveling on church business, the rate be 30 cents per mile. We recommend that other expenses for travel on church business be paid; also, that the maximum paid to a person for meals shall be $3.50 for breakfast, $4.50 for lunch and $7.00 for the evening meal. Meal reimbursement will normally equal $15.00 per day.
4. That each church place in its budget an amount of at least $500 per year to be used by the pastor as a continuing education fund, and that if the full amount is not used in a given year, the unused portion be allowed to accrue during the tenure of the pastor, but not to accrue for the benefit of the subsequent pastor. It is also recommended that the health insurance premium be paid by the local church directly to the Office of Ministerial Affairs, even if it is done on a salary reduction basis, and that if this is done, the amount be included in the charge conference worksheet which itemizes salaries and benefits for 1993.

5. That the balance held for each board, commission, committee or agency on the books of the conference treasurer shall be carried forward from one year to the next and that this shall be taken into consideration in the subsequent budget request.
6. That "average net funds" as used in the calculation of 1993 apportionments shall mean for each church the four-year average of net funds in the years 1988, 1989, 1990 and 1991. When a church has declined for two years in "net funds," the term "average net funds" shall mean the average of the last two years only. Newly organized churches will be treated in the same manner as other churches of the conference. A four-year average of net funds will be used, but for the years prior to the organization of the new church, the net funds figure will be zero.
7. That "net funds" be defined as the total of figures reported on lines 64 through 72 (inclusive) of Table II.
8. That the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Homes (item 12, Report No. 1) be divided 55% to Orangeburg Methodist Home, 30% to Greenwood Methodist Home, 15% to Pee Dee Manor; that the funds received on the apportionment for Senior College Fund (item 9, Report No. 1) be divided in three equal parts, one-third each going to Wofford College, Columbia College and Claflin College; that the funds received on the apportionment for Methodist Camps and Retreat Centers (item 13, Report No. 1) be divided 60% to Asbury Hills Methodist Camp and 40% to Sewee Coastal Retreat Center.
9. That the granting of a sabbatical leave by the Annual Conference shall carry with it automatic authorization from the Contingency Fund to provide pension credit and insurance for the person granted the sabbatical, provided there are not funds in the budget of the Board of the Ordained Ministry for this purpose. No more than two sabbatical leaves will be funded by the Conference in any one year.
10. That the Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration be authorized to grant amounts up to $7,500 from the Conference Contingency Fund to meet any individual emergency or unanticipated need.
11. That the program agencies of the Conference Council on Ministries be funded 100% of budget if needed, by using funds from the Contingency Fund and interest earned from the corpus of the Contingency Fund.

Report No. 5

The following information is reported to Annual Conference in accord with the resolution passed at its session in 1985. Upon recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, a sustentation grant was made to Anthony G. Martin for the period November 1, 1991, through December 31, 1991, in the amount of $1,950.00.

Report No. 6

The Council on Finance and Administration nominates Becky L. Buie as Treasurer of the Annual Conference, and the accounting firm of Derrick, Stubbs & Stith as Conference auditors for the 1993-96 quadrennium.

Report No. 7

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends that beginning with the conference year 1994, mileage reimbursement be at the rate of 24 cents per mile for travel on conference business; also, that maximum meal reimbursement be $4.00 for breakfast, $6.00 for lunch and $10.00 for dinner, or a total of $20 per day.

Report No. 8

The Council on Finance and Administration recommends that the Annual Conference approve a grant to the Conference Council on Ministries of $50,000 from the Permanent Reserve Fund for the purchase of a computer system to enable more effective and efficient service to the conference by the CCOM.

Report No. 9

THE BOARD OF DIACONAL MINISTRY

Diaconal Ministry in South Carolina continues to grow as a viable ministry in the United Methodist Church. Enrollment in the certification studies and in the candidacy program for diaconal ministry continues to grow. More people each day are considering diaconal ministry as an option when they accept the call to ministry.

The goals for the South Carolina Conference Board of Diaconal Ministry are: 1) the interpretation of diaconal ministry and certification; 2) the recruitment of persons for certification and or consecration into diaconal ministry; 3) to administer the standards and requirements of diaconal ministry in South Carolina; and 4) to provide support for diaconal ministers, certified persons, and other lay professionals in the United Methodist Church.

We shall continue to work jointly with the Board of Ordained Ministry in developing continuing education events for ordained and diaconal ministers.

Anne Horton, Chairperson
Hazel Bennett, Registrar

THE BOARD OF PENSIONS Report No. 1

- A. The Board of Pensions requests that the South Carolina Annual Conference fix $294 per service year as the rate for annuity payments to retired ministers, which shall include approved supply time prior to admission into full connection. In the case of Special Conference Claimants, the rate shall be 100% of the rate for full conference members. The Board requests that the annuity rate for a spouse be 75% of the minister's service annuity rate.
1. based on ten years if the approved service years of the spouse are fewer.
 2. for the approved service years of the spouse if the total of approved service is less than fifteen but more than ten years.
 3. for the minister's total years of service if the service years of the spouse are more than fifteen years.
- B. The Board of Pensions requests that an appropriation be made that will give the Board of Pensions (The Pension Fund) $3,095,822 for the program of the South Carolina Annual Conference for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1993 and that this sum be apportioned to the charges of the South Carolina Annual Conference on the basis established in continuing resolutions.

C. RESOLUTION RELATING TO RENTAL/HOUSING ALLOWANCES FOR RETIRED OR DISABLED MINISTERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church has and functions through Ministers of the Gospel who are duly ordained or licensed, and

WHEREAS, the practice of The United Methodist Church is to provide a parsonage or a rental allowance as part of the gross compensation for each of its active ordained or licensed ministers; and

WHEREAS, pensions paid to retired ordained or licensed ministers of The United Methodist Church are considered as deferred compensation and are paid to said retired ordained or licensed ministers in consideration of previous, active service; and disability benefits are considered payments in lieu of compensation for active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized that the South Carolina Annual Conference is the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for retired ordained or licensed ministers who are members of this Conference;

WHEREAS, the disabled minister has the same legal relationship to an Annual Conference as does the retired minister and, thus, this Annual Conference is also the appropriate organization to designate a housing/rental allowance for a disabled ordained or licensed minister who is a member of this Conference:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. An amount equal to 100% of the pension payments received by a retired minister, or 100% of the disability benefit payments received by a disabled minister, during the years 1992 and 1993 be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance respectively for each retired or disabled ordained or licensed minister of The United Methodist Church who is or was a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference at the time of his or her retirement or disability;
2. The pension or disability payment to which this rental/housing allowance applies shall be the pension or disability payment resulting from all service of such retired ordained or licensed minister from all employment by any local church, Annual Conference, General Agency, or institution of The United Methodist Church or of any former denomination that is now a part of The United Methodist Church, or from any other employer who employed the minister to perform services related to the ministry and who elected to make contributions to the pension funds of The United Methodist Church for such retired minister's pension or disabled minister's benefits.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance which may be excluded from a minister's gross income is limited to the lesser of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the minister's employer or other appropriate body, (2) the amount actually expended by the minister to provide his or her housing, or (3) the legally-determined fair rental value of the parsonage or other housing provided. As specified in Rev. Rule. 71-280, 1971 C.B. 92, "the only amount that will qualify for exclusion under section 107(2) of the Code as a 'rental allowance' is an amount equal to the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances such as a garage, plus the cost of utilities." Beginning in 1984, there is no longer a sick pay or disability income exclusion available with respect to disability benefit payments. Therefore, the full amount of disability benefit payments will be taxable income to the recipient beginning in 1984.

- I. A. We hereby approve any recognized institution of our denomination to which a member of the South Carolina Annual Conference may be given an Episcopal appointment, outside the State of South Carolina, as an institution to which ministers so appointed may receive pension credit, provided that the minister pay his or her institutional assessments in an amount equal to 16.4 percent of the Denominational Average Compensation for the year funded.
- B. Each institution, organization or district to which a minister is appointed with annuity credit shall pay to the South Carolina Annual Conference Board of Pensions an amount equal to sixteen and four-tenths percent (16.4%) of the Denominational Average Compensation as determined by the General Board of Pensions for the year 1993. Such payments shall be made for each minister so appointed and paid monthly in equal payments each month during the year 1993 or in advance for monthly crediting in twelve equal installments from deposits made in the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference with the General Board of Pensions by the treasurer of the South Carolina Annual Conference. In the event that monthly credits to the minister in special appointment's Church Account exceed the funds deposited for the minister in special appointment, and the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge made at the currently monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program shall be made. This interest payment is due the following month with interest charges on a daily factor until the institutional account of the minister in special appointment is current.
- II. The fiscal year of the Board of Pensions shall be the same as that of the South Carolina Annual Conference.
- III. We recommend that the Annual Conference approve the distribution which the Board of Pensions has made to claimants during the year as set forth in detail in our Report No. 2: Payments to Annuitants and Beneficiaries during the year 1991.

Anne B. Drake, Chairperson
W. Timothy McClendon, Secretary

2. The Board of Pensions will make Personal Notations in answer to Business Question "What Personal Notations are to be Made?"
 - a. The Report of the Committee on Proportional Payment
 - b. Other Personal Notations

ADDENDUM A
to the MINISTERIAL PENSION PLAN (MPP) and the

MPP Supplemental Paragraph (c) For the Year 1993

This Addendum A is applicable to the South Carolina Annual Conference and is effective as of January 1, 1993. It replaces any previously executed Addendum A and shall be in effect until amended by the Annual Conference in accordance with the provisions of the Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP) and the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) (as revised January 1, 1989).

Contribution Base
MPP/CPP Base is Plan
Compensation up to DAC

The MPP and CPP Contribution Base shall be the Participant's Plan Compensation for a Plan Year, not to exceed the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) (MPP 2.1(e) and 2.1(f); CPP 2.1(e) and 2.1(f)).

MPP/CPP Church
Contribution Rate
12% Rate Option

The MPP Church Contribution Rate shall be 12% of the Contribution Base of Each Active Participant. The CPP Church Contribution Rate shall be 4.4% of the Contribution base of each Active Participant (MPP 4.1(b) and 4.1(e)(i); CPP 4.1(a)).

Remittance by the Annual Conference

The MPP and CPP Church Contribution shall be made monthly to the Plans by the Annual Conference in accordance with the Plan Document. Such MPP and CPP Church Contributions shall be transferred monthly from the Deposit Account of the South Carolina Annual Conference by the General Board of Pensions to each Active Participant's account and the Protection Benefit Fund, respectively.

The Annual Conference shall maintain an amount in its Deposit Account sufficient to provide for the monthly transfer of the Church Contributions on behalf of its Active Participants. In the event the Deposit Account is overdrawn, an interest charge shall be made by the General Board of Pensions. Such charge shall be made at the current monthly rate of interest credited to the Diversified Fund (6.5% per annum) or the current monthly rate of interest credited to the STIRA investment program, whichever is greater (MPP 4.1(a) and 4.2(g); CPP 4.1(b) and 4.2(h)).

MPP Special Arrangements

The South Carolina Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in MPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as Active Participants (MPP 3.2)

Sabbatical Leave

All Full and Associate members appointed to a sabbatical leave shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Participant's annualized Plan Compensation immediately prior to such leave (Disciplinary Paragraph 446; MPP 3.2(b)).

Conference Disability Leave
(NON-CPP)

All Active Participants appointed to disability leave but not approved for CPP disability benefits shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Denominational Average Compensation (Disciplinary Paragraph 450).

Maternity/Paternity Leave

Members appointed to Maternity/Paternity Leave shall continue to participate in MPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on the Member's Plan Compensation while salary is being paid or, based on the Member's annualized Plan Compensation immediately prior to the cessation of salary. (Disciplinary Paragraph 449).

CPP Special Arrangements

The South Carolina Conference Board of Pensions is hereby authorized, at its discretion, to arrange with the General Board of Pensions for active participation in CPP by persons who are eligible under special rules but not automatically included as Active Participants (CPP 3.2).

Sabbatical Leave

All Active Participants appointed to Sabbatical Leave shall continue in CPP with the contribution based on 3.4% of the DAC (Disciplinary Paragraph 446; CPP 3.2(b)).

Maternity/Paternity Leave

All Active Participants appointed to Maternity/Paternity Leave shall continue in CPP with the contribution based on 3.4% of the DAC (Disciplinary Paragraph 449; CPP 3.2(b)).

Conference Disability Leave
(NON-CPP)

An Active Participant appointed to disability leave but not approved for CPP disability benefits shall continue in CPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on 4.4% of the DAC (Disciplinary Paragraph 450).

Appointed Less-Than-Full-Time

All Active Participants appointed 3/4 time shall continue to participate in CPP. The Conference shall make the required Church Contributions based on 3.4% of the DAC (Disciplinary Paragraph 441.2; CPP 3.1(h)).

Past Service Pension Rate

On January 1, 1993, the ministerial Pension Rate shall be $294.00, and the local pastor's Pension Rate shall be $294.00. (Disciplinary Paragraphs 1606.2(b), 1606.7, and 1606.21(a); MPP Supplement (f))

Pre-1982 Personal Annuity (Non-Service Annuity)

The Personal Contributions Annuity derived from pre-1982 contributions made between October 1, 1944 and July 1, 1971 in the case of members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, 1785 (Southeastern Jurisdiction), and for the period prior to July 1, 1972 in the case of members of the South Carolina Annual Conference, 1866 (Central Jurisdiction), shall apply toward payment of the Participant's Formula Benefit (MPP Supplement (e)(1) and (5)).

Surviving Spouse Benefit

In accordance with paragraph (e)(5) of MPP Supplement One, the Surviving Spouse Benefit shall be 75% of the Participant's Formula Benefit.

Past Service Pension Funding

In accordance with paragraph (f) of MPP Supplement One, Unfunded Liability as of January 1, 1993, has been actuarially projected to be $3,649,084.00. Past Service Funding Deposits are required to fund the Unfunded Liability and shall be in the amounts and for the periods shown below:

Amount	Period of Deposit

1993 MPP/CPP Addendum 'A'

These Annual Deposits shall be made at the end of each calendar year as required by the General Board of Pensions. The Past Service Deposits shall be transferred from the South Carolina Annual Conference Deposit Account to the South Carolina Annual Conference Past Service Funding Account on December 31. If the Annual Cash Flow Requirement, as determined by the General Board of Pensions, exceeds the Past Service Funding Deposit Amounts, then the Cash Flow Requirement shall become the required Past Service Funding Deposit (MPP Supplement One (f)).

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission joyfully reports that since last conference much progress has been made in historic preservation. Minutes in the Claflin archives covering the years 1869-1905 and 1906 have been microfilmed. Minutes from 1905-06 through 1938 are being microfilmed at this time and microfilming of all minutes until the merger of the 1785 and 1866 conferences will soon be completed. All this was done at a nominal cost.

Wofford College archives program has acquired microfilming equipment and the work is progressing under Mr. Herbert Hucks, Jr. Archivist.

We appreciate the volunteer work of Mrs. Lenora Johnson at Claflin College.

The Commission concluded visits to our nine historic sites noting the community interest and state of preservation of each. Mrs. Thelma Wright, Archivist at the John Wesley Church Archives, was sponsored to attend the Jurisdictional Workshop held at Lake Junaluska in October, 1991.

Efforts continue on historic site status for Bethel and Old Bethel in Charleston. The proposed convocation for 1992 has been deferred until this (site status) can be celebrated.

The Conference Historical Society elected the following new officers: Mrs. Blanche Floyd, President; Mrs. Ann Andus, Vice President for Program, Mrs. Esther Witherspoon, Membership Vice President and the Rev Harry R. Mays, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Lois Burkhalter continues to edit the newsletter THE MARK. Each United Methodist Member is urged to join the Conference Historical Society. Each church is invited to become an institutional member. We offer workshops, tours, lectures, literature and fellowship with those of interest in church history.

Commission members have participated in the second National Historical Society Convocation held in Detroit in July, 1991; the SEJ Archives and History Commission meetings and the SEJ Historical Society meetings; visited and conferred with local church historians as asked and served as connecting links with the above-mentioned organizations as well as the General Commission.

Dr. A.V. Huff, Jr. deserves commendation for updating the history of the South Carolina Conference. The Rev. Delos Corderman, ex-officio member has rendered invaluable assistance to the commission.

It is still requested that, where lacking, each local church will elect a historian and provide some type of storage space for records. Each church is continually urged to keep an updated history and to place copies in the conference archives.

The future of the conference archives and history program will rest with the conference's willingness to consider appropriate long-range plans for housing and staffing needs as the times may demand.

Esther K. Witherspoon
Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE SALARIES
Report No. 1

INFORMATION

The South Carolina Conference, through this Commission, helps fund mission and ministry across the state by providing salary support to churches in several different categories as follows:

1. Missional Situations
 - a. New Congregations
 - b. Restructured Charge Lines
 - c. Engulfed Situations
2. Minimum Salary Appointments
3. Special Categories beyond the regular minimum salary schedule
4. Cooperative Ministries
5. Cross Racial Appointments

The following is a summary of the number of churches receiving salary support in each of these categories and the totals granted for each as of:

	January 1990	January 1991	January 1992
1. Missional Situations	3 $ 41,468	2 $ 24,989	3 $ 79,831
2. Minimum Salary	38 157,236	40 188,254	45 192,571
3. Special — beyond regular schedule	6 46,207	6 44,559	2 32,276
4. Cooperative Ministries	0 0	0 0	0 0
5. Cross Racial Appointments	0 0	3 15,995	2 7,366
Totals	47 $244,911	51 $273,797	52 $312,044

Appreciation is expressed to those churches who have raised their local salary support and do not find it necessary to request additional funds from the South Carolina Conference. Pastors holding every conference relationship (except retired) are eligible for equitable salary support. Receiving funds as of:

	January 1990	January 1991	January 1992
1. Full Members	22	20	22
2. Probationary Members (Full Time)	6	7	6
3. Probationary Members (Not Full Time)	1	1	2
4. Associate Members	7	9	6
5. Local Pastors (Full Time)	4	6	8
6. Student Local Pastors	7	8	8

Report No. 2 RECOMMENDATIONS

Whereas, the Discipline of 1988, paragraph 722, provides for fixing an Equitable Salary System by the Annual Conference, therefore be it resolved: That the South Carolina Annual Conference fix an equitable salary system according to the following recommendations to become effective on January 1, 1993, and to continue until changed by this Annual Conference. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that a line item apportionment of $230,000 be made to fund the salary support required and/or provided under these recommendations. This is an increase of $30,000 over the amount approved for 1992.

A. The Commission recommends the following minimum salary scale. Salary amounts have been based upon 74% of the 1992 average salary for Full Members of the Annual Conference. Other categories are based upon a percentage of the Full Members calculated figure.

Category	Amount	Increase
1. Full Members	$26,900	$1,250	4.9%
2. Probationary Members (Full Time)	24,200	1,100	4.8%
3. Probationary Members (Not Full Time)	21,500	1,000	4.9%
4. Associate Members	24,200	1,100	4.8%
5. Local Pastors (Full Time)	22,850	550	2.5%
6. Student Local Pastors	20,200	950	4.9%

These salaries are inclusive of any amount the church pays for cash salary, tax-deferred contributions, car-travel expense, utilities, and health insurance premiums.

Notes: Because of the overall economic picture, we have retained the 74% figure for 1993. It remains our hope to move to a top rate of 75% in the future.

The recommendation for category 5 above reflects an increase of only 2.5% to complete the adjustment of the extremely large 20.3% increase granted in 1991 which set the amount for Local Pastors (Full Time) at the same level as that for Probationary Members (Full Time) and Associate Members.

B. Longevity Merit Income

A pastor who has served ably for 15 or more years in full time service, 10 of which have been in the South Carolina Conference, shall receive $900.00 above the minimum base.

C. Travel Supplement

- The Annual Conference provides a travel supplement through the Equitable Salary Fund for pastors of churches/charges faced with inequitable transportation costs due to the geographic spread of the parish or the distance of the parish from hospitals and other institutions requiring frequent visits by their pastor.
- Pastors shall qualify for the travel supplement when:
 - The Charge pays the Equitable Salary Apportionment in full for the previous year.
 - The pastor receives salary from the Equitable Salary Fund.
 - The pastor lives in the parsonage or in other housing within the parish boundaries.
 - The pastor resides more than 20 miles from the hospitals most often used by parish members and/or 30% of the parish families reside more than 10 miles from the parsonage.
- The Supplement program shall be administered as follows:
 - Travel supplements shall be disbursed by voucher on the basis of actual miles in excess of 4,000 quarterly or 16,000 annually driven in performance of pastoral responsibilities up to a limit of 20,000 miles (4,000 to be covered by supplement).
 - The mileage rate shall be that approved by Annual Conference for Boards and Agencies.
 - Clergy couples shall not be compensated for extra travel for commuting between their parishes.

D. Continuing Education

The Commission shall provide the difference between what the local charge pays and 70% of the Conference recommendation.

- This money shall be provided for Full Members and Associate Members of the Annual Conference and for Full-Time Local Pastors who have completed the courses of study.
- This money shall be vouchered on a reimbursement basis.
- Any amount of Continuing Education funding provided by a church/charge over the Conference recommendation will reduce the Equitable Salaries support available to the church/charge.

E. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that all money given to the pastor for housing by the charge he/she serves be considered income if the pastor is not a resident in the charge which he/she serves.

F. The District Superintendent shall request the salary assistance required by each charge, which must be approved by the Commission on Equitable Salaries before payment can be made. This request from the District Superintendent shall be accompanied by an application form provided by the Equitable Salaries Commission and completed by the pastor, the Pastor-Parish Relations Committee and the District Superintendent indicating income from all sources.

G. If the Bishop and Cabinet find it necessary to make an appointment requiring equitable compensation supplement beyond the regular schedule, it may be granted upon Cabinet request for a term not to exceed 3 1/2 years in any given situation, and Equitable Salaries shall not pay in excess of 35% of total compensation in any instance. Assistance will decrease one-third each year after the first year and a half, unless superseded by Section K.

H. Cross Racial Appointment

If the Bishop and Cabinet, in making a cross racial appointment, find it necessary to request equitable compensation supplement, special consideration will be given on an individual basis.

I. Cooperative Parish Ministries

Directors or Coordinators of Cooperative Parish ministries which have been approved by the Board of Missions, and application made by the District Superintendent to the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1 preceding the appointment in June of the same year may be eligible for funds not to exceed $7,000.00. No pastor shall be eligible to receive funds unless the charge he/she serves agrees in writing to release him/her for these added duties. Assistance will be provided over a 4 1/2 year period and will decrease by 25% each year after the first year and a half, unless superseded by Section K.

J. Missional Situations

Missional Situations are when areas — rural, inner city, transitional or engulfed neighborhoods, or areas where new churches are organized, demand an effective ministry but are not capable of providing such ministries without equitable salary assistance. To be eligible for equitable salary assistance the following procedure must be followed:

- A District Committee shall be the authorizing body to project a new missional situation.

2. The District Committee will refer this to the Board of Missions for verification that it is indeed a missional situation.
3. It will then be referred to the Cabinet for approval. The Cabinet will then designate a pastor with at least 4 years experience and request an appropriate salary for that particular missional situation.
4. Each missional situation will be reevaluated annually by December 31st each year.
5. Each step of the above procedure must be documented in writing to the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1st.

Other provisions:

If known at the time, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries of a potential missional situation a year ahead of the time it is expected to be effected. In all cases where a new missional situation is to be effected, the District Superintendent shall notify the Commission on Equitable Salaries by January 1st preceding the Annual Conference at which an appointment is to be made providing, at that time, the projected salary cost to be incurred in June.

Equitable Salary assistance will be provided over a 4-1/2 year period decreasing 25% each year after the first year and a half as follows:

1st Year and a Half: The amount of equitable salary support will be according to the pastor's category.

Special Note: The District Superintendent may apply to the Cabinet for a salary that is more in keeping with the amount received by this pastor in his previous appointment.

2nd Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the first year and a half. At the beginning of the second full year, the church must assume one-fourth of the pastor's salary.

3rd Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the second full year. At the beginning of the third full year, the church must assume one-half of the pastor's salary.

4th Full Year: The grant depends on amount received the third full year. At the beginning of the fourth full year, the church must assume three-fourths of the pastor's salary.

After the 1st year and a half, an annual "cost of living" increase will be added at the beginning of each calendar year to the amounts paid by Equitable Salaries in missional situations. The amount of this increase will be determined by the Commission on Equitable Salaries at its June meeting each year. The total amount of equitable salary support, including the cost of living increase, to be provided in the following year will be communicated to each church by September 1st for use in the budgeting process for the new year.

Note 1. Except where the administrators of this salary schedule feel an extreme case of hardship exists, no salary funds will be granted to a church after the fourth full year.

Note 2. The local church's share of this salary schedule is interpreted to mean all sources of income from the local church or from any other source.

Note 3. In all cases where a missional situation is attached to an existing charge, these become charge figures.

Note 4. The moving expenses for pastors assigned to newly set-up congregations will be paid by equitable salaries.

- K. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that no equitable salary supplement be granted that would increase the pastor's total salary to a figure more than 30% above the minimum salary for the appropriate category, except at the request of the Bishop and Cabinet for missional situations (See Sec. J above).
- L. Equitable Salary Funds shall be disbursed monthly, and shall be given only to the pastor involved.
- M. The Commission on Equitable Salaries requests that the South Carolina Conference designate 15% (or actual expenses) of salary support funded by this commission as parsonage utilities allowance. This request is made to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.
- N. The Equitable Salaries Commission recommends that any charge receiving equitable salaries assistance for three consecutive years or failing to pay more than 65% of the minimum salary shall be studied by the Equitable Salaries Commission for the purpose of making recommendations regarding a realignment of that charge.

- O. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that all funds held in "reserve" be invested.
- P. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the minimum salary for Full Members of the Conference (under 15 years) be indexed to the average salary package (which includes cash salary, tax-deferred contributions, car-travel expense, utilities and health insurance premiums) of all Full Members of the Conference, and we recommend that for 1993 it be indexed at 74% of the Annual Conference average salary of the preceding year and that the resulting number be rounded to the nearest $50.00.
- Q. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that an interpretation of its task and policy procedures be given as a part of the District Pastor/Staff Parish Relations Committee Workshops. It is further recommended that this interpretation be done by a member of the Commission upon invitation by the District Superintendent.
- R. The Commission on Equitable Salaries recommends that the following not be eligible for equitable salary support:
 1. Retired supplies;
 2. Part-time local pastors;
 3. Pastors on leave of absence except as provided in Standing Rule 144;
 4. Special appointment categories within the itineracy of The United Methodist Church as defined in Paragraph 443.1. a,b,c of the 1988 Discipline.

THE COMMISSION ON GROUP INSURANCE Report No. 1

The insurance program of the South Carolina Conference is designed to provide its eligible employees (as defined herein) with a comprehensive plan for major medical and life insurance. The program is administered through a group plan supervised by the Commission on Group Insurance. The following are eligible for coverage under the program:

1. Those fully employed by a church either in full membership, probationary membership, associate membership, or full time local pastors or full time diaconal ministers related to and serving a local church within the South Carolina Annual Conference.
2. Certified candidates for ministry or Probationary Members in the last two years of seminary.
3. Ministers who are full time employees of the Annual Conference boards, agencies, or institutions.
4. District Superintendents.
5. Student local pastors who are serving work within the boundaries of the Conference.
6. Lay persons who are full time employees of the Annual Conference.
7. Retired or disabled employees (except for those referred to herein as lay persons) immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions at the beginning on the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the grant of disability benefits by the General Board of Pensions, and their respective dependents.
8. Those retired or disabled employees, referred to herein as lay persons, immediately eligible to receive pension or disability benefits from the General Board of Pensions at the beginning of the month following the month in which the retired relation or disability leave with disability benefits takes place, and who had a minimum of ten (10) continuous and consecutive years of active participation in the South Carolina Annual Conference group health plan at the time of retirement or the granting of disability benefits by the General Board of Pensions, and their respective spouses.
9. Ordained ministers from other United Methodist Annual Conferences and ordained ministers from other Methodist denominations and other denominations fully employed by and under episcopal appointment to a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference to a charge in the South Carolina Annual Conference under the provisions of Paragraph 426 of the 1988 Book of Discipline.

10. Full-time employees, and their eligible dependents, of a local church of the South Carolina Annual Conference currently enrolling no less than 75% of all full-time employees in the Annual Conference group insurance plan. The funding basis to be established by the local church with the annual conference on the current advanced premium.

Eligibility requirements are set forth in a guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, published by the carrier from time to time and available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, South Carolina 29211.

Report No. 3 MAJOR MEDICAL INSURANCE BENEFITS

The major medical plan of the Conference Insurance Program provides benefits for reasonable and customary charges incurred by the insured, or a covered dependent, while receiving hospital services, treatments and supplies ordered by a physician. After a $250 annual deductible, the plan provides for payment of 80% of the first $5,000.00 of eligible expenses and 100% of all other eligible expenses over $5,000.00.

The lifetime maximum coverage each eligible insured and eligible dependent shall be limited to $1,000,000.

Other details of the major medical expense plan are contained in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

Report No. 4 MEDICAL BENEFITS

Medicare is a Federal health insurance plan, administered under the Social Security Act, for the benefit of persons 65 years of age or older. The Medicare Program consists of two parts: (a) hospital insurance, designed to pay for physicians' service and related medical services. Under the terms of the Medicare Program, hospital insurance (Part A) is provided for all persons under the plan. The medical insurance (Part B) is an optional feature for which the insured pays a stated monthly premium.

The Conference Insurance Program is so designed that it provides certain benefits which begin at the point where Medicare coverage terminates, and in addition, makes provision for some benefits not covered by Medicare at all. Therefore, it is required that all retired participants and/or dependent spouses aged 65 or older shall enroll in Medicare Part A and Part B and, in any event, benefits for enrollants and eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall be computed as though the enrollant or eligible dependent were enrolled in Medicare Part A and B.

Inasmuch as the insurance coverage for normally retired ministers and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 is provided for them by the Conference without cost to the insured, all persons who are or who could be covered by Medicare Part A and Part B shall have their benefits computed by the Benefit Integration method; and each insured or dependent age 65 or over should be positive that any hospital he/she enters is one which participants in the Medicare program. Our plan does not pay benefits which are or could be paid by Medicare.

Eligible retired enrollants and their eligible dependents as well as participating active enrollants and their eligible dependents who have attained age 65 shall have benefits calculated by the Benefit Reduction approach with the same deductible(s) applicable and the same coinsurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes Part A and Part B the same coinsurance as those enrollants under age 65. This assumes that the active age 65 and over enrollant and dependent shall be enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B immediately upon reaching the age of eligibility.

A handbook explaining the provisions of Medicare is available from any district office of the Social Security Administration.

Report No. 5 ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES

Billing: The Office of Ministerial Affairs sends a quarterly statement to everyone enrolled in the Conference Insurance Program. Statements are mailed in January, April, July and October. Although statements are mailed quarterly, payments for premiums may be made on monthly basis.

Cancellation of Coverage: It is imperative that each participant in the Conference Insurance Program keep this premium payments current. The Commission on Insurance has instructed the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs to cancel the insurance coverage of any participant who does not pay his premium by the end of the quarter for which he has been billed.

Ministers Serving Special Appointment: For the purpose of proper cost analysis, it is required that all Conference Boards and Agencies, served by ministers and others eligible for insurance, pay for the "institutional share" of the insured's premium. (The "institutional share" for ministers serving churches is paid through the Council on Finance and Administration appropriation directed to the Conference Insurance Program.) This provision shall apply to the District Superintendents, those serving United Methodist colleges and other Methodist institutions and agencies directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and operating under Boards of Trustees, should they elect coverage under the Conference Insurance Program. In every case the full cost of coverage must be paid by the insured, his employer, or through the combined payments of the insured and his employer.

Premium payments: Premium payments shall be made in accordance with the instructions printed on the quarterly "Statement of Account."

Application for Insurance Coverage: Eligibility for enrollment begins with recognition as a probationary member, full-time employment as a local pastor or student local pastor, or as a transfer from another Annual Conference, and so noted in report of the Board of the Ordained Ministry. Enrollment at any other time classifies an applicant as a "late entrant." Open enrollment for local church employees under the provisions of section 10 of Report Number One may be made only in the months of January and July.

Applications for enrollment in the Conference Insurance Program are available from the Administrator of Ministerial Affairs. If not completed and in the hands of the Administrator within 31 days from the date of eligibility, the applicant will be classed as a "late entrant". It will then be necessary for a health statement to be furnished, and in most instances, a physical examination will be required at the expense of the insured.

Claims Procedure: The cost of medical care continues to rise, therefore, the Office of Ministerial Affairs and the carrier audit every claim with great care. Conference Insurance Program participants can render valuable assistance in the claims process by:

1. Making certain that they have received all the services for which they are requesting payment.
2. Supplying the documentation required to validate the claim.
3. Refraining from asking for reimbursement for services clearly excluded under the terms of the insurance program.

Claims should be submitted at least quarterly, but not more often than once a month.

The Commission on Group Insurance is charged with oversight of the group insurance program of the South Carolina Annual Conference, the benefits of which program are outlined in the reports of the Commission submitted to and approved by the Annual Conference. The budget of the Commission on Insurance is approved by the Annual Conference and the Commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with carriers to maintain the level of benefits approved by the Annual Conference for the eligible participants as defined by the Annual Conference.

Report No. 6 COVERAGE FOR CONFERENCE LAY EMPLOYEES

The Commission on Insurance receives from time to time requests from conference boards and agencies for insurance coverage for lay employees. Accordingly, the Commission has adopted the following policy in this connection.

Conference insurance coverage is available to all employees of the United Methodist Church directly related to the South Carolina Annual Conference and working within the boundaries of the Annual Conference, including fully employed diaconal ministers fulfilling the requirements of Paragraphs 302-315 of the 1988 Book of Discipline and recommended by the Board of Diaconal Ministry of the South Carolina Annual Conference, provided the insured and the agency concerned bear their full share of the cost of the insurance.

Coverage under the major medical insurance shall be the same as for all other persons covered, and all provisions governing eligibility for the Conference Insurance Program shall apply.

Life Insurance Coverage for eligible Conference Lay Employees shall be as follows effective January 1, 1981:

1. Less than age 60:	$15,000.00
2. Age 60 but less than age 65:	$13,000.00
3. Age 65 but less than age 70:	$13,000.00	reduced by 8% for each birthday until the 70th active employees
4. Age 65 and over for those retiring before June 1, 1975:	$ 4,000.00	(additional care)
5. Age 65 and over for those retiring after June 1, 1975:	$ 5,000.00	(additional care)

Report No. 7 COORDINATION OF BENEFITS

The purpose of health care insurance is to help meet actual expenses. In line with that purpose, the Conference Insurance Program contains a nonprofit provision which coordinates our plan with other plans under which an individual is covered so that the total benefits available will not exceed 100% of the allowable expensed. Under this plan, if a dependent, employed spouse is covered by another group plan, application for insurance benefits should first be made under the employee's own policy, then application may be made to the Conference Insurance Program for any additional benefits that might be due.

Strict adherence to this policy is essential if we are to maintain good benefits under our program at a reasonable cost. A detailed explanation of the "coordination" provision is contained in YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN.

Report No. 8

The Commission on Insurance makes the following recommendation for action by the 1989 South Carolina Annual Conference.

1. That the Council on Finance and Administration apportion to the churches the sum of $2,980,013.00 for the Conference Insurance Program to be used as follows:
 - a. $81,274.00 for administration of the program.
 - b. $2,898,739.00 for the Conference's share of the cost of the insurance program in providing coverage for eligible enrollants of the S.C. Conference.
2. That enrollant premium payments be set as follows:
 - a. Categories 1-10 of Report Number 1 shall be $80.00 monthly.
 - b. Premiums for retired ministers 65 and over be fully paid by the Annual Conference except in cases where the spouse is under age 65; in which instance the premium shall be $40.00 monthly.
 - c. Premiums for the surviving under age 65 spouse will be $40.00 monthly.
 - d. Premiums for the actuarially retired member under age 65 with dependent shall be $80.00 monthly.

3. Participants in the Conference Insurance Program shall pay their premiums in advance. All coverage shall be subject to cancellation if payments are not made prior to the end of the quarter for which the insured is billed.
4. Every participant in the Conference Insurance Program shall become familiar with the provisions of the program as outlined in the guidebook, YOUR GROUP INSURANCE PLAN, copies of which are available from the Office of Ministerial Affairs, P.O. Box 11284, Columbia, SC 29211.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

"Vital Congregations / Faithful Disciples — Emphasis on Evangelism" was adopted as the theme for the 1992 session of the Annual Conference to be held at Wofford College, Spartanburg, S.C. May 31 through June 4, 1992. The theme of the session and the Bishop's Five Star Awards will be incorporated into the orientation session to be held from 8:30-11:30 a.m. on Monday, June 1st.

Bishop Bethea, on behalf of the Committee has invited the following speakers for the 1992 session: (1) The Rev. Marshall L. Meadors, Jr. for the opening service of Holy Communion; (2) The Rev. Phillip C. Thrailkill for the morning Bible studies; (3) Bishop James S. Thomas for the midday services June 1st and 2nd; (4) The Rev. Sheila D. Rogers for the Ordination Service; (5) The Rev. R. Wright Spears for the midday service on June 3rd. Bishop Bethea will preach at the concluding service on Thursday, June 4th.

Emphasis was given to keeping the schedule of events as outlined in the pre-conference materials. Therefore, business, rather than an informal worship service, will be scheduled for Wednesday evening. Hopefully the session will adjourn at noon on Thursday.

The Committee on the Annual Conference recommends that Wofford College, Spartanburg, SC be the site of the 1993 session of the Annual Conference. Bishop Bethea, in consultation with the Wofford College administration has set the following dates for the 1993 session: May 30-June 3, 1993.

Joseph B. Bethea, Chairperson
Delos Corderman, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON THE CONFERENCE JOURNAL

The Committee on the Conference Journal expresses appreciation to David and Mary Nichols for editing the 1991 edition of United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina. Considering the problems surrounding the delivery of pictures from the photographers, the failure of some ministers to furnish current information and the conflicting information on some addresses, the Nichols' task was difficult at best.

The Committee recommends that the Annual Conference amend Standing Rule 61.d to provide for publication of United Methodist Ministers in South Carolina every ten years.

The Committee accepted the Print Media Center's bid of $44,700 for the 1992 Journal, registration packets and pre-conference materials. This is lower than the 1991 bid. The Committee discussed ways to decrease the number of pages in the 1992 Journal in order to allow larger print to be used.

The Committee recommends that the format for the statistical tables shall include the listing of the churches within each district by alphabetical sort with the name of the town following duplicated church names within each district.

$50,000 is requested for the budget of the Committee on the Conference Journal and $6,000 for account #031, the Ministers Book. Surviving spouses of clergy be given the opportunity to receive publications under the same term as when the clergy spouses were alive.

The Committee agreed to support the request of Print Media Center for adequate computerized equipment to print and publish the Journal and other related materials.

We are grateful to Jeanette Mack and the Print Media Center staff for all their work in preparation and publication of the Journal, the Annual Conference materials and for distribution of the Ministers Book. Better and more efficient work could be done if adequate up-to-date equipment were provided.

Samuel H. Poston
Interim Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON THE EPISCOPACY

The Committee on the Episcopacy has had one meeting since the last Annual Conference. The next meeting will be a reorganizational one for the new quadrennium on June 20, 1992 at 10:00 a.m. at the United Methodist Center.

The Committee supported the securing of an Administrative Assistant to the Bishop and expressed its regret when the 1991 Annual Conference did not choose to accept the proposal for one made by the Committee on Future Staffing.

It was voted to request the Southeastern Committee on the Episcopacy reassign Bishop Bethea to the Columbia Area.

A continued concern of the Committee has been Shirley Bethea's health and we rejoiced at the success of her kidney transplant and pray for her recovery to be a speedy one.

Clyde Calhoun, Chairperson
Susan Ashworth, Secretary

THE COMMITTEE TO PROMOTE APPORTIONMENT PAYMENT

Although giving to the Annual Conference Budget was down 0.7% in 1991, the churches/charges of the South Carolina Conference have done extremely well in the face of the difficult economic situation that we have been experiencing. In 1991 they paid $12,602,701 against a total budget of $14,818,949 or 85.0%. Even though this was a slight percentage decrease, the actual dollars given increased $348,687, reflecting a 2.8% increase over 1990 in payments toward apportionments. The Committee is grateful to the pastors and lay people for their continuing commitment to the work and ministry of the Annual Conference through their support of the Conference Budget.

It is important, however, to remember that we still experienced a shortfall of over $2.2 million in meeting our 1991 budget and, therefore, must continue our efforts to encourage 100% payment of all apportionments by the churches/charges. The District Interpretation Rallies and the Stewardship Awareness Workshops that we continue to recommend are specifically designed for this purpose.

The Committee has also been working with the Cabinet on a proposed 5-year plan that will help strengthen payment on apportionments in each district as seems best for each situation. In addition, we have initiated dialogue meetings on the district level between members of this Committee and the pastors to deal with financial, informational, philosophical, relational, and leadership concerns of both clergy and lay persons in regard to apportionments. Information obtained from these dialogues will be invaluable to us in our efforts to lead our Conference toward the goal of full support of our Annual Conference budget each year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- A. Continue the District Interpretation Rallies on the Annual Conference Budget in six districts in 1992. These rallies may be held in July or August, but no later than September 15th, with a 1-1 1/2 hour time frame. They are for both pastors and lay members of the Committee on Finance in each church/charge.
- B. Continue to address the need for increased emphasis on stewardship education with Stewardship Awareness Workshops in the other six districts in 1992. The workshops are for both pastors and laity and will be staffed by The Stewardship Section of The Board of Laity.

NOTE: The events recommended in A. and B. above would follow an alternating pattern in each district each year.

- C. We recommend continuing the requirement that those churches/charges who have not paid all apportionments in full submit in writing, to the District Superintendent with "The Year End Report," a statement signed by the pastor and Administrative Board chairperson as to why such apportionments were not paid. This information will be forwarded to the Bishop, the Cabinet, and the Committee to Promote Apportionment Payment. The purpose for this is to gain information from the churches/charges that may prove valuable in helping them raise the level of their commitment to our connexional ministry.
- D. We request the Council on Finance and Administration to provide $2,000 to fund the continuing work of this committee in 1993. This is the same level approved for 1991.

Rutledge D. Sheridan, Secretary

THE TRUSTEES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Most of the work of the Trustees continues to deal with abandoned properties. The District Agents are helping to clarify the status of property and what can be done with each situation. Rev. Jerry Wingo has completed this task in the Marion District and we are encouraged about the outcome of these efforts throughout the state.

The Angelus Property (Hartsville District), the Shiloh Property (Orangeburg District) and the Shiloh Property (Rock Hill District) have been deeded to the respective Cemetery Associations as directed by the 1991 Annual Conference.

The Trustees working with Rev. Bob Howell, Marion District Superintendent, had the Wesley Church torn down and removed from the property in Georgetown. The removal cost was $5,500.00 which the Trustees will recover when the property is sold. We also want to thank Rev. Jerry Wingo and Rev. Bob Carlisle for their help on this project.

The Trustees approved a loan of $18,000.00 to the Marion District for improvements to their parsonage. The money was loaned at 6.5% (prime when loan closed). Repayment of those monies will be over a six year period.

There is a full financial report of monies held in trust by the Board in the Conference Treasurer's report.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE UNITED METHODIST CENTER

The Trustees are continuing their work to meet the needs of the agencies of the South Carolina Conference. Over the last year, it has become apparent that additional space will be needed at the Center. At Annual Conference in 1991, an additional staff person was approved for the Council on Ministries. Space was needed for this person and the required support. This need was temporarily alleviated when The Methodist Foundation relocated to another building.

The immediate need exists for expansion of approximately 2,000 square feet to effectively serve the existing agencies. To properly plan for the future and to develop the most economical solutions, the Board of Trustees requested that an Ad Hoc Committee be formed to make recommendations to the Board. As a result of these recommendations, an architect has been retained to develop long range space needs as well as recommendations to upgrade the current facility to accommodate current technology such as personal computers.

As the programs of the South Carolina Conference expand, the Trustees of The United Methodist Center will strive to meet the needs of the Conference in an effective, economical manner.

Francis M. Mack
Chairperson

THE CAMPS AND RETREATS DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

At the conclusion of the first year (January 15, 1992) of this three year campaign we have received $120,615. This represents roughly 6% of the total goal of 2.2 million dollars. Of the 1,073 churches in our Conference, 153 of them, or 14%, have participated or are participating in the fund-raising effort.

It appears that word is slow getting out. We have not been flooded with a plethora of churches requesting information either about the fund-raising effort or the camps and retreats in general. Many South Carolina United Methodists are not even aware that our Conference owns the Sewee Coastal Retreat. The District Committees with our help have begun a church by church telephone canvas requesting that the story of South Carolina's camps and retreats be told and that the goals of the CRD campaign be shared within that congregation. The churches deserve to know.

Available in every district office are several resources for use in the local church. There is a twelve minute video highlighting Asbury Hills and the Sewee Coastal Retreat. These videos need to be used. Posters are available depicting the architectural proposals for both Asbury Hills and the Sewee Coastal Retreat. Every church can and should have one.

It is the hope of the CRD Committee that, at the very least, every local congregation in the South Carolina Conference will hear of the Camps and Retreats Development Campaign by the time of Annual Conference 1992. We firmly believe that if the laity are informed of the need confronting us, they will respond.

Committee Member

THE TRUSTEES OF THE S.C. UNITED METHODIST ADVOCATE

The South Carolina United Methodist Advocate continues to increase its value as a principle communication instrument of the S.C. Conference. The 1988 Conference Journal reports the selection of the Rev. Willie Teague as editor and the replacement of almost half of the then-existing board of trustees (p. 219). The new editor and board placed as first priority the relationship of the Advocate with the members of the S.C. Conference.

The result has been increased emphasis on coverage of the programs of the Conference Council on Ministries and other boards and agencies throughout the Conference, increased local coverage of S.C. United Methodists as well as the addition of such items as book reviews, a children's page, obituaries for lay persons who have served boards and agencies of the Conference and the continuance of local church editions. As a further commitment to Conference communications, each full member of the Annual Conference now receives the Advocate free of charge. The editorial policy reflects a commitment to addressing the moral, spiritual and relational questions of S.C. United Methodists.

Circulation holds steady at approximately 15,000. This circulation includes local church editions, which continue to serve both as newsletters to local congregations and as an introduction to the United Methodist Connection for a new generation.

In addition, increased advertising is possible. The hiring of a marketing staff person promises both increased advertising and circulation revenues — which is necessary to meet rising costs. An increase in all levels of subscription rates was necessary in 1991-92. This increase along with stewardship changes in printing and accounting allow the board of trustees to request a 0 percent increase in Conference support. The financial health of the paper will be of paramount importance for upcoming board members.

We thank outgoing trustees William Gibbons, who serves as vice chairperson, John Hills and the Rev. Roberta Josey for their excellent contributions to the work of the Advocate.

In addition, General, Jurisdictional and Annual Conferences allow the Advocate to demonstrate its value as educator and reflector of the feelings and beliefs of the S.C. Annual Conference. As decisions and challenges are presented, the Advocate has the opportunity to reflect and report on the direction of our Connection. The staff and board of trustees welcome this opportunity and look forward to the unfolding of this last decade of the 20th century.

Report 2

The Advocate Board of Trustees respectfully request that the S.C. Annual Conference continue to endorse the Advocate as our official Conference newspaper.

CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON MINISTRIES Report No. 1

A. In June of 1991 the Conference Council on Ministries recommended to Bishop Joseph B. Bethea and the Cabinet that I be appointed to serve as the Director of CCOM. I welcomed the challenge and can honestly say that I have never had to look back with regret. It is a demanding work and sometimes lonely, but the meaningful experiences that have been mine have been richly rewarding in many ways. There are six expressions of appreciation that are important to this report and in all six cases I cannot be sufficiently generous.

1. The pastors and people of the South Carolina United Methodist Conference have been responsive to the ways in which I have asked for your help in the past year. You have given direction to the CCOM staff, you have expressed clearly what are your major concerns and needs, and you have been generous with your invitations to be a part of your church families. Thank you for your response because you are the reason CCOM exists.
2. I cannot imagine what it would be like to direct the CCOM and not have the support of the Bishop with whom you serve. Bishop Joseph B. Bethea is my Bishop, pastor, counselor, supporter, and friend and to him I express my deepest gratitude. The Bishop and the Cabinet have been mindful of both my professional and personal needs and they have responded in an exceptional manner.
3. Dr. Carolyn Briscoe and the members of my Administrative Committee have been serving faithfully for four years. Together they have survived changes which included three council directors and six associate directors. They have in essence been the thread holding together the fabric. From the very beginning they have supported me, indulged my mistakes, helped me to learn process, and encouraged me toward a new level of patience. I cannot think of an adequate way to say thank you for the confidence that they have placed in my leadership and for their faithfulness to an extremely important ministry of our conference.
4. The CCOM staff has responded magnificently to all that I have asked of them relative to their work. They appreciate professionalism and all of them are professionals. This dedicated group of persons is prompt, efficient and committed. They are excited about their work and their service to the membership of the South Carolina United Methodist churches. Most importantly, I want to publicly affirm them and say thank you for an excellent work.
5. The membership of the Conference Council on Ministries is an interesting group of people. Individuals representing local churches, districts, boards, agencies, committees, members-at-large, women, men, youth, young adults, older adults, clergy and laity make up this racially inclusive body which gives direction to the connectional ministries of the church. These persons represent all of the constituencies of our conference and volunteer their time, talent, service and prayers to accomplish the task. I want to commend them for their significant contribution to the work of the CCOM.
6. I want to express my personal appreciation to all of the persons who have previously served in the position which I presently hold. It is because of their collective contributions that I am able to move forward in exploration of new ministries building on their experience and benefiting from their gifts. Their wise counsel has been a gift for which I say thank you very much.

B. It is better for a new CCOM Director to celebrate all of the positive ministries of the last four years without trying to make a list. For sure I would forget something important. Perhaps this space can best be used by sharing with you what has been the most meaningful to me over the past several months.

Traveling all over South Carolina, holding public hearings, receiving suggestions which included constructive criticisms, participating in District Council on Ministry meetings, teaching in Christian Leadership Orientations, working with local churches, serving on the Cabinet, sharing time with residency groups, attending meaningful meetings about camps and retreats, directing communication, Christian vocations, religion and race, Christian unity, ecumenical concerns, Christian action, pastoral care and concerns, schools of evangelism, annual meetings of UMW and UMM, and youth retreats, broadening my personal perspective about jurisdictional and general church matters, supervising staff, and participating in the hiring of new staff — are some of the things which have occupied much of my time over the past several months. Basically, I have tried to be a good student and maximize my opportunities for learning. This has helped me to bring focus to my ministry and to give direction to the CCOM.

The CCOM vision statement represents an effort on the part of many to give the local church priority with regard to both ministry and resources. It is a simple statement which is easily understandable and will assist local churches in assuming an initiative for helping things to happen locally. At the same time it allows for conference and district concerns to develop in ways which will enable more congregations to become more vital and disciples more faithful. Spiritual formation, inclusiveness, church development and vitalization, missions, evangelism, education and ministerial effectiveness will continue to be the standard by which we will be monitored.

In closing let me recommend to you the following:

1. The increased support of the Line Item Ministries (Senior College Fund, Campus Ministry Fund, Spartanburg Methodist College, Methodist Homes, Asbury Hills United Methodist Camp and Sewee Retreat Center, Congregational Development/Redevelopment/Revitalization) with a higher percentage of giving. They represent significant ministries about which all of us can be proud and they deserve better support. My recommendation to all of the administrators, directors, and presidents of these ministries is that they assume a more aggressive posture of helping everyone to hear their great story.
 2. The position of Associate Director of Youth and Age-Level Ministries to be filled by June B. Willson.
 3. The heartfelt gratitude for the significant manner in which the United Methodist Committee on Relief has helped South Carolina recover from Hurricane Hugo. To date UMCOR has distributed $1,506,610 in recovery ministries throughout the state. Thank you UMCOR.
- And thank you very much South Carolina.

PROGRAMS

Advocacy Section

1. WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY — A program of the Christian Unity and Interreligious Commission that will find at least one leader in each district who would be responsible for planning, organizing, promoting and implementing an interdenominational Week of Prayer for Christian Unity in his/her community. This is for promotion of the event only. The suggested week is January 18-25, 1993. The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is designed to be hosted in 12 districts, seven local churches per district. The Rev. Hank Watson will be in charge of this program by communicating with DCOM chairpersons.
CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS $ 100
2. MINORITY PRESENCE PROJECT — A program that will work with District Councils on Ministries to intentionally seek ethnic young persons and counselors to participate in the conference camping endeavors at Asbury Hills. The primary goal is to increase ownership and investment in our conference camps and retreats by the ethnic local churches.
COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE $ 300

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education realizes its role of promoting the growth of Christian Education in the local church and is aware of the critical need to strengthen the church school. Therefore, the Board of Education is proud of its 1991 accomplishment of redesigning its program structure. The new structure provides opportunities for this board to sponsor at least one district-wide event in each district annually.

Scholarships were provided for twenty-nine persons to encourage them to attend the Leader Development Center for Lab Training. Many other leadership training events were sponsored including the Leaders Retreat at White Oak.

The following events were held during 1991: three Christian Workers Schools, seven Drug Education Events, five Human Sexuality Events, and two labs, one of which was small membership church.

It is the intent of the Board of Education to design and provide education events to strengthen Christian Education in our local churches. Also, to continue addressing critical social issues such as human sexuality and drug abuse.

THE BOARD OF CAMPS & RETREATS

Asbury Hills Camp

With "Knapsacks and Bibles" as their theme, 796 summer campers combined a week or more of mountain air, outdoor Christian education, and strenuous activity. Even though double digit increases in summer campers seem to elude Asbury Hills, a 9 percent increase in summer campership for each of the past three years is a worthy goal to best. The Board of Camps and Retreats and the staff at Asbury Hills are planning for just that in 1992. To meet demand for summer camp, more weeks of camping are being added for 1992. As Asbury Hills pushed beyond its thirtieth birthday in 1991, year-round camp attendance continues to grow. A special program of sharing facilities with Epworth Children's Home during the summer camping sessions is also very popular. In 1991, the Board of Camps and Retreats adopted a five-year plan for construction of additional needed facilities. These facilities include a program hut, a program building, a chapel, volunteer quarters, family rental units, and staff support facilities.

Sewee Coastal Retreat Center

On November 1, 1990, the Hugo Relief Effort returned Sewee Coastal Retreat Center to the Board of Camps and Retreats. In the Spring of 1991, the Board of Camps and Retreats began the process of restoring the land to a useable condition. The hurricane itself, as well as much of the heavy equipment that was used to clean up the property (first for the relief effort, and then to the final clean up initiated at the end of 1990), caused roots, bricks, concrete fragments, and other debris to be buried slightly beneath the soil level. In order to make the area safe for public use and for mowing, the entire property was extensively raked and prepared for grassing. Grass was sown in April of 1991, as well as some other extensive work such as breaking up and burying large concrete fragments. In connection with the clean up effort, Stephen Withers of Awendaw, South Carolina, was retained as camp caretaker. Since coming to work in June of 1991, Mr. Withers has completed all of the agency requirements for reopening the camp and is presently on-site Monday through Friday 9:00 to 5:00. Under Mr. Withers' direct supervision, the camp has been reopened for primitive camping, recreational vehicle use, and day use. The recreational building is available as a partial shelter from rain, but is open air, and thus, not suitable for extreme cold. There is a temporary bathhouse available; ten recreational vehicle camp sites are in use. In December of 1991, the Conference Council on Ministries gave approval to a limited building program at Sewee. At the January 1992 meeting of the Board of Camps and Retreats, the Board directed its Property and Finance Committee to work with architect and land planner Lonnie Long of Charleston, South Carolina to prepare detailed drawings and specifications for a modern, up-to-date bathhouse facility (to be completed as quickly as possible in the Spring), minor, but needed, repairs to the existing recreational building, and construction of a new dock and boat ramp. The process of recovering from Hurricane Hugo has been a long one, but by June of this year the facilities will be comparable to what existed before the hurricane.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

The Board of Evangelism initiates, plans, and carries out programs to train, motivate, and equip pastors and local churches for their effective evangelism ministry. Growth in discipleship, as well as in numbers, is the board's goal for churches within our annual conference.

Our annual School of Evangelism at Springmaid Beach was held in October and was attended by 120 pastors and lay people, who spent three days in workshops and lectures providing practical help for their particular ministry situations.

During Lent of 1991, the Bishop's Day with Confirmation Classes was held for the fifth year. Over 600 young people from across the conference and their adult leaders, assembled at College Place United Methodist Church to learn more about Methodist history, the connectional system, and agencies of the United Methodist Church in South Carolina. The young people had an opportunity to talk with Bishop Bethea making the connection seem more close to the local church.

The Denman Evangelism Awards were presented at Annual Conference. The clergy award was given to Rev. William R. Bouknight. The lay person receiving the award was Mrs. Lucille Wolfe.

Our program on Discipleship and Lay Visitation has been implemented by several districts and local churches, and has proven effective.

The "Bishop's Five Star Award" will be made this year in recognition of local churches showing gains in membership, attendance, and outreach.

THE BOARD OF LAITY

Report 1

The Board continues to support and encourage participation of our United Methodist Youth, United Methodist Men, United Methodist Women and the Laos in all aspects of programming in our Annual Conference.

There are four areas of responsibilities: Stewardship and Finance, Lay Life and Work, Age Level and Family Ministries and Lay Speaking.

During the year the following programs and projects were implemented:

- Church Leadership Orientations were held in nine districts
- A successful Laity Convocation with eleven hundred registered attendants
- Stewardship Specialist Training with eighteen participants
- Four courses in training lay speaking instructors with thirty eight participants
- Published Family Focus Handbook
- Two Family Church of the Year awards
- Family — The Forming Center with twenty seven participants
- Two Singles Retreats with one hundred forty participants

Report 2

The appropriate nominating committee nominated B.J. Pasley to serve as Conference Lay Leader for the 1992-96 Quadrennium.

B.J. Pasley, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Helping persons, lay and clergy, plan and carry out worship experiences that are vital and alive has been the goal of the Commission on Worship.

Through workshops and demonstrations persons have learned about the United Methodist Hymnal and two special services, "Hanging of the Greens" and "Moravian Love Feast." The Love Feast materials were added to the Resources for Special Days Notebook.

A listing of persons available as speakers, for musical presentations, dramas, and other special services was published.

The Music Workshop and the Youth Choir Festival co-sponsored by The Fellowship and the Commission helped train persons who have responsibilities for music and worship in the local church.

Commission members planned and carried out worship at Annual Conference. These services were printed in the Worship Booklet.

Vital Worship Into the New Century is being addressed through a workshop planned for Fall, 1992, focusing on Evangelistic Worship.

At the request of a district the Commission will provide workshops on the United Methodist Hymnal and Services for Special Days.

Commission members have faithfully given of their time and talents to help accomplish the goal of Vital Worship in congregations throughout South Carolina.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The South Carolina Conference Board of Missions continues to focus on mission education, mission service and encouraging mission involvement and mission giving. The Mission Convocation, "A Wakeup Call to Mission," was held at Shandon United Methodist Church, Columbia, on September 14. It was given high marks for content and representation.

Our conference continues to be active in the mission of the Church through UVMIM; SIP; Salkehatchie Summer Service; Hungrief; Church Extension; Congregational Development, Redevelopment and Revitalization; and Advance Specials. We celebrate our success, but are mindful that we can do more!

We glory in the worldwide program and connectionalism, both with sister churches and ecumenically, of our denomination that seeks to minister to an imperfect world where pain, hunger, poverty, injustice and ignorance are all too common.

We look forward with eagerness and excitement to the approaching quadrennium with its opportunity for service. We are certain that even with all our accomplishments, we can do more. Our Goal Statement for the coming quadrennium is "Nourish the Roots for an Abundant Harvest" as we try to continue the high rate of performance of our present program as well as increase the mission emphasis in each local congregation in our conference.

We continue to celebrate the fact that for more than 200 years we have helped build churches and congregations, feed the hungry and seek justice for the poor and downtrodden. Today, that commitment to mission is sustained through the dedicated and loving service of 550 missionaries in more than 70 countries around the world. In addition, we help support about 200 nationals who serve as missionaries in their respective homelands and other countries.

SPARTANBURG METHODIST COLLEGE 1991 Report

Spartanburg Methodist College, operating beneath the Annual Conference Board of Missions, helped develop the lives of over 2,200 individual persons through its educational ministry in 1991. The missional links between the college and local churches through the Conference helped coordinate its educational ministry with many of these persons. United Methodists should realize the grateful appreciation felt by our students and also the faculty and trustees for SMC's place in the mission of the church.

In implementing its missional ministry, Spartanburg Methodist College served the following types of persons with unique educational programs:

Proud heritage of serving the disadvantaged since 1911

- No student ever denied admission due to lack of funds
- 96 percent of students received some financial aid
- $3.1 million in financial aid provided in 1991 to the needy
- 30 percent of students with family income below federal poverty level
- Very low fees in comparison to other accredited colleges
- In 1991 saved South Carolina taxpayers over $3,000,000 in subsidies required for the same enrollment at a state college

Academic Programs (operating budget of $8,000,000)

- One of the nation's largest 2-year independent colleges
- 83 percent of graduates transfer to a senior college or university
- Flexible schedule for various types of students, including working adults

Students Served in 1991-92

- Over 2,200 different persons served in 1991
- 1,089 were enrolled during fall 1991 semester
- 450 resident students

- 91 percent South Carolinian
- 90 percent work to help pay costs
- 300 working adult students

1991 Church Support for Ministry at SMC

- $486,000 apportioned to churches, with $357,458 paid (74%)
- Each dollar contributed supports
 - 41 cents in financial aid for needy students
 - 8 cents for campus ministry program
 - 19 cents for scholarships to United Methodists
 - 13 cents for prison classes, serving 60 inmates
 - 19 cents for special learning equipment to help disadvantaged students

$20,000,000 Institutional Development Campaign 1991-2000

- College needs $4,000,000 in renovation and new facilities
- College has $6,000,000 less endowment than peer colleges
- College needs $1,000,000 each year in gifts for operations and aid for students

Values of the Institution

- Development of the full person by emphasis on intellectual growth, spiritual development, and motivation to serve humanity
- Emphasis on work ethic: helping people help themselves
- Goal to be the best two year college in America
- College motto: Deus Providet (God provides)

In mission together through Christian higher education, let's build even stronger programs to help persons develop abundant lives. The college appeals to each local church to strengthen three missional links with us: (1) full payment of the SMC apportionment; (2) mission specials from local church groups for helping one of the special needy groups described earlier; (3) encourage United Methodist students to study at a United Methodist college. For your convenience in communication with your campus, use our toll free telephone, 1-800-772-7286.

Nominations: Rev. Roberta Josey, Rev. Willie Wilson, Alternate.

THE BOARD OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY

Consistent with its charge as set forth in the Discipline the Board is divided into committees inclusive of the areas of political and human rights, human welfare, environmental justice and survival, peace and world order and social and economic justice.

The primary work of the Board this year has been in the areas of world peace and order, teen pregnancy, criminal justice, the environment, and dysfunctional families. A convocation entitled Visions of Hope attracted 150 to 175 participants and we were honored with the presence of General Secretary of the General Board of Church and Society, Thom White Wolf Fassett, who was our keynote speaker.

Our Asbury Missionaries project drew teen moms and other teenagers considered in high risk areas over a three day period at Asbury Hills. The Board considered this project a success and has plans to expand the program to Penn Center.

In keeping with our effort to inform the local church of current issues affecting our society between meetings of the Annual Conference through articles in the Advocate, board member Molly Wilkes authored an article on sexual harassment in conjunction with Human Relations Day. Members also supported Mental Health Awareness Month and Literacy Sunday. Plans are currently being made to form a liaison with the Board of Health and Welfare to address issues involving health care delivery to the elderly and the Board desires to lift this area of concern to the Conference in future programming.

Our Conference and the United Methodist Church has a long history and tradition of Christian concern for issues facing our society and has never hesitated to express these concerns even when the issues are controversial. Through prayerful consideration and debate characterized by respect for the positions of our brothers and sisters in Christ, the Board of Church and Society trusts that consideration of the following Resolutions, in the words of our Social Principles will "renew our commitment to become faithful witnesses to the gospel, not alone to the ends of earth, but also to the depths of our common life and work."

Jim Harrison, Chairperson

RESOLUTION ON ISSUES AFFECTING THE LIVES OF CHILDREN

WHEREAS, children are twice as likely to be victims of crime than adults and we see increasing abuse and neglect by those upon whom children are dependent, and

WHEREAS, random and undirected violence by teens against other teens such as drive-by shootings and the possession of handguns and other dangerous weapons are becoming alarmingly frequent in many of our communities, and

WHEREAS, children are virtually assaulted with sex and violence on television, in videos, and in readily available publications, and

WHEREAS, our communities are increasingly susceptible to the formation of youth gangs as a result of idleness, improper motivation and lack of self image among other reasons, and

WHEREAS, we continue to be deeply concerned with teen pregnancy and the spread of the AIDS virus among teenagers, and

WHEREAS, substance abuse and addiction is affecting the lives of younger and younger children each year, and

WHEREAS, children themselves are now having to publicly struggle with such volatile issues as contraceptives in schools as seen in recent broadcast interviews of South Carolina high school students, and

WHEREAS, we now see children joining the ranks of the homeless on the streets of our towns and cities, and

WHEREAS, we recognize that the manner in which we treat our children and the values we teach them by precept and example not only reveal our character as a people but also dictates our destiny as a society,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE 1992 SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE that issues adversely affecting the lives of children are declared to be a primary focus for the United Methodist Church in South Carolina.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that Boards and Agencies of the Annual Conference, consistent with their program responsibilities and mission, are encouraged to focus on such issues as they implement their current program and plan for future programs and events.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that local churches are encouraged to provide creative ministry, resources, advocacy and outreach to the community in an effort to stem the tide of violence and adverse influences which affect the lives of the children of our state.

RESOLUTION ON INFORMATION RIGHTS

WHEREAS, federal regulations prohibit mentioning abortion in federally funded clinics, the so-called "Gag Rule," and

WHEREAS, paragraphs 74(A) and (B) of the 1988 Discipline call for governments to be politically responsible, including the basic right of health care, and "the full and willing participation of its citizens," and

WHEREAS, paragraph 71(G) of the 1988 Discipline states in part, "In continuity with past Christian teaching, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortions, and in such cases support the legal option of abortion under proper medical procedures," and

WHEREAS, paragraph 71(G) of the 1988 Discipline states in part, "Therefore, a decision concerning abortion should be made only after thoughtful and prayerful consideration by the parties involved, with medical, pastoral, and other appropriate counsel," and

WHEREAS, the Gag Rule prohibits full inquiry into all of the possible options in dealing with an unacceptable pregnancy, potentially endangering the emotional or physical life of the mother,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH that we urge federal law makers to repeal the gag rule on information about the option of abortion in federally funded clinics.

RESOLUTION ON THE ECONOMY

WHEREAS, the God of the Bible is interested in the economic well-being of people and demands that the concept of economic justice be a part of any society which God blesses, and,

WHEREAS, Jesus proclaims part of his ministry is "to preach good news to the poor... and to set at liberty those who are oppressed..." and portrayed money as an important way in which individuals and societies can be eternally blessed or condemned, and

WHEREAS, United Methodists have a long history of public witness on the matters of economic justice, and

WHEREAS, unemployment is currently high and tends to increase, sales are alarmingly low, bankruptcies, farm and non-farm residential foreclosures are still increasing, and the imbalance of trade continues to favor imports over exports, and

WHEREAS, the 1988 General Conference of The United Methodist Church in The Book of Resolutions, (p.339) challenges annual conferences, local churches and individuals to a simpler more modest life style, and to bring church and community people together to identify specific economic issues that affect individuals, families and communities, such as plant closing and relocation, deterioration of public education, homelessness and lack of affordable housing, and to respond to the issues through strategies of study, service, advocacy and community economic development,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT LOCAL UNITED METHODIST CHURCHES IN SOUTH CAROLINA WILL DO THE FOLLOWING:

1. In each Sunday's worship pray for the economic situation of the community which the church serves and for the unemployed.
2. Develop liturgies which specifically mention current percentages of unemployment and other economic disadvantages.
3. Develop liturgies where sins of the advantaged can be confessed, options of reparations offered, guilt acknowledged, absolution offered and the forgiveness of God announced.
4. Vote and become involved in the political process.
5. Have a church wide study of the economy to include sponsorship of meetings of church and community people to ascertain the present and future stability of the local economy. Leaders of this forum should include business executives of both large and small businesses, elected officials such as the mayor, and government representatives whose expertise deals with the economy and the welfare of the people.

RESOLUTION ON HEALTH CARE

WHEREAS, healing was an integral part of Jesus' ministry, and

WHEREAS, the United Methodist Church has affirmed in The 1988 Book of Resolutions, (p. 238) "In just society all people are entitled to basic maintenance and health care services," and

WHEREAS, health care has become a national crisis as evidenced by congressional members from our State conducting hearings on the issues, and

WHEREAS, the high cost of health care has denied adequate care and often any care to "the poor and the near poor, most of the elderly, the unemployed, the disabled and those whose care is extremely costly." (The 1988 Book of Resolutions), (p. 238).

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE 1992 SESSION OF THE UNITED METHODIST ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH:

1. Affirms that health care in South Carolina and the United States is in a critical state.
2. Respectfully requests that South Carolina physicians, who see their practices as an extension of Jesus' healing ministry, do the following until the crisis is over:
 - a. accept Medicaid patients
 - b. accept assignment of any Medicare patient who requests it, (i.e., Medicare allowance as payment in full)
 - c. accept as payment in full the Medicare payment for those who have no supplemental policy and who are poor, (i.e., do not ask for the deductible or

- co-payment)
- d. serve those patients who have no means of paying
- 3. Affirms the need to explore comprehensive national health care reform that includes insurance with public financing.

RESOLUTION ON DEATH WITH DIGNITY

WHEREAS, the human body has only a finite capacity for life, and
 WHEREAS, medical science has made progress in treating but often has been unable to cure most terminal conditions, and
 WHEREAS, medical science has been able to extend human life beyond the point where life has meaning for many terminally ill persons, and
 WHEREAS, medical science can sustain persons in permanently comatose and persistent vegetative state for many years, and
 WHEREAS, indefinitely maintaining the life processes of terminally ill, permanently comatose, and persistently vegetative persons is financially, physically, and emotionally destructive to the institutions and families caring for them,
 NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT:

1. We call on all people to become informed on issues of terminally health care and to fill out living wills, advance medical directives, and/or powers of attorney regarding their wishes in the event of terminal or drastic conditions.
2. We call on medical science to focus more on the extension of meaningful life rather than the extension of life in any condition.
3. We call on physicians to refrain from recommending practices that would extend physical existence without extending meaningful life.
4. We call on physicians to treat pain in terminally ill patients as aggressively as possible, including treatments that could shorten a patient's life.
5. We also call for laws permitting euthanasia with the voluntary and informed consent of terminally ill patients or with the voluntary and informed consent of families and legal guardians where the individual is in a permanent coma or persistent vegetative state and such fact is established by the strictest standards of authorized authorities.

RESOLUTION OF RACIAL COOPERATION

WHEREAS, the United States of America is a nation composed of peoples of widely diverse racial and ethnic heritages, and
 WHEREAS, the 1980s were marked by a significant increase in hate crimes, and
 WHEREAS, the 1988 presidential campaign was characterized by thinly-veiled racism, particularly in the form of Willie Horton advertisements, and
 WHEREAS, the 1992 presidential campaign has been marked by barely disguised racism in the issue of immigration, and
 WHEREAS, the "America First" movement and similar nationalistic movements around the world build obstacles to mutually beneficial cooperation across national and often racial lines, and
 WHEREAS, Christianity generally and the United Methodist Church specifically recognizes that the love of God is not affected by racial groupings,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THAT:

1. We condemn all racist statements, disguised or explicit, by any candidate for office, individual, organization, or group, as being sinful.
2. We commit ourselves to include routinely in our regular worship services confessions of our sins of racism and petitions for God to create more loving spirits within us.
3. We pledge ourselves to resist vigorously any racial slur, public or private, serious or seemingly humorous, and to use the opportunity to proclaim the universal love of Jesus Christ.

4. We call on all United Methodist churches in South Carolina to commit themselves to at least one meaningful cross-racial event to build bridges or understanding, trust, and love. These events may include pulpit exchanges, joint services, joint social events, a lecture series on racial inclusiveness, or teamed community service projects.

RESOLUTION ON DISTRIBUTION OF CHURCH AND SOCIETY RESOLUTIONS

Beginning in 1992, and each year thereafter, the South Carolina Annual Conference directs the office of its Bishop to send copies of Church and Society Resolutions which have been adopted by the Conference to: the Governor, each member of the General Assembly, the Congressional delegation of South Carolina, the President of the United States, and other persons to whom the Bishop may deem appropriate.

THE BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Our Board met on February 9, 1991, at Orangeburg Wesley Foundation and on November 9, 1991, in Columbia. Our work was made easier by the dedication of board members and the eagerness of the Rev. Jack Washington, who became our CCOM Staff liaison in mid-year.

Unfortunately, during 1991 our ministry thru Christian higher education suffered an erosion of support. After several years of increased giving through apportionments, receipts declined in 1991. Ongoing ministries offered through our fine colleges and vital Wesley Foundations tend to get lost in the competition for church funds. Decade after decade, our colleges and campus ministers equip young men and women for lives of integrity and character that make a genuine impact for good in our world. We cannot afford to slip in our responsibility to these young adults from our homes and churches across South Carolina. Costs go up! So must our support! It is really a mission we support! We want to expand that mission, not cut back. Churches and pastors are urged to invite a campus minister, a Board member, a college representative or a United Methodist student to help tell this exciting story and to challenge each congregation not to abdicate responsibility for our ministry of Christian higher education.

Support for the Black College Fund is still crucial. After twenty years, our historically black colleges are far more vital and stable because of these funds. The need continues. Support for the Africa University has enabled this dream to become reality.

One board task force, led by Dr. Roosevelt McCollough, has completed revision of the Policy Guidelines for Campus Ministry. Another task force, chaired by Jenny Goodman, has evaluated part-time campus ministry and tried to evaluate a United Methodist presence on the campus of Francis Marion College, and, hopefully, Coastal Carolina. The S.C. Student Convocation, The Summer Investment Program (S.I.P.) and the Sea Island Rural Mission Project annually offer life-changing involvement to college students. In its second year (1992), College Bound will relate opportunities to youth at CCYM events, putting young people and United Methodist Colleges face to face. Another goal is to increase dramatically the percentage of our churches which submit names of high school sophomores and juniors to become part of our recruiting data base through the Youth/College Link-up program.

C. Douglas Lewis, President of Wesley Theological Seminary, spoke at the Emory and Henry College Charter Day Ceremony on March 21, 1991. His remarks remind us all of our heritage as United Methodists, who have established more colleges and universities than any other Protestant denomination in this land.

"We are here today to celebrate and remember the Methodist contribution to higher education, whose roots go back to John Wesley, the founder of Methodism. He was raised in a family that stressed education. John and his brother, Charles, had as one of their central concerns the joining of knowledge and vital piety, that is, depth of character. It is not enough to have intellectual knowledge. The intellect must be grounded in the quality of one's character. Knowledge without character and integrity is a dangerous thing. Character without knowledge can be shallow and unconnected to the world."

CLEMSON WESLEY FOUNDATION/U.M. CAMPUS MINISTRY

The Clemson Wesley Foundation/UM Campus Ministry (CWF/UMCM) is the ministry of the UM Church to UM students, faculty and staff at Clemson University. We strive to be a witness to faith and our Wesleyan heritage in the academic community. Together with the ministry of the Clemson United Methodist Church, we offer a setting in which folk can share and discuss matters of faith in a variety of ways. In worship, in study and in fellowship opportunities we encourage faithful living in the Methodist tradition.

This year our unique relationship with the Clemson UMC has brought richness to our life together. Luncheon celebrations, a Homecoming Sunday reception prior to worship and Exam Care packages (for more than 200 students) are some of the expressions of appreciation CUMC members show for the students in their midst. We are grateful to the leadership and staff and especially the congregation of CUMC for all they do.

Our fall planning retreat at Highlands NC and our traditional white water rafting trip kicked our year into high gear last August. Our Welcome Back Cookout for freshman and returning students got our fellowship off to a rousing start.

Highlights of the 1991-92 year included:

- Everything You Always Wanted to Know About the United Methodist Church But Didn't Know Who to Ask, a question and answer forum for CU students was held on campus in Lee Hall.
- Three local work days including a project at the UM-related Camp Providence and the landscaping of the Wesley Foundation were days well spent in service.
- Wesley Students again led the way for all CU groups raising more than $1200 in the 1991 CROP Walk against Hunger.
- Our Work team in conjunction with the Pickens County Senior Adult program replaced the leaking roof on the home of an elderly needy couple.
- Our participation in the SC Student Convocation and the Sea Islands Mission Project along with one of our students leaders participation in the National UM student forum, kept us in touch with the larger churches commitment to Campus Ministry.
- Our Fall retreat, ski trip, and visits to Atlanta Fulton County Stadium kept our social interaction at a fast pace.

Our regular weekly gatherings included EVENSONG our principle event each Sunday night, our Tuesday night discussion group, our Thursday afternoon Bible Study, and our Bible Stories study (dubbed Remedial Bible 101). Our new game room (with ping pong, pool, darts, and card/game tables) has seen much use this past year. Surprise Birthday parties, a costume extravaganza on All Hallows Eve, and regular movie nights at Wesley make sure our facilities are well used.

Thanks are due to so many for making what we do possible. Kudos to the CUMC, to the Clemson Wesley Foundation Board of Directors, to the South Carolina Conference Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry, to the other full and part time Campus Ministry units around the state, to each local church and pastor who makes campus ministry a priority, and especially to the students of Clemson University whose spirit and faithfulness continues to be a witness to God's reconciling love in Christ Jesus.

Enoch Hendry, Campus Minister

THE COLUMBIA WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Columbia Wesley Foundation in partnership with the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America is known as PALM (Partnership Among Lutheran and Methodists) on the campuses of the University of South Carolina and Columbia College. We seek to witness to the Good News of Jesus Christ by providing opportunities for ministry and mission to, with, and by students, staff and faculty.

The various offerings of our campus ministry change, to some degree, to meet current interests and needs, but a primary focus remains reconciliation — reconciliation between denominations and especially reconciliation between cultural and racial groups. The position of Ethnic Minority Campus, Church, and Community worker has evolved into two part time Campus Ministry Associates. Both associates are African-American, one focusing on ministry at Columbia College and the other tending to USC. Our cooperative agreement with Student Christian Fellowship, an African-American group at USC which shares our building, continues to develop. A joint spring retreat involving the student groups was a highlight in the relationship.

We began several new ventures this year. A group for graduate students and younger university staff meets regularly for fellowship. We initiated and through the Carolina Chaplains' Association have established a monthly faculty/staff luncheon at USC. Additionally, a Discipleship Group for students desiring more intentionality in spiritual growth was organized which in turn spawned a regular service project to the Columbia Bethlehem Center. A Performing Arts Group worked with music and drama to enhance our weekly worship.

The regular fare of activities continues. Weekly Sunday evening worship and dinner, Wednesday table communion, dinner, and program, and daily mid-day prayer are standard. Additionally, we retreated in the fall and spring (Atlanta and Isle of Palms), participated in the Sea Islands Workcamp, S.C. U.M. Student Convocation, and the National United Methodist Student Forum, and provided a number of social opportunities including canoeing trips.

Thanks to all who have encouraged, supported, and recognized the value of campus ministry. Appreciation is expressed to those who serve campus ministry through Conference and local boards. May we continue to make campus ministry a priority in our conference.

THE WINTHROP WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Winthrop Wesley Foundation seeks to bring a broader vision of the global order and a renewed hope that is based on the Resurrection Faith to the fragmented community of Winthrop University. In the face of the many divisions on our campus we have provided both an ecumenical and racially diverse presence that has sought to affirm the inclusive love of God. Attendance at our Wednesday suppers and programs averaged 45 with a range from 30 to 100. We continued to sponsor the CROP Walk in October in which 600 walkers raised over $15,000, an Oxfam Fast in November in which 796 students gave up a meal and raised $900; and a Hunger Run in which 240 runners raised over $2,200.

We took eight persons to the Sea Islands Workcamp for a week in May to help provide more suitable housing; and we conducted two letter writing campaigns in the Dinkins Student Center in support of the "Freedom From Want Act" in which over 400 students wrote their Congressperson. We offered two groups for Bible study, reflection, and group sharing on Monday evenings and midday on Tuesdays which were well-attended. In addition, we had four retreats/conferences that dealt with various spirituality themes and Bible study.

We were able to make the building accessible to handicapped persons and are attempting to provide bath facilities for those in wheelchairs. We have made plans to develop a comprehensive ministry to the children in our neighborhood who live in the Homeless Shelter and the Children's Attention Home to provide academic tutoring and mentoring by volunteer students from Winthrop. We are providing a building next door to Wesley as the site for "Tuesday's Child," a children's learning center jointly sponsored by campus ministry and Pilgrims' Inn.

Risher Brabham, Director

THE ORANGEBURG WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation continues its tradition and legacy of providing Ministry to the communities of South Carolina State College and Claflin College. The Orangeburg Wesley Foundation has a unique and excellent history of providing both college communities with spiritual guidance that cannot be found elsewhere. Consequently, we continue to exploit and capitalize on this great heritage which is very vital to our Ministry.

Our Ministry over the past year has been very fruitful and encouraging in many ways. Ministry and responses from individuals have occurred over the past year that have given us encouragement and hope that God is involved in our work and that this is a crucial work that is needed at this time and place in the life of the South Carolina Annual Conference and the United Methodist Church.

We co-sponsored Religious Emphasis Week at South Carolina State and Claflin Colleges in conjunction with the Campus Ministers at both institutions. The responses were very challenging and gratifying. Our speakers brought dynamic and forceful messages simultaneously offering words of hope. We participated also in our second Clothes Drive, Community Thanksgiving Service and Christmas Candlelighting Service providing items of necessity for the needy and less fortunate of our community. In a time when we are experiencing a recession the cry of the needy is frequently heard loudly. Consequently, there is a great need that our response be a positive one.

Our weekly events that involve students gathering for fellowship with a meal and discussion, Power Hour, counsel to our pre-ministerial students who participate in the Oxford Club continue to be an integral part of our program and Ministry. The said events or gatherings provide a forum and atmosphere for students to share concerns and issues that are vital. Four of our pre-ministerial students visited the Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Georgia for their Convocation of the Ministry in January. In addition, pre-ministerial students were visited by representatives from Duke Divinity School and Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

The Wesley Foundation also sponsored special services during Advent, Lent, Ash Wednesday and Holy Week. These are times of the year when we are reminded of important events in the life of the Christian Church. Therefore, we have responded in ways that are caring, positive and provide spiritual nurture.

Our Annual Student Retreat at Santee State Park and Sea Island Work Mission Project remains an important aspect of our Ministry. We are elated to have students from our campuses involved with other students from around the state and simultaneously building relationships, community and responding to real needs. Through our student work camp projects our students and the recipients are blessed.

The highlight of the year was our Black History Celebration in February. A group called the "Believers" from the Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Georgia did a drama sharing black struggles, faith, hope and beliefs. This event was very moving, informative and conveyed much truth. The community's response was very uplifting and encouraging.

Our Annual United Methodist Youth Day was well attended. Over 1,000 youths and adults came to the Campus, took a tour, enjoyed a lunch, entertainment and a game. Our youth and adults left rejuvenated, excited and rewarded due to the gracious and loving hospitality received.

On behalf of all our students, faculty, staff and administration at Claflin and South Carolina State Colleges, I express gratitude to all United Methodists in South Carolina for making it possible for this Ministry to happen.

Jimmy J. Montgomery, Campus Minister

THE CITADEL WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Citadel Wesley Foundation offers a United Methodist presence on the campus, seeking to be a source of Christian growth and support. The Wesley Foundation endeavors to be a link between cadets and their local churches as well as churches in the Charleston community.

A primary ministry is the Monday evening meeting held in conjunction with the College of Charleston Wesley Foundation. It is held on The Citadel campus and offers a variety of programs and fellowship. Area churches provide refreshments, and some of the local clergy present programs. The average attendance for the 1991-92 school year was 59.

Other activities included our annual September Wesley Foundation Gathering at The Citadel Beach House, featuring lowcountry cooking. About 35 attended. A fall retreat was attended by 23 students and the two campus ministers from The Citadel and the College of Charleston. The State Convocation for Wesley Foundations was attended by 13 students and the two campus ministers.

Ministry on The Citadel campus has included some counseling and participation in various ecumenical activities. Among those this year were The Gathering (worship and fellowship for freshmen and their families) and Religious Emphasis. One of our cadets attended the National Student Leadership Conference. The campus minister participated in regular meetings of The Citadel campus ministers under the direction of the Coordinator of Religious Activities.

A joint project with the College of Charleston group has been agreeing to take part in the Adopt-A-Highway program.

More than 125 cadets, not all United Methodists, have been touched in some way by the Wesley Foundation this year.

As a part-time campus minister with the responsibility of two churches, I wish to express my appreciation to my counterpart at the College of Charleston, Rev. Cindy Karges, for her cooperation in all our joint endeavors. Special thanks are offered to Asbury Memorial and St. James Churches for their assistance, encouragement and patience in sharing their pastor with demands of campus ministry. Gratitude is also given to area pastors who have given their time in presenting programs, and to the community churches which have provided refreshments for our weekly meetings.

James H. Williams, Campus Minister

THE COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON WESLEY FOUNDATION

The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation strives to meet the needs of and encourage the faith development of United Methodist students and their friends. The College of Charleston Wesley Foundation is served by a part-time campus minister.

The primary fellowship group is the Monday evening meeting, which is held jointly with the Citadel Wesley Foundation. Student leadership for this group is divided equally between the campuses. This combined gathering continues to be important to our students, providing them with a forum for discussions of faith issues as well as support and friendships. During the year we have experienced a significant increase in the number of College of Charleston students participating and providing leadership for the Wesley Foundation. We were pleased to have one of our members attend the National Student Leadership Forum.

In the fall, the students participated in a retreat led by the Citadel campus minister and the College of Charleston campus minister. This spring the students and campus minister attended the South Carolina United Methodist student convocation. The Wesley Foundation has also made a commitment to the Adopt-A-Highway program to clean a stretch of highway.

The United Methodist presence continues to be known by our participation in the College of Charleston Religious Life Council. Besides regular meetings of student representatives and the campus ministers, we have participated in Activity Fairs, ecumenical worship services, and Orientation programs. The United Methodist representative has served as Secretary to this interfaith council and the Campus Minister as faculty/staff advisor. One of the most significant events this group has sponsored and planned is the Baccalaureate service of worship held during the Spring commencement weekend.

We wish to thank the South Carolina United Methodist Conference for support of campus ministry for College of Charleston students, faculty and staff. Thank you also to the Rev. Jim Williams, Citadel Campus Minister, for his significant leadership, and to the area churches, whose pastors and members support our program with speakers and refreshments.

Cindy Beasley Karges, Campus Minister

THE FURMAN UNIVERSITY WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation has been one of the more active religious-oriented student groups on the campus of Furman University. The Wesley group is primarily of Methodist background and heritage, yet many students of non-Methodist background are included. We continue to believe that our primary purpose is to be a support group for students away from home. We strive to provide fun and fellowship as well as friends and Christian caring in a setting which encourages personal spiritual growth and development.

The Wesley group has witnessed the stress between our friends in the Baptist student group and we have seen them divided into moderates and conservatives. This has impacted the Wesley group by calling attention to the variety of theological backgrounds among Methodist students. We have attempted to be open and receptive to any student seeking a religious group in which to participate.

The current Wesley group of the school term now ending is almost totally a new group made up of freshmen and sophomores. Most of the active students last year were seniors and graduated and have now gone. The present group is the most open, friendly, and receptive group ever experienced by the present Director. They have been truly fun and joyful to work with. They are strong in faith and in fellowship and yet always open to newcomers. As I anticipate a change of appointment at Annual Conference, I take great pride in passing this Wesley Foundation group to a new director. I am proud of what they have been and done.

They continue to be strong in mission work. They have adopted a new child with Compassion International, have collected for Unicef, worked with Habitat for Humanity, and have done personal sacrifice for World Hunger. They have been active in intramural sports and have actually won several games against larger groups. The Director continues to serve as Methodist Chaplain on campus to be available to any student, any staff member or any faculty member who seeks the presence of a chaplain. I pray God's blessing upon this special group of students and their new Director as they seek to serve our Lord.

Louis D. Jamison, Director

THE MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA WESLEY FOUNDATION

Campus Ministry at the Medical University of South Carolina continues for the third consecutive year through the presence of a part-time campus minister.

The campus minister has made himself available for counseling, has served as representative at the United Methodist Student Loan program and has encouraged students to attend local United Methodist Church services and programs.

Academic pressures are intense and schedules are tight among the professional medical students. This campus minister has found the best time for ministry has been during the lunch hour. A Bible study and fellowship group in cooperation with the Southern Baptist and Presbyterian (USA) campus ministries has functioned for two years involving Medical, Dental, Nursing, Pharmacy, Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy students and faculty.

A promising development in the planning stages is the hiring of a full-time chaplain by the University. It is hoped that this action will further promote ecumenical cooperation and deepen United Methodist involvement on this campus.

Rev. Jimmy Harper, Campus Minister

CLAFLIN COLLEGE

Claflin College's accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools has been reaffirmed until the year 2001. Accreditation by the University Senate and the Black College Fund covers similar years. Claflin is grateful for the financial support from the Annual Conference and the Senior College Fund. Without such generous support accreditations would not have been tenable.

Funds from the Church are used primarily for student scholarships for both the most needed and the scholastic talented. During the 1991-92 school year financial aid was provided an increased number of ministerial students. The department of religion and philosophy led by a full member of the South Carolina Annual Conference is implementing plans to increase significantly graduates who will attend divinity school. In fact, each department seeks to place annually at least one graduate in graduate or professional school.

Activities include extending the Honors Program and successful fundraising which increased the College's endowment in eight years from $1 million dollars to $7 million.

Another highlight was the letting of a contract to erect a building to provide classroom, laboratories, and offices for the departments of communications and business administration.

We have kept the College alive and growing against seemingly insurmountable odds. We have maintained her integrity.

With each passing day, the future of Claflin for posterity is becoming more assured.

Oscar Allan Rogers, Jr., President

COLUMBIA COLLEGE

The 1991-92 academic year has been exciting, productive, and spirit-filled. This Fall 1235 women enrolled, the second highest number in the 138 year history of the College. Our retention rate, one of the best measures of academic effectiveness and student satisfaction, was the highest since we began keeping those statistics three decades ago.

The calibre of student continues to improve in terms of standardized test scores, high school grades, and leadership experiences in school, church, and community. The combination of challenging academic coursework, leadership development, and a strong emphasis on moral and spiritual growth creates a unique environment for Columbia College students to mature into women of substance and integrity.

The most newsworthy event occurred on October 23, 1991 with the ground-breaking ceremony for the Johnnie Cordell Breed Leadership Center. The Leadership Center will be a 30,000 square foot classroom building equipped with cutting edge computer and instructional equipment. The architectural design is very similar to "Old Main" which was destroyed by fire on February 12, 1964. For alumnae and friends, the building represents the best of a proud history and a promising future. As the steel girders go up and the building takes shape, a pervasive sense of anticipation permeates the campus. The building is scheduled for opening in the Spring of 1993.

A generous bequest by First UMC Lancaster philanthropist J. Barnwell Allison enabled us to renovate, remodel, and refurbish several of our buildings. With the addition of the new Breed Center, the Columbia College campus will return to its pre-fire grandeur.

At the ground-breaking, we announced the Columbia College Campaign for Leadership. This $10.5 million, five year capital campaign will provide resources for the new building, programming at the Leadership Institute, endowment growth, scholarships, technological upgrades, and the annual fund. After only 20 months almost $6 million has been raised in gifts and pledges.

The ministry of Chaplain Toni White continues to inspire students, faculty, and staff with her intentional inclusiveness, deep faith, and powerful desire to serve. Toni's spiritual gifts comfort and challenge all of us as we seek to grow in learning, wisdom, faith, and love.

The goal of Columbia College is to be a major force for women, for leadership, for values, for spirituality, and for progressive change in our state and region. The Leadership Institute, the close ties with the Annual Conference, the dedication of faculty and staff, the loyalty of alumnae and friends, and the enthusiasm of students will make our goal a dynamic and meaningful reality.

Dr. Peter T. Mitchell, President

WOFFORD COLLEGE

Wofford College is pleased to report that 1991 was another excellent year.

Our diverse student body maintained its strength when measured academically and numerically. This was made possible by the continued aggressive student financial aid program supported with a combination of college, church, state, federal and private gifts totaling more than $7.1 million. However, a shortage of scholarship funds for worthy students is the college's most urgent need, and it continues to be the highest priority in fund raising activities.

In 1991 Wofford was fortunate to be one of twelve colleges chosen by the Corella and Bertram F. Bonner Foundation of Princeton, NJ to participate in the Bonner Scholars Program. The foundation provided assistance for twenty-five deserving freshmen who are participating in volunteer services as part of their financial aid package. The new program will be phased in over a four-year period by the end of which the Bonner Foundation will provide financial aid annually to nearly 100 students.

The "Twin Towers Project," the college-wide volunteer program coordinated through the chaplain's office, is growing. The student volunteers are making an effort to expand the scope of volunteer projects from those which included youth to programs for the elderly and the homeless. Talmage Skinner, the Chaplain, also sponsored an interim project during January for students exploring the ministry. Ten students of different denominations participated in churches throughout Upstate South Carolina and Georgia.

In September 1991, upperclass women moved into a new dormitory, and students began using our new tennis facilities. Construction was completed on the Franklin W. Olin Building and it was occupied in February, 1992. This building gives Wofford the opportunity to place the latest in technology at the service of those learning in the liberal arts, and it was fully funded by the F.W. Olin Foundation of New York.

The college's financial position remained strong for the 1990-91 year. Wofford's people and programs will benefit from record fund raising in 1991 with over $8.25 million raised from 5800 contributors. These gifts enabled the College to successfully complete the first phase of The Campaign for Wofford, a multi-year effort which secured $33.6 million for college operations, endowment growth, and capital projects. The largest portion of these funds were given to endow scholarships for worthy students.

For this support we are very appreciative. The Wofford share of the South Carolina Conference's Senior College Fund was slightly less than last year, but still provided $302,899. In these difficult economic times we understand "the squeeze on resources," but it is nevertheless painful to see young people who want to attend the college "squeezed out" for financial reasons.

Funding reports are important because of what they make possible for students. Wofford remains committed to offering a superb educational experience in the liberal arts to qualified students of this region regardless of economic circumstances. Doing so requires that we seek increased scholarship assistance and teaching support. Advocacy by United Methodists in our state for the South Carolina Tuition Grant Program is vital to continuing the assistance for students seeking an education at Wofford or one of the other independent colleges. We all must work toward the goal that no student will be unable to consider our colleges for financial reasons.

In summary, Wofford had a very productive year in 1991. Enrollment remained steady, faculty and staff morale was high, and the college occupied new and improved facilities. Wofford is proud of its relationship with the United Methodist Church and is prepared to face the challenges of the future secure in its position as an outstanding liberal arts college operating within the Christian tradition. We will work to make it affordable to those who can benefit from its resources. We thank you for your faithful support.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE

As United Methodists we are called to a ministry of health and wholeness. Christians trace their concern for helping and healing directly to the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. Institutional ministries date back to the middle ages when religious orders maintained "hospics" and hospitals.

In current times there have been efforts to express the rationale or theological base for ministries in health and welfare. We welcome the opportunity to share with the annual conference the mission that the Board of Health and Welfare has been undertaking this past year. These have been made possible through the faithful support of local congregations from across the conference and we are grateful for your faithfulness.

Golden Cross is a quiet ministry that does a lot, but is not always noticed. Because of your gifts to Golden Cross, eleven nursing scholarships totaling $5,100 were awarded on the basis of need and merit. Twenty-five families received medical crisis assistance totaling $10,350. We were able to maintain and insure homes occupied by retired ministers and held by the Board.

We continue to affirm the strong and positive relationship that we share with the Methodist Home in Orangeburg, the Greenwood Methodist Home and the Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee. We also commend the splendid leadership provided by Rev. C. Burton Sheffield, Dr. Ted R. Morton and Mr. E.W. (Bert) Mask in their respective positions at these fine facilities. Each of these homes received a $10,000 grant from Golden Cross as one of our priorities to strengthen the relationship between the Homes and the Board of Health and Welfare ministries. This will also be beneficial in helping to ascertain needs of the elderly as we strive to bring about wholeness in a more healthy environment.

I would be remiss if I did not thank the Board Chairperson, Mrs. Martha G. Alewine, and all the members for their faithful and dedicated service rendered over the past year. Health and Welfare Board members are some of the most understanding and caring persons that I have ever known.

These are challenging days in which we live and demands are made on our time, talents and resources. We are extremely grateful for the excellent support and cooperation we have received from United Methodists throughout this annual conference. We look forward to working with you as God continues to guide the ministry of Health and Welfare as we continue to offer Christian care and concern for our children, families and the elderly in the next quadrennium.

Jack C. Washington

GREENWOOD METHODIST HOME

This is the twenty-fourth annual report of Greenwood Methodist Home to the South Carolina Annual Conference. We appreciate the opportunity to share with you this report on our ministry during the past year.

During 1991 we served a grand total of 291 persons. This number includes 133 residents who required the services of the Health Center, and 158 residents who lived independently in the various housing facilities of our Heritage Hills Retirement Community. Our admissions for the year totaled 47, including 35 Health Center admissions and 12 Heritage Hills admissions. Discharges in the same period were 49. The residents discharged included 25 deaths in the Health Center and 10 discharges to other locations. Our Heritage Hills discharges included 6 deaths and 8 transfers to the Health Center.

As our "continuum of care" operated throughout the year, there was an obvious movement of residents between the numerous housing units and levels of care: some residents move to the Health Center as their health care needs increase with age, some move to the Heritage House building for its greater convenience in getting to meals and activities, and from time to time, a resident will return to his/her residence after a stay in the Health Center. Some of this movement has demonstrated how very much we need to add some additional services such as Personal Care or Assisted Living; perhaps in due course, we can provide some specialized services for persons with Alzheimer's.

With these needs in mind, we have begun outlining our plans for the next five years. It is our hope that a well-crafted "Strategic Plan" will guide in planning for needed services, identify facility and staff requirements, and create insights that will assist in generating the funds to meet the costs. We have been working quietly to secure funds that will assist in meeting the costs associated with planning. Additionally, we must secure the dollars that are required to retire the remaining debt on the Heritage House building ($3.25 million as this report was written). By July first, we will make the first payment on the principal of the debt, reducing the balance owed by $550,000. These scheduled payments of a half million dollars each will continue in 1993 and 1994, after which time we begin reducing the remaining $1.6 million with scheduled payments on interest and principal.

Our work this year has reached well beyond our own campus, however. We made numerous visits to churches to tell the story of our ministry to the aging. We have participated in the work of our SC Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging in which we hold membership. It was a busy year for SCANPHA as the new State Continuing Care Retirement Community Act was implemented and the Department of Consumer Affairs began to create the Regulation to administer the Act. Even our residents participated in this process, journeying to Columbia on December 6 for a "public hearing" on the proposed Regulation.

Hardly had we arrived at a reasonable "comfort level" with the proposed new Regulation before we were caught up in the General Assembly's search for new taxes. As of this writing, we were not certain of the outcome of a proposed "nursing home bed tax," but if it is approved, it will add nearly $1,200 each year to every Health Center resident's cost of care. It is a complex issue, but we hope it will be resolved with the recognition that the frail elderly who have no alternative to nursing home care do not need the burden of another tax to pay.

We welcomed the addition of The Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee to our ranks this November. Orangeburg, Florence and Greenwood all have excellent facilities and offer good care and service to those persons who elect to become our residents. The numbers are increasing, and we need the continued support of every local Church in South Carolina Methodism if we are to be adequate for the tasks we face in the decade ahead. We thank you for your "Support Fund" gifts and urge you to strive for a 100% payment; if you are not "on the team," we encourage you to join us! Visit our booth at the Annual Conference Session, come see us during the year, and invite us to visit with you in your church.

Michael L. Guffee, Chairman, Board of Trustees
Ted R. Morton, Jr., President of the Home

THE METHODIST HOME — ORANGEBURG

During the late forties several people had a dream of a home for our aging adults in South Carolina. One person who followed this dream was the late J.F.M. Hoffmeyer who saw the dream become a reality with the purchase of the old Army Air Corp base, Hawthorne Field in Orangeburg, which became The Methodist Home.

Later a dream of the sixties became a reality with the founding of the Greenwood Methodist Home in 1967. Then, with the opening of the United Methodist Manor of the Pee Dee in 1991-92, another dream became a reality.

For many years the residents of The Methodist Home-Orangeburg have dreamed and prayed for a chapel. On April 13, 1992, Bishop Joseph B. Bethea dedicated the Nancy Freeman Stringer Memorial Chapel. It was a glorious day; it was a day for singing the Doxology. Many of our loved ones who worked so diligently for this day have already gone on, but we are sure they are singing the Doxology in Heaven.

The Methodist Home-Orangeburg opened its new subdivision, The French Quarter, where thirty-one cottages will be built. Already we have three families living in their new homes; three more cottages are under construction.

The federal and state governments continue to do less and less for our older adults and are placing tremendous burdens on the providers. You, as United Methodists, must help your Methodist Homes to continue to operate without undue burdens and taxes.

During 1991, sixty-four of our residents/patients were helped to live peaceful, dignified lives without undue worry because of The Methodist Home Support Fund. On their behalf, we thank you and are grateful for this assistance.

May God bless us all!

C. Burton Sheffield, Executive Director
W. Robert Morris, Chairman

THE METHODIST MANOR OF THE PEE DEE

The Methodist Manor officially opened on December 2, 1991. Construction had been completed on two wings of apartments and the first floor of the Assisted Living wing. Apartment residents began moving in during December. Even though construction delays caused us to open more than two months later than was planned, The Manor still got off to a good start. The Assisted Living wing was licensed for twenty-nine beds on December 19, 1991, and we began admitting residents the following week.

Although December was a slow month because of the Christmas holiday season, January began with a lot of activity. In addition to residents continuing to move in, all department heads and staff were in place and trained in order to provide residents with the promised programs and services. All staff has participated in facility and management orientation programs; safety and evacuation training; and cardio-pulmonary resuscitation and first aid training. An ongoing in-service program is in progress for all departments.

The Manor sponsored four Grand Opening Events that attracted an estimated 1,140 persons. These events were:

Initial response from those attending was extremely positive. These events generated many good leads on prospective residents. Some have already made the decision to move into The Manor, while others continue to be good future prospective residents. By the end of March 1992 we had 37 residents living in 30 apartments and two residents living in two Assisted Living rooms.

Environmental Services is reviewing proposed contractual services for those areas requiring oversight: elevators, mechanical systems, landscape, monitoring systems, and kitchen equipment. The elevators, mechanical monitoring systems are currently under warranty. Maintenance contracts will come in as the warranties expire. The landscape maintenance contract is already in effect.

Wise Construction handed over most of the equipment and operating systems maintenance manuals. Environmental Services will produce a preventative maintenance schedule to include weekly, monthly, and annual maintenance as needed.

Environmental Services and Safety is working with the local Fire Chief to assure good communication between the Fire Department and The Manor in the event of a fire or other disaster. The Assistant Fire Chief participated in a recent fire drill for the purpose of reviewing and commenting on the procedure. He has also reviewed the Emergency Procedure Handbook, and stated that it was an excellent manual that should serve The Manor well.

A financial accounting system with detailed procedures is in place and operating within the framework of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Banyan Retirement Services uses a fully-computerized accounting system which has been tailored to the specific needs of retirement facilities. A complete and current financial report will be provided to the Board separate from this report.

Banyan, in cooperation with the Board's Executive Committee, has drafted a procedure to assure proper accounting and acknowledgement of all gifts, donations and memorials to The Manor from groups and individuals. It will be presented to the Board for its consideration.

A full range of resident programs are in place to address the physical, spiritual, social, intellectual, and emotional needs of residents. Resident preferences regarding activities have been solicited and incorporated into the program.

The Manor's van has begun serving the residents for shopping trips, doctors' appointments, bank visits, and other transportation needs. As the facility's population grows, Sunday church transportation will be provided, along with day trips and weekend excursions.

The Hair Care Shoppe and Sundry Shoppe are both operating on a limited basis, but are doing well. Residents have responded well to the beautician. The Sundry Shoppe is operated by Rite-Aide out of Darlington. It not only provides Sundry items, but offers a convenient one day turn-around service for residents' prescription drug needs.

Response to the quality of food served has been generally positive. As is true with any new facility, the Dining Services Director must learn the food selection/preparation preferences of the residents. Abel Martinez, the Dining Services Director, seems especially adept at listening and learning.

The Assisted Living Center is state licensed and has passed its state inspections with only minimal comments for corrective action. Substantial in-service training has been completed by the Director. We are currently devoting major effort to increasing the resident population.

We have submitted an application to the Department of Health and Environmental Control to open and operate a 22-bed skilled nursing infirmary. The second floor of the Assisted Living wing is being converted, at a modest cost, into a nursing facility. This would allow us to serve residents who are currently independent but who may need skilled nursing care at some time in the future.

The operations are running smoothly. Staff and residents have adjusted well and are enthusiastic about The Manor.

EPWORTH CHILDREN'S HOME

In the Wesleyan tradition, Epworth continues to care for orphaned, neglected and abused children. More than ninety-six years ago, South Carolina Methodists recognized an obligation to care for displaced, destitute, orphaned and neglected children. Through a range of services, with emphasis on family rehabilitation, Epworth continues to carry out this mission.

The needs of children for love, security and guidance remain constant, but ways to serve them have changed greatly. Children today are greatly troubled, perhaps more than in the history of our nation. As Charles Hutchins and Tom Brittain have spoken to many church groups, they find that people are more aware of the troubled lives of today's children, and discussions of special help for them are now well received. Unfortunately, many of the children referred to Epworth are already in late adolescence and are very difficult to change. The focus of the new unit will be on younger children, where our success should be even greater.

During this past year, 556 referrals were processed and 142 children were admitted into group and family care services. A total of 53,412 days of care were provided. In some way, Epworth has touched the lives of more than 1300 families through programs such as residential group care, foster family care, intensive care, higher education, family preservation, family counseling and mental retardation services.

Epworth's services have received reaccreditation by the Council on Accreditation and holds full membership in the Child Welfare League of America, the only church-related agency in South Carolina with such a distinction.

We hope to have the new Intensive Care (Special Care) facility operating before the next meeting of this Annual Conference. Finding needed funds to remodel this existing unit has been a factor in the progress of the project. We are still seeking funds to meet the projected cost of $950,000.

We continue to ask for help in identifying houseparents or houseparent counselors for the residential care program. These are the persons who nurture and guide the children on a twenty-four hour basis.

Epworth has been helping youngsters and their families to stay together and has worked to reunite broken families long before there was a national emphasis on family preservation. This has been one of our most successful programs.

The Compensatory Education program now serves approximately fifty boys and girls in classes on campus. These are children who have a difficult time in the educational process. A very fine, stable staff is producing encouraging results. This program is funded entirely by Epworth and is accredited by the Southern Association.

The long range goal to establish offices and emergency shelters at strategic places throughout the state awaits necessary funding. We look forward to the day when Epworth's services can be closer to the persons in need.

It is the right of children to live in well-maintained, attractive housing, and the Epworth grounds are being constantly improved. We are grateful to Trustee Robert Sansbury and other friends from Myrtle Beach for covering and heating the campus swimming pool. New carpet has been laid in the sanctuary of Epworth Memorial Church and the Williams Brice Activities Center has a new roof.

First Sunday, Mother's Day and Work Day offerings are vital to the Epworth ministry, providing approximately 28 percent of the operating budget. We continue to be "the church without apology" and the commitment of United Methodists in South Carolina to children, youth and families is vital to our support. Without strong church support, Epworth would be in a serious financial situation. We urge every pastor to be diligent about taking the offerings in every church to assure Epworth's sound financial base. More importantly, let us never be in a position of saying "no" to a child who is hurting because we have not been hard at work to meet their needs. The Board of Trustees continues to be committed to providing as much service to as many children as our supporters will underwrite. Our goal for Conference support is $4.00 per member. The average gift in 1992 was $2.82 per member.

A number of groups within the churches have been involved in special projects, which have greatly assisted our work, especially at Christmastime. We are grateful to the United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, Church School classes and youth groups whose gifts have been of immeasurable value.

We look forward to working with you as God continues to guide the ministry of Epworth Children's Home through this decade and into the next century.

THE COMMISSION ON CHRISTIAN UNITY AND INTERRELIGIOUS CONCERNS

During 1991-92, one of the biggest challenges facing our commission was to understand our purpose and validity as part of the Conference Council on Ministries team. Many people raise the questions of why we should have such a commission and particularly as Christians, why we should have any interreligious focus.

As part of my report to the Annual Conference, I feel it is important to address these questions. There are several reasons for seeking unity: unity is biblically grounded, it is part of our tradition, it makes good common sense, and it "feels right." In John 17:20-23, Jesus prays for believers, "that they may be one, so that the world may believe that [God] sent [Jesus] and [God] loved them even as [God] loved [Jesus]." [Brackets indicate change from pronouns used in verse.] Thus, unity is our most effective tool in missions and evangelism. Unity means that when we see things differently because of our individual unique views, we are able to disagree, yet respect each others' differences. We are able to be challenged, to grow, to change, yet always seek God's way above all else.

Our interreligious focus comes out of God calling us to love our neighbors as ourselves (Luke 10:27). Our neighbors include persons of other faiths who live in our communities. We ourselves want freedom to worship as we are led, as well as freedom to interact and work within the community. We extend these privileges to our neighbors. We also have an interreligious focus because our faith is in the God who made, and watches over and cares for all creation. Lastly, world events demand that we seek to understand and get along with persons of all faiths.

We learned in our searching that our task is vital and very important. Now the challenge before the commission is to share this vitality and ministry mandate with local congregations and communities. We hope to do this next year, by placing a greater emphasis on the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (January 18-25).

At the 1991 CUIIC breakfast, the Rev. James E. Hunter, III spoke on "The Church in Eastern Europe." There were 63 people who attended (down from our attendance at the breakfast the year before — possibly due to the increased cost of the meal ticket).

We are having difficulty in getting the four area unity conferences prepared and ready. We hope to implement these during the fall.

I have learned much during my eight years of service on the commission. I am grateful for those commission members who served so faithfully on this commission which few people understand or appreciate. Thank you, members of the Annual Conference, for electing me to serve as chairperson of this commission the last four years. This opportunity has brought me new growth which I will always value and celebrate.

Nellie C. Gray Cloninger, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

Our Commission completes its quadrennial work with a commitment to provide information designed to enhance mutual support within our annual conference with concern for inclusiveness and equity for all persons and in all areas of our life together.

Our Commission is divided into working committees which meet regularly and work at fleshing out ideas, inherited and new. Presently, a committee is working on determining minority presence and participation in camps and retreats of the conference; another committee is seeking ways to improve local church involvement in the celebration of Continuing Journey Sunday. Yet another committee is working with the National Division of Project Equality to compile statistics of equal opportunity employment at all levels in some of our own United Methodist institutions in the state. We have been pleased with employment audits completed for Wofford and Columbia College and count the information garnered as quite valuable to our annual conference.

We have resubmitted our proposal to the CCOM, along with the Commission on the Status and Role of Women, which establishes an award to be presented each year to one person of the South Carolina Conference who has built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness for all persons without regard to race, gender, age, handicap, or economic condition. The award is named "The Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridge Builder Award" and will be presented for the third time at Annual Conference 1992.

We have a program designed to enable our commission to interview local church clergy and lay persons concerning our 1972 conference merger and to record perceptions of where we are today as United Methodists in South Carolina. Mrs. Maggie Pasley chairs this committee. The compilation of our findings with this History/Listening project is anticipated at this 1992 annual conference session.

This Commission's proposals for 1993 include a workshop event modeled after the bridge building work of our conference's United Methodist Women. This is to be a conference-wide all-inclusive event of sharing on race relations in the church and in our state. This intentional "bringing together" is another way in which the Commission seeks further healing in our "continued journey" together in the South Carolina Annual Conference.

Debra A.S. Quilling, Chairperson

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS AND ROLE OF WOMEN

1992 marks the twentieth anniversary of the establishment of the Commission on the Status and Role of Women in the United Methodist Church. There is much our Annual Conference can celebrate from those twenty years:

- the ordination of over eighty women to ministry in our church;
- the increased number of women in leadership positions on Conference commissions, boards, and agencies (most visibly two laywomen serving as Chairperson of the Conference Council on Ministries, a female district superintendent, and a female Director of the Conference Council on Ministries);
- Women in the Pulpit Sunday being observed by over 75% of our congregations annually;
- the establishment of the Bessie Parker Memorial Scholarship Fund, which has provided scholarships for five seminarians since 1987;
- the establishment of the Barbara Boultinghouse Bridge Builder Award;
- and many other instances of men and women offering service in the name of Christ in ways unimaginable twenty years ago.

Looking back over these twenty years, our Annual Conference is much more inclusive with regard to women than it was in 1972. The Commission gives thanks to the many men and women who have worked to make the United Methodist Church in South Carolina more open to the gifts of God offered by women.

One program the Commission co-sponsors with the Commission on Religion and Race to promote inclusiveness in our Annual Conference is the Barbara Boultinghouse Memorial Bridge Builder Award. This award, named after a deaconess who served in South Carolina for over twenty years, is presented annually to a person who has built bridges of understanding by promoting equity and inclusiveness of all persons. We were pleased to present the award in 1991 to Carlene Triplett. Ms. Triplett demonstrated Christ's reconciling work as a church and community worker in our Conference. Most recently she worked with the Bennettsville-Cheraw Area Group Ministry program for six years.

The Conference Commission also seeks to serve as a link between the General Commission and the local church. To accomplish this goal, members have led Church Leadership Orientation Workshops in districts that have requested them. The Commission also published a newsletter that is distributed to pastors and local church chairpersons on status and role of women. Themes in 1991 were "In a Manner of Speaking: Language, Thought, and Social Justice" and monitoring women in leadership positions in the local church.

A third program the Commission sponsors is Women in the Pulpit Sunday. We believe that this special observance on the local church level has helped to increase the acceptance and support of women in both lay and ordained ministry. We rejoice that some churches who would not have considered a woman as a preacher twenty years ago are now very supportive of their own female pastor. However, there are still many persons in our churches who have not heard the word of God preached by a woman. Therefore, the need still exists for this opportunity to hear the word of God spoken "in a different voice."

Despite the great progress made in our churches regarding the acceptance of clergywomen, inequities in salary exist between men and women clergy in our Annual Conference. The Rev. Paul Wood, at the request of the Commission, completed a study in May 1991 that considered the salaries of the 54 clergywomen and 201 clergymen with comparable years of service (seventeen years or less) in the Conference. It showed that as of January 1, 1991, women received on average $1675 less than men ($27,323 vs $28,998). It also revealed that a "glass ceiling," or invisible salary barrier, exists in our conference. Thirteen percent (13%) of the men in the study group made between $35,001 and $50,000, whereas no woman was in this salary range. The Commission plans to continue to monitor this issue in the next quadrennium and to advocate for equitable compensation for men and women.

In all its work, the Commission on the Status and Role of Women seeks to enable the church's continuing commitment to the full participation of women in the total life of the church. Our hope is to be witness to the liberating message of Jesus Christ that recognizes every person, woman or man, as a full and equal member of God's human family.

THE COMMITTEE ON CAREER PLANNING AND COUNSELING

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is pleased to present the following report on its activities for 1991 and its plans for 1992.

This committee is charged with providing a workshop called "Discovering Careers." This workshop, designed as a one-day experience (but adaptable in length and content) in career/life planning has provided both young people and adults with tools in career planning, mid-life career change and career planning issues. The participants also have follow-up career counseling available to them after the workshop, with some of the counseling for ministers being partially financed through the Committee's allotted funds by the Annual Conference. The "Discovering Careers" workshop will be more intensively promoted during 1992. The workshop can be a wonderful program for part or all of a meeting of many groups in local churches and Annual Conference organizations and institutions. During October 1991 a workshop was held to train additional persons to lead "Discovering Careers" workshops as requests are received for these events. A similar event is planned for 1992.

The Career Planning Committee is also focused upon the encouragement of persons toward choosing careers in ordained clergy, diaconal ministers and other Christian vocational personnel.

One of the most important means of encouragement of persons toward ministry has been the establishment of the Office of Christian Vocations. This Office is composed of four part-time Christian Vocational Counselors placed throughout the Annual Conference. The Christian Vocational Counselors are:

- The Rev. Clarence "Smoke" Kanipe — Anderson, Greenville, Greenwood & Spartanburg Districts' Counselor
- The Rev. Larry McCutcheon — Florence, Hartsville, Marion & Rock Hill Districts' Counselor
- The Rev. Elizabeth Burgess Drennan — Charleston, Columbia, Orangeburg & Walterboro Districts' Counselor
- Mrs. Jacqueline Carter-Harris — Lay Vocations Specialist & Assistant in Orangeburg, Columbia & Rock Hill Districts.

These persons are available to meet with conference and district groups of clergy and laypersons, local churches and individuals who are interested in the encouragement of persons for service in ordained, diaconal and other ministries. These Counselors are available to meet and counsel persons who are contemplating entrance into a field of ministry. The counselors have been trained in three settings by General Church and Annual Conference leadership. We are very excited about their commitment to this significant ministry in the church.

A Long-Term Plan of Enlistment for Christian Ministry and Vocations was approved at Annual Conference last year. This plan is currently being implemented and will continue to be carried out for the next four years.

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling has been extensively involved in the execution of the Bishop's Plan of Identifying and Enlisting for Ministry. This is an intensive program sponsored by Bishop Joseph B. Bethea, Columbia College and our Committee. The plan was supported financially in its first year by a grant from the National United Methodist Foundation. It has consisted of four components — Bishop's Convocation on Enlistment for Ministry (held at Shandon Church, Columbia in September 1990), District Follow-Up Meetings (held during Fall/Winter 1990-91), Retreat I for Persons Interested in Ministry (held at Columbia College in May 1991) & Annual Follow-Up Retreats at other United Methodist Campuses. The 1992 Bishop's Retreat for Persons Exploring Ministry was held at Claflin College and the 1993 event will be held at Spartanburg Methodist College.

The Committee on Enlistment has started planning including financial support of persons who desire to attend "Exploration '92" to be held in Louisville in November 1992. Twenty-five persons from South Carolina were deeply motivated about ministry as a possible direction for their lives at the last national enlistment convocation. The Long-Term Enlistment Plan calls for a goal of 40 persons to attend this year's event.

An annual workshop for ministers to reaffirm their call or assist them in exiting their work led by Dr. Larry Salters was held in 1991. This workshop includes both group and individual counseling. Dr. Salters is available for the individual career counseling of Annual Conference members.

The Committee on Career Planning and Counseling is most excited about the efforts it is making in career planning. We are deeply appreciative of the support of Bishop Joseph Bethea and his assistant, Hazel Colcock, and the Conference Council on Ministries' staff, especially Doris Chambers and the Reverend Dr. Lemuel C. Carter. Everyone is invited to participate in the enlistment and career planning efforts which are offered for the benefit and strengthening of Christ's work through the South Carolina Annual Conference.

David C. Surrent, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON PASTORAL CARE AND COUNSELING

The Committee on Pastoral Care and Counseling has a primary responsibility to address personal and family needs of clergy, both ordained and diaconal. We have done that this year through the Council on Ministries' programs: The Fee Supplement Program, The Annual Networking Meeting of Pastoral Counseling Centers and the Executive Committee of CCPCC, and the Bishop's Retreat for Ministers and Spouses. We have also developed three Marriage Enrichment Events for Clergy and Spouses to be offered later in the year.

The Committee would like to give special thanks to the outstanding persons who serve us as Pastoral Counseling Center Directors. They are a special group of persons who continue to be missional with their lives. Below is a list of the approved centers and a short summary of their activities for the year:

- a. Charleston District Pastoral Counseling Center
Bethany and John Wesley UMC
Dr. A.C. Holler, Co-Director

30 clients seen, 204 sessions held, $5,297.50 supplement received
- f. Saluda Psychological Services Center
120 Saluda St., Rock Hill, SC 29731
Rev. Guy Shealy, Director
5 clients seen, 102 sessions held, $3,070.00 supplement received
- g. Spartanburg Pastoral Counseling Service
109 Kent Place, P.O. Box 5471, Spartanburg, SC 29304
Dr. Mitch Kyllonen, Director
24 clients seen, 157 sessions held, $5,890.00 supplement received

The committee also has a representative to the Disaster Response and the Ethnic Minority Concerns Committees.

For information relating to the historical development and the guidelines for the network of pastors and care servers and this committee see: 1984 South Carolina Conference Journal pp. 282-284 and 1986 South Carolina Conference Journal pp. 251-252.

Robert J. Norris, Chairperson

THE COMMITTEE ON CONGREGATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, REDEVELOPMENT AND REVITALIZATION

The compulsion for church development, redevelopment, and revitalization issues from Biblical and theological foundations. Jürgen Moltmann said in his Church in the Power of the Spirit, "...not that the church 'has' a mission, but the very reverse: that the mission of Christ creates its own church." Again he said, "The real point is not to spread the church but to spread the kingdom. The goal is not the glorification of the church but the glorification of the Father through the Son in the Holy Spirit."

If this motivation seeks to glorify God, its direction is toward the world in which it serves. Among the forces that impact churches the most is change in population patterns. Efforts in church development, redevelopment, and revitalization address that reality. The church goes where persons are and initiates its ministry. With all the transition around us, we can no longer behave as if everything has remained constant.

Most members of inner city churches drive in from outlying communities. Yet, these churches often do not minister to persons right at their door. As a result, many such churches have experienced severe decline and face death. Churches in the outer ring of our cities face the same problems. New persons have moved into the communities, and the church has not reached out in love and service.

Land prices are high in the suburbs and the establishment of new congregations is financially difficult. Yet, it is here that the largest population growth is occurring.

Small towns and rural areas have, and continue to, experience decline. Often the survival of churches becomes an issue. Yet, the membership backbone of our Conference has been in these small towns and rural areas.

We must develop strategies that deal with these population shifts. New churches must be initiated in areas of significant population growth. Churches in transitional areas need help in changing their enlisting identity and ministries for the new residents.

Models of vitalization can encourage small town and rural churches. Even in areas of population decline many are unchurched, and churches there can have a vital ministry.

Everything we do must advance this mandate. This includes Conference and District structures, the one million dollar line item, and functional strategies. We respond to God's call and the beckoning of opportunity.

THE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN 1991

With the theme "Witnesses for a New World," South Carolina United Methodist Women continued serving their neighbors, praying, studying, growing as Christians in a fast-changing world, and finding ways to be in mission through the "Campaign for Children."

Listed below in chronological order are the events sponsored by the Conference United Methodist Women during 1991:

February	Under-40 Event. Attendance: 149
March	Leadership Development Workshop by Women's Division Team for Conference Executive Committee
April	Legislative Seminar. Attendance: 230
May	Spiritual Growth Retreat. Attendance: 1,465
June	South Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission. South Carolina Conference hosted 330 from 16 conferences at Spartanburg Methodist College.
August	S.C. School of Christian Mission. Attendance: 390
August	Appalachian Mission Trip. Twenty-four visited Hinton Rural Life Center, Henderson Settlement, Red Bird Mission and Brooks-Howell Home
October	Annual Meeting at St. John's UMC, Anderson. Attendance: 402; Joyce Sohl, Deputy General Secretary of the Women's Division, General Board of Global Ministries, was the keynote speaker.

November Officer Training Day for District Officers. Attendance: 171

November Retreat for Executive Committee

Five (of twelve) Person-to-Person Workshops. Attendance: 278. These workshops on inclusiveness are being presented in each district. The remaining seven districts will hold the workshop in 1992.

Two (of four) Local Leadership Development Workshops. Attendance: 255. Three districts are invited to each of these four workshops designed for local UMW members. The other two workshops are being held in 1992.

In 1991 United Methodist Women gave $545,328.08 to mission through their Conference Treasurer. Pastors reported $637,188.00 given for "Local and Community Work."

Membership stands at 31613 in 877 local units. The goal is an active unit in each local church.

It is a joy to work with the committed and loving women who comprise the membership of United Methodist Women.

Harriet A. Mays, President

THE UNITED METHODIST MEN

The United Methodist Men of South Carolina are striving to be a vital part of the life of the church in our conference. We had over 300 chartered units at the end of 1991.

We are trying to carry out and participate in a variety of programs. We continue to promote scouting (both boys and girls) as a part of the educational program of the church, and have qualified 9 units for the Bishop's Award of Excellence. We conducted the Fourth Religious Scouting Encampment with 95 participants.

Our United Methodist Men's Congress, held in the Fall at Springmaid Beach, continues to give us a method whereby we can reach out to our members, as 212 men and their wives participated this year. We undertook a session of handling remote calls for the Living Prayer Center during the Congress, and during the year we contributed over $2,000.00 to the ongoing support of this Upper Room project.

We are continuing to raise funds so that we may make our own contribution to housing for a disadvantaged family within the conference.

Harry Kent, President

THE CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY

Many exciting events took place in the life of the youth in the South Carolina Annual Conference during 1991. These events are effective because of the number of committed persons in Youth Ministry across this Conference. This team of youth and adults work together, often for long hours, to plan and implement the programs of the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. We are indeed indebted to these wonderful people who give of their time and their talent to enable the South Carolina Conference to be in Youth Ministry.

Four Spiritual Life Retreats were held during 1991 with approximately 2,000 youth attending. The retreat leaders for these retreats were: Duffy Robbins, Judith Barr, James King, and Kent Kilbourne. These retreats continue to grow each year and more and more churches are taking the opportunity to be a part of these Spiritual Life Retreats.

The Youth Rally was held at Claflin College in April of 1991 with 300 Youth present plus the Conference Leadership. The Rev. Lee Bines was the keynote speaker for the closing worship. We deeply appreciate the staff of Claflin College who work with the CCYM to put together the Youth Rally.

Basketball continues to be an important part in the lives of the youth across our state. Approximately 1,500 youth plus families and church members are involved in the Basketball Tournaments each year. The state final for 1991 was played at Trenholm Road UMC in Columbia. The highlight of the tournament continues to be the giving of the Sportsmanship Trophy. In 1991 this was given to Buncombe Street UMC. Our deep appreciation to Steve Vaughan who coordinates the Tournaments and to all of the Area Coordinators.

Youth Annual Conference is the time for electing Officers and Youth Service Fund projects. Officers elected for 1991/1992 are: Trisha Watson, Chair; Kalisha Tarrance, V. Chair; Scott Hazle, Secretary; Denise Haigood, YSF Chair; Emily Sears, Project Review Chair; and Chad Alexander, Communications Chair. During YAC, Youth addressed environmental issues and focused on "Getting into the Bible."

Youth are involved in Bible Study and skill workshops during Leadership Week. These skill workshops enable youth to return to their local churches to be more effective as leaders. A highlight of this week is the community that is developed among the youth and leaders.

One of the most effective programs for the CCYM is the Conference Youth Choir. Youth from across South Carolina learn a musical and then tour South Carolina performing in churches and at Mission projects. These 40 youth and adult leaders witness to thousands of persons during this tour. These teenagers learn valuable living skills during these two weeks together.

The Adult Workers Weekend for 1991 was held at Mt. Hebron UMC in Columbia. Houston McMillion, a reality therapist, was the keynote speaker. Skill workshops are provided for the adult workers in attendance. This weekend gives adult workers the opportunity to network and to hear about effective programs happening across our conference.

A group of 78 youth and adults attended the National Youth event "YOUTH '91" held in Columbia, Missouri. This was an outstanding event for youth from around the world. Paul Frey and June Willson served on the Design Team for this event.

The members of the CCYM express to the South Carolina Annual Conference their deep appreciation for the opportunity to be in ministry through the Conference Council on Youth Ministry.

THE ETHNIC MINORITY LOCAL CHURCH CONCERNS COMMITTEE

The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee continues to seek and plot out strategies for empowerment of the Minority Church in South Carolina. There are still some critical areas that this church of ours needs to address, areas that will continue to elevate, motivate, and strengthen Minority Churches in South Carolina.

At the 1988 session of Annual Conference, the conference endorsed and accepted a "Comprehensive Plan" that spoke to and addressed these issues in the South Carolina Conference. The Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee has sought to implement and remain true to the plan, but realized that the document needed to be updated. A Comprehensive Plan Committee has been organized and will spend next year reviewing and updating the present plan. A report to the 1993 Annual Conference will come from this committee for your acceptance and approval.

It still appears that a broad-based effort at new church development and church revitalization MUST be initiated immediately if the United Methodist in South Carolina is to be in MISSION and MINISTRY with the ethnic population. This calls for a new strategy for starting Ethnic congregations and revitalizing existing ones.

A Native American Task Force has been organized under the ELCC committee. It was clear to us that the church had to speak to this growing population of Native American brothers and sisters in South Carolina. The intent is to possibly gain some insight into possible ministry needs and developing a sense of connectiveness with these our sisters and brothers. This committee connected with the Southeastern Jurisdiction on Native American Ministries is chaired by Mrs. Sara Sanchez and is composed of persons of Native American origin and individuals with a genuine concern for ministry possibilities in this area.

The following reflects funding requests from September 1991 through February 1992. These requests were reviewed and recommended by the Ethnic Local Church Concerns Committee and approved by the CCOM.

"CLOUD OF WITNESSES"
The Reverend Marshall L. Meadors, Jr.

This basketball arena is an appropriate setting for our scripture text tonight. The writer says that life is a race; the life of faith is a race. It's not an easy race, not a short 100-yard dash that's over in a few seconds. It's a long race. A tough grueling race filled with pot holes and stumbling blocks, disappointments and rejections, grief and pain. Then he tells us what we can do to find support and encouragement to run the race. First, he says, "Remember the witnesses." The older I get the more this Memorial Service means to me. In the last couple of weeks, I went on three occasions to the chapel of Buncombe Street Church to read over the names of those we are remembering tonight. To that list, two more have been added even in recent days. We'll remember them with gratitude, we'll remember the challenge and support that they offered to us. We'll remember the ministry that they provided for congregations and for church members throughout the conference. We gather tonight to remember and to give thanks.

But it's more than just remembering. We also derive from them strength and encouragement. The reason this arena is such an appropriate place for this text and for the service is that we might well imagine tonight that they, the cloud of witnesses, are here in the stands while we are down on the arena floor running the race. We don't just remember them as they're sitting there, but as we run we can hear them cheering us on. We can hear them saying to us, "Keep the faith. Keep hope alive. Never give up."

A few weeks ago, Hannah and I were down at the beach, and as we walked along the strand, we came upon a very sad sight. It was a huge Loggerhead turtle that had died, probably caught in the net of a shrimp boat. It had washed up on the beach. We stopped with others who were looking at the remains of the turtle. A little child was there and someone walked up and pointed to the back of the turtle — to the shell — and said, "What's that?" The little child said, "That's the turtle's house." Then this smart aleck went over to the "house" and knocked on it and said, "Is anybody home?" And the little child said, "She doesn't live there anymore. My mother said, 'She's gone to heaven. But even from heaven,' mother said, 'she will still watch over her baby turtles'."

For that child it was an experience of the cloud of witnesses that surrounded her and surrounds us with hope and encouragement when the race is long and we're saddened with the loss of our loved ones, our colleagues and our friends. We have the assurance of the promise that they here and now surround us as we run the race and encourage us with hope to keep the faith and to keep running.

Second the writer of Hebrews says, "Lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely." If you watch runners in a race, you know that one thing they do is wear the lightest garments. A runner will wear a t-shirt and shorts that weigh very little, only the lightest weight shoes and socks.

The word for us is "Lay aside the weights." I confess to you tonight that it has been tough for me at times as I have sought to carry too much weight in the race of life — not physical weight, not extra metal. Have you ever carried weights like this? Anger. Anger at God because your loved one died — died too young, died prematurely. Anger with the Bishop, the Cabinet, for appointments, places that you were assigned to serve? Have you ever carried the weight of bitterness? Has it become, for you, a weight of complaining? Have you gone about the Conference, to other pastors and people, and complained or criticized? Do you carry that weight? Has it led to the weight of despair and depression? Do you carry that weight through life? The weight of envy. Being envious of something someone else had — another house or parsonage. Have you carried the weight of failure? The weight of guilt — thinking of things you wish you had done for the loved one, or things you hadn't done. Have you carried the ultimate weight of disillusionment? The weight of thinking to yourself, "Why did we give our lives to this? Why did we give our lives to the church? Is there any hope?" The writer of Hebrews says "Lay aside the weight." Put it aside and then run, continue to run the race.

I heard one time about a preacher who had in his office some wallpaper, and if I ever find some I want to put a little of it in my office. It was very simple, it had one message. Running all over the wall paper in his office was one line repeated continuously, word after word, "Let go, trust God. Trust God, let go. Let go, trust God. Trust God, let go." Lay aside the weight.

The third thing that the writer says is "Run with perseverance." Do you know what that means? It means don't give up. It means never, never, never give up.

On Tuesday of last week Hannah and I received the great good news that once again we are going to be grandparents. My first response to that news was joy and excitement. We already have five grandchildren. They have brought so much joy to our lives that we agree with the bumper sticker: "If We'd Known How Wonderful Grandchildren Are, We Would Have Had Them First."

Just a few months ago one of our granddaughters, little Hannah, who is ten years old, was visiting in Greenville. She came to church on Sunday morning and after church, while I was still speaking to the worshippers, she and her mother and my wife, Hannah, went home and were preparing dinner. When I got home, as I walked in the door, little Hannah, who was setting the table, said to me, "Granddaddy, that was the best sermon I ever heard in my life." Well, she has a way of doing a number on her granddaddy. When I saw the twinkle in her eye, I said, "Hannah, did your mother tell you to say that?" And with a big smile she said, "No, sir. Grandmother told me to say it."

When I learned we were going to have another grandchild, my first feeling was one of joy. But then, a feeling of fear. To think that another precious child will be brought into this world which is not a child-friendly place. A world where the most abused and neglected people of all are the children. And in a moment there was almost a tear in my eye as I thought of the struggle this new grandchild would have to endure. But then in the next moment it was as if the Lord spoke to me through the news and said "And so, what are you going to do about it? What are you going to do about it?" "But Lord!" I said, "I've struggled hard to do my part — to help the Kingdom of God and the world. It's now my children's turn." And the Lord said "Run with perseverance. Keep running." And as a grandfather, and as grandparents, as we run the race of life the call of God is for all of us to proclaim by word — by deed — the Kingdom of God. God wants the Kingdom in the hearts of people, and once it's in our hearts, He wants us to be agents to bring the Kingdom into the world. And to do it for the sake of our children. As our loved ones surround us tonight as a great cloud of witnesses, they would say to us "Run with perseverance."

And the last thing he says "Therefore, since we're surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that's set before us looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith."

It's very important for us to begin Annual Conference with a Communion Service. Here we are reminded that although we've come this week to do some things for God and the church, before we do anything for God and the church, God has already done it in Christ for us. We come here this week to give — to give our time our energy, our resources, our lives. But before we have anything to give, we first come to receive. We come tonight with open hands to receive the bread and the wine. Not to take them, not to grab. But to be open, and to accept them, and to receive them.

That day on the lake the storm came. It was about to capsize the boat and Jesus came walking to them on the water. He said to Simon Peter, "Get out and come walk to me." And Simon Peter did. As he stepped on the water, he looked around at those other disciples as if to say, "Ah ha, look at me!" And then he looked down at the waves; he began to sink. When he took his eyes off Jesus, he began to sink. The writer says to us, "Look to Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith."

There were three little boys out playing one day in the snow. They threw snowballs and built snowmen. Their neighbor came out and watched them as they were playing. He said to them, "Would you boys like to have a race?" They said, "Sure!" He said, "Here's the way we're going to run the race. I'm going across the field and I'm going to drop a handkerchief. When I do, I want you to come running toward me. Now, the one who wins the race will not be the one who gets there first. The one who wins the race will be the one who runs in the straightest line." He walked across the field, raised his arm and dropped the handkerchief. They started racing across the field. One little boy decided the way to run the straight line was to look at his own feet. So he walked slowly. He didn't have to get there first, just make a straight line. He looked down at his own feet, putting one in front of the other. That's the way to run in a straight line. The lad in the middle had a different tactic. He thought the way to run a straight line was to stay the right distance between those on each side. "If I can stay the right distance between each one of them, I'll run the straight line." But the lad on the right understood the race. He didn't worry about his feet, he didn't think about himself, he didn't care where the other boys were. He looked at the man on the other side of the field and went straight to him. He not only got there first, but he had run the straightest line.

It's what we do always isn't it? We too often become obsessed with ourselves — "How am I doing? How am I looking? How am I walking?" Or we're concerned about our peers or other people — "How am I doing in comparison to them?" Where are they in the race? The writer of the Hebrews says "Remember the one across the field, remember the one across Eternity. Look to Jesus."

"Therefore, since we are surrounded by so a great cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is before us looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith." Amen

RAYMOND WALTER BROCK

We have all lost a dear friend with the passing of Raymond W. Brock on August 12, 1991, at his home, Belvue Hall, in McCormick County, South Carolina. Raymond fought a courageous battle with cancer and exemplified incredible faith and determination as he underwent surgery and chemotherapy.

Raymond was born on June 1, 1930, to William Walter and Annie Collins Brock of Troy, South Carolina. He received an Associate in Science degree in business from Columbia Commercial College, a Bachelor of Arts degree with an English major from Erskine College in Due West, and a Master of Divinity Degree from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He married Ruth Botts of Abbeville County, South Carolina, on December 21, 1952, and they had two sons, John Raymond, born April 7, 1962, and William Mark, born December 5, 1962. Raymond is also survived by two grandchildren, John Luke, born January 25, 1991, and Baileigh Marie, born November 29, 1991.

Raymond was licensed to preach in 1958, was ordained a deacon in 1961 and an elder in 1963. His appointments included Stallville Church in Summerville, 1961–1965; Prosperity Charge, 1965–1971; Startex Church, 1971–1981; and Central Charge, 1981–1987. From June of 1987 until his death, Raymond was serving an appointment beyond the local church as the Director of Development and Administrative Assistant for the American Choral Directors Association, Lawton, Oklahoma.

A Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Main Street United Methodist Church in Abbeville, South Carolina at 4:00 p.m. on August 14, 1991. The liturgist for the service was Rev. Lee Bryant and Rev. Rodney Powell delivered the funeral homily. The choir for the service was comprised of choral directors and members of ACDA from across the United States, under the direction of Dr. Larry Wyatt, Director of Choral Activities of the University of South Carolina. A special descant for "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" was composed for the service by Theron Kirk of San Antonio, Texas.

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
 But I have promises to keep,
 And miles to go before I sleep,
 And miles to go before I sleep.

To which I add my own:

May sweet sleep and peace
 Be yours
 my Elijah!

GARY EDWARDS CREIGHTON
December 28, 1952–October 25, 1991

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." (II Timothy 4:7) These words of the apostle Paul could very well have been the words of Gary Edwards Creighton on the morning of October 25, 1991. Gary's life on earth, which spanned almost thirty-nine years, ended that day, but his life with the Lord continued for all eternity. On October 25th, Gary could also exclaim with Paul, "Death has been swallowed up in victory. Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" (I Corinthians 15:54c-55)

Gary Edwards Creighton was born in Mullins, South Carolina, on December 28, 1952, the son of John Thomas and Mabel Edwards Creighton. Shortly after Gary's birth, he was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis, but the disease did not deter Gary from living life to its fullest and from being an inspiration to many people along the way.

Gary attended elementary and high school in Mullins. Then he decided to enroll as a student at Wofford College, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1976. Responding to the call of God into full-time ministry, Gary entered the Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He received a Master of Divinity degree from Candler in 1979. Gary was ordained a deacon in the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church on June 5, 1979, and he received his elder's orders on August 15, 1982.

Following his seminary training, Gary began serving local churches in the South Carolina Conference. His appointments included: Rehoboth-Zoan (1979–81); Few's Chapel (1981–82); Bethel-Duncan Chapel (1982–86); and New Hope (1986–89). In 1989, Gary began disability leave from the Conference. During his appointment at the Bethel-Duncan Chapel Charge, Gary met Joy Weathers, and he and Joy were married at Duncan Chapel United Methodist Church on July 16, 1983. After Gary took disability leave, he and Joy moved to Summerville, South Carolina, where they attended Boone Hill United Methodist Church.

The following words were said at Gary's Memorial Celebration on October 27, 1991: "Gary Creighton was a winner!" Ordinarily, a winner is one who has achieved a measure of greatness in his or her life. Jesus defined greatness when He said "The greatest among you will be your servant." (Matthew 23:11) Gary Creighton was indeed a winner — and he was great — because he was a faithful servant. When people needed him, Gary was there to listen. If Gary's church members or friends needed someone to pray with them or for them, he was ready to lift them to the Lord. Gary also had a unique sense of humor, which he used effectively as he ministered to the people. It was evident that Gary lived with "the joy of the Lord" in his life! He encouraged and inspired many people throughout his ministry. Those who were privileged to know Gary discovered someone they could love and trust.

Gary Creighton was a man of deep faith, a faith that sustained him through the good times and the bad times. There were many periods in Gary's life when he was physically unable to carry out the work of the ministry as he desired to do, but he never let cystic fibrosis — or anything else — destroy his faith in God. He refused to be defeated! Gary believed that God would take care of him, that God would supply his needs, and that God would give him the ultimate victory. On October 25, 1991, Gary Edwards Creighton experienced that victory and could exclaim with Paul "But thanks be to God! He has given me victory through Jesus Christ my Lord." (I Corinthians 15:57) Gary was a winner! He was truly great in the sight of God!

MELVIN FLUDD

MARVIN LEVELLE ISEMAN
December 14, 1928–September 20, 1991

The Rev. Marvin Levelle Iseman was born in Darlington County on December 14, 1928. He was the son of Jacob Daniel and Leila Jane Stokes Iseman.

On May 19, 1947, he married Martha Elease Dudley of Darlington, SC, who was a very special helpmate during their 44 years of devoted marriage and 38 years of dedicated ministry together. Born of this union were four children, Marvin Daniel, Michael Dudley, Marcia Lynne (Mrs. Edward Mobley Woodward, Jr.), and Deborah Jane. Marvin made a tremendous influence and impact on his family and friends, as he was supremely loved in return by his dear wife, Martha, and their four children.

Marvin accepted the call of God to full-time ministry after beginning a business career, but he was able to give 38 years of effective service to the South Carolina Annual Conference. He served proudly on the Conference Commission on Worship, and emphasized the Word and Sacrament along with the skillful use of liturgy in his local churches.

His sermons were always well-prepared and superb in content. Excellent sermons were delivered consistently without the aid of any notes as the Gospel was proclaimed eloquently. Marvin diligently studied to develop ideas about church revitalization and growth that was implemented successfully. The youth under his ministry were encouraged and challenged to hear God's call to full-time ministry. He carefully planned his work and worked his plan with all of his God-given talent as a highly organized leader.

A great motivator, constantly filled with zest and zeal as he daily tried to accomplish God's will. Many successful building programs were completed under his leadership; including the beautiful building renovation program that was finished the day before his death at First United Methodist Church, Clover.

Marvin for seven years faced courageously the news of his malignancy. He bravely faced it all and stood tall with renewed faith. A service to celebrate his entrance into the celestial realm called Heaven was conducted on September 22, 1991 at First United Methodist Church, Clover, SC. The Rev. Wood M. Smith, the Rev. J. Bert Watson and Dr. James C. Adams led the service of worship. Marvin's body is buried at the Magnolia Cemetery in Hartsville, but his spirit is at home with God.

WILLIE AARON LEE
July 5, 1929–March 21, 1992

We pause to pay tribute to one among the many who dedicated his life to the service of God, through the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, the Reverend Willie Aaron Lee.

Rev. Lee was born July 5, 1929, a son of Maceo Lee and Lois Walker Lee. He was a long time member of the Deep Creek United Methodist Church and served faithfully in several capacities.

Lee was received into Full Connection in 1972 and served the following appointments: Belton Charge, North Greenville Charge, Pickens Charge, Greenwood-Ninety Six, and the Easley Charge.

On December 1, 1949, he was married to Prince Ola Humphrey and this union saw the birth of five children: Johnnie M. Brown, Deborah Lee, Willis, Cecil and Dennis Lee. He also leaves to cherish his memory, a sister, Ella Majors, and two brothers, Booker T. and Major Lee.

Rev. Willie Aaron Lee died on March 21, 1992, after a long illness. Yet he shall be remembered by those of us who loved him and by that love respected him.

He was a dear and loyal friend whom I shall never forget.

Beams of Heaven as I go, through this wilderness below

Guide my feet in peaceful ways, turn my midnight into day

When in the darkness I should grope, faith always sees the star of hope.

CHARLES LEE MOORE, JR.

January 5, 1926–October 22, 1991

Charlie was born January 5, 1926, to Charles Lee, Sr. and Inez Foster Moore.

He was married to Margaret Greer of Union, South Carolina, on January 22, 1944. They had two sons, Charles Russell and Ronald Lee, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Charlie was a very dedicated member of Sardis United Methodist Church of Union where he served various positions and influenced the lives of many young people. He was the first person out of Sardis to become an ordained minister. It was a very sad, but also happy, day when "Uncle Charlie" left Sardis to accept his first appointment.

He had more than read Genesis 12:1–4, he heard God speaking to him. Charlie gathered his family, earthly possessions, and went south. God had a place for him. As God's servant, Charlie preached the Good News. He loved the people, participated in their joys and sorrows. As a minister and friend of mankind, he not only loved, but also was loved. He was never too busy to minister to the needs of God's community of faith. Charlie never lost sight of his call to ministry; a ministry that required him to be a servant of Jesus Christ and His mission.

He received his A.S. degree from the University of South Carolina in 1968. He completed the Conference Course of Studies at Duke University and received his M.Min. at Covington, B.R.E. in 1983.

Charlie was licensed to preach, May 1961; ordained deacon, June 1963; ordained Elder, June 1965; received into full connection, June 1970.

He served two appointments during his twenty-five years of active service — Hemingway Circuit, 1961–69; and Scranton Charge, 1969–86.

He was very active in community and conference level works: Committee Worship 1972–76; Committee Nominations 1976–86; District Committee Ordained Ministry, 1972–86; Chairman Scranton Bi-racial Improvement Committee; Chaplain, Scranton Fire Department and Rescue Squad; Secretary-Treasurer Dixie Youth Program. He served in the U.S. Army 1944–46; U.S. Army Reserve, E-7, 1951–53; American Theater and Good Conduct Medals.

Due to failing health, Charlie went on disability leave in September, 1986. Although he could no longer serve as a full-time minister, he continued to serve the Church and community as God's called servant.

Charles Lee Moore, Jr., died on October 22, 1991. His funeral was conducted at the Brockington Funeral Home, Lake City, South Carolina, at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, October 24. Interment was at Scranton United Methodist Church in Scranton. Officiating clergy were Ben Cunningham, Steve Hughes, James W. Ivey, Thomas Kelly, Joseph Poston and Barney Fowler.

"For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time has come for my departure. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, and I have kept the faith. Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award me on that day — and not only me, but also to all who have longed for His appearing."

(II Timothy 4:6–8)

JERRY QUEEN

January 9, 1936–January 11, 1992

I Corinthians 2:9

But as it is written, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him."

When Jerry Queen was born on January 9, 1936, in King's Mountain, North Carolina, little did he know of what the Lord had prepared him.

Jerry's journey in the Lord's work began in his youth. Always Jerry saw the good side of things; each day of his life was a day the Lord had made. Each day, Jerry rejoiced and was glad.

From 1956 to 1959, Jerry served his country in the Air Force. On January 17, 1959, he married the sweetheart of his life, Helen Hart. Later, in 1962, he was called back to serve his country during the Cuban Missile Crisis.

While a lay member of the United Methodist Church, Jerry served his Lord with rejoicing. In the 1960s, Jerry and Helen joined Porter's Chapel United Methodist in Pickens County. There they became involved in the church, offering not only their beautiful voices in song, but also offering their gifts in teaching and witnessing of Christ's love through act and word.

For Jerry, the work of the Lord was never limited to the church. At work, at play, in all places, Jerry told others of the Good News. Throughout Pickens County today there are many who credit Jerry as being one who brought them to the Lord.

In 1987, God called Jerry to step forward into the ministry. This Jerry did joyfully. As always Jerry believed in great things. His world was God's world. Each new day brought great promise for it was the Lord's doing. For four and one-half years Jerry preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ and loved the people in Sharon UMC near Pendleton. Though slow at first, the church grew. The congregation doubled; great things were happening!

Then, on January 11, 1992, after Jerry had spoken at the funeral of a friend in Walhalla, he sat down, leaned back, and went to heaven.

A service of celebration and thanksgiving was held on January 13 at Sharon UMC by his friends, the Revs. Granville Hicks, Winston Morgan, William Rogers and the writer. The burial was in the Hillcrest Memorial Cemetery in Easley.

CLARENCE EUGENE TURNER

October 17, 1926–April 21, 1992

Clarence Eugene Turner was born October 17, 1926, in Clinton, South Carolina, the son of the late Maude L. and Willilam H. Turner. He received elementary education in Clinton and his secondary education was completed while serving in the United States Navy where he served 1944–52.

For the next decade he was in business with the Eden Stores in Columbia and the Kyanize Paint Company in West Columbia. He was licensed to preach May 24, 1959 by the Columbia District on recommendation of Platt Springs United Methodist Church. In 1962 he dedicated his life to full-time Christian service. He completed the Conference Course of Study through Candler School of Theology at Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia. He was ordained a deacon June 10, 1965 by Bishop Paul Harden, Jr., and elder June 8, 1967 by Bishop Harden. He became an Associate Member of the South Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church on June 1, 1970.

His appointments were: Black Swamp Charge, 1962; Waterloo/Soule Chapel Charge, 1969; Ehrhardt Charge, 1973; Bowman Charge, 1977; Rock Hill-Bethel, 1981; Joanna-Epworth, 1984; Spartanburg-Liberty, 1988; Disability Leave, February 15, 1989.

Clarence and Mary Ellen McKee Turner were united in marriage May 25, 1949. She and their two sons, William Edward and Stanley Eugene, and four grandchildren, Stacey, Stephen, Brandon and Leslie, survive him.

Clarence was a Christian gentleman of high character, whose family supported him in service and love. Most of his appointments were mission appointments where he built up every church, secured harmony and unity in the congregations and completed general remodeling of church property including leading the Pleasant Hill Church at Ehrhardt to build a Fellowship Hall. He was known for his fairness, not only to the great but to all. He was a Lion and a Mason.

On April 21, 1992, his life on Earth closed after a long illness and this dedicated, good pastor received his final and greatest appointment.

A service of Death and Resurrection was held at the Mathews United Methodist Church, Greenwood, South Carolina, April 23, 1992, led by a close friend/brother-in-law, the Reverend Harvey O. Peurifoy, the Reverend John Gerald Hipp, and the Reverend Lewis R. Sherard. his body rests at Greenwood Memorial Gardens.

JOE WOODROW GILES
May 23, 1913–June 15, 1991

For the three years I visited Joe before his death he was never able to communicate with me through spoken or written words. Brain surgery had left him unable to use the two ways of communicating that had served him so well in his life and ministry. However every time I would walk into the room, Joe would greet me with an outstretched hand. As I have seen Joe through the eyes of family and friends, that outstretched hand has become a symbol to me of the man. Joe was not a person taken with flair and frills and probably would not stand out in a crowd. Rather, he had those special qualities of stability, humility and integrity. Those who knew him well used words such as quiet, easygoing, serene, dedicated and committed to describe him. Many spoke of his quick mind and dry wit and, as one person recalled, "his humor would sneak up on you."

Joe graduated from Spartanburg Methodist College and went on to complete his undergraduate degree at Furman University. In 1945 he received the B.D. degree from Emory University. Three years later he married Mary Ida Herlong from Johnston, S.C. Their marriage was blessed with the birth of a daughter, Mary Lynn, and a son, Joe Ben.

Over a span of thirty-seven years, Joe served churches from the mountains to the coast and all in between. Following his retirement in 1978 he filled a vacancy at Vacluse U.M.C., that in the beginning was to be for only a few months, but ended after a couple of years. He served Vacluse with the same dedication and commitment that had been his hallmark throughout his life. Joe's ministry was affirmed over and over as he and Mary Ida would receive cards on special occasions from members in churches they had served.

On June 17, 1991, a Service of Death and Resurrection was held at Harmony U.M.C. in Edgefield County with Burial in Sunset Garden Cemetery. It was truly an honor to share in that service with Dr. Bill Reid. In his remarks, Dr. Reid spoke of Joe's faithfulness and how he always went to the place where he was appointed and served well. One of Joe's loves was the hymnody of the church and before his illness he was a member of the Harmony Choir. As an expression of their love and appreciation for his faithfulness, the choir sang, "It Is Well With My Soul." This was Joe's favorite hymn and I am sure that he drew strength and encouragement from it in his personal life as well as in those many times that he brought a message of hope and assurance to his congregations. Its words are also a reminder of the faithfulness of God to whom we give thanks for Joe Giles and the memories we have of him.

EDWARD WRIGHTSMAN GOTT
August 23, 1916–October 21, 1991

Edward Wrightsman Gott was born on August 23, 1916 in Franklin, Louisiana, son of Charles and Olivia Wrightsman Gott. Ed received his A.B. degree from the Louisiana Polytechnic Institute in 1938, and a Master of Theology from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia in 1944. He was then married to Katherine Way, the daughter of a United Methodist minister, on August 5, 1944. They were blessed with two sons, Walter Edward and Grady Charles.

It was a privilege to get to know Ed Gott during his early years of ministry and to preach for him several times in revival services. He was committed to the ministry. He was blessed with a special love for children and youth. In the years after his retirement, he was never able to forget the ministry. He was active in the Summertown United Methodist Church. He faithfully visited those who were sick or shut-in. Even after he moved to the Sumter Retirement Home, he found his way to the hospital to continue his ministry to those in need. He was a gracious and caring pastor.

Edward Gott went to his eternal reward on October 21, 1991. The funeral services were conducted at Summertown United Methodist Church on October 24, 1991 by the Rev. Thomas Matthews and the Rev. Phil Jones. Burial was in the Holly Hill Cemetery. Rest eternal, grant to Ed, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him.

ALDERMAN LEWIS GRIFFIS
June 13, 1921–April 4, 1992

The Rev. Alderman Lewis Griffis was born on June 13, 1921 in Barney, Georgia, the son of Rufus and Effie Griffis. He was a Navy veteran of World War II, the Korean War and Vietnam. In 1963 Rev. Griffis received his A.B. from Mercer University and in 1966 received his B.D. from Candler School of Theology, Emory University. He served the Kite Charge in the South Georgia Annual Conference 1963–64 and the Mt. Bethel-Turner Charge in North Georgia 1964–65. In 1965 Rev. Griffis became a Probationary Member of the South Carolina Conference. Between 1966 and his retirement in 1984, he served the following charges: Main Street, Bamberg; Ridgeville; Bethlehem-Salem; Red Bank; Grover; Ehrhardt; Greeleyville; Berkeley Circuit; and Starr.

On May 6, 1953, Rev. Griffis married Margaret Harvey of Summerville, SC. The Griffis have two children; a daughter, Mrs. Dona Griffis Etheredge, and a son, Mr. James Hal Griffis, both of Ridgeville, SC, and two grandchildren. Rev. Griffis is also survived by his sisters, Mrs. Janelle Nichols of Hahira, GA, Mrs. Mamie Morris of Brunswick, GA and Mrs. Myrna Long of Quitman, GA; and his brothers, Virgil Griffis of Adel, GA; R.L. Griffis of Albany, GA; and Ralph Griffis of Hahira, GA.

I believe that Al Griffis' faith is summarized in the poem of William Bertram Burton:

"I can do no other than to know that there is a God.
I only live because He wills that I live.
In the midst of everything I do, His presence is.
I feel only the pain that He suffers to be.
I want to love so that He will somehow remember me.
This is His world. Everything belongs to God.
There is no other way but to know that I, too, belong to God, now and forever."

RUSSIE VANCE MCGUIRE
August 8, 1907–April 5, 1992

Russie Vance McGuire, the son of Frank and Leila Jane Shutt McGuire, was born on August 8, 1907 in Lashmeet, West Virginia. After schooling in his native state, Mr. McGuire met and married Emily Daniel of Spartanburg, SC on May 29, 1931. He attended Wofford College as a married student and received his A.B. in 1935. He was admitted as a Probationary member in the Holston Conference and appointed to East River in 1935 and to Mar in 1937. At the time of the unification of the Methodist Church in 1939, Mar Charge became part of the West Virginia Conference.

The McGuires went on to serve at Wilcoe-Thorpe, Peach Creek, Holden and Omar in the West Virginia Conference. On October 15, 1953, Rev. McGuire transferred to the South Carolina Conference and served at Liberty Hill-Apalache; Trinity, Fountain Inn; Liberty; Fairview, Easley; Edisto; Swansea; and Lockhart.

The McGuires retired in 1973 and were near their only daughter, Hermie McGuire Gaston and enjoyed their three granddaughters, Becky Mitchell, Emily Kate Jenkins and Arlene O'Dell, as well as their friends in the Greer and Spartanburg areas. Mrs. McGuire died on October 8, 1975. Both Rev. and Mrs. McGuire were buried in Mountain View Cemetery near Greer, SC.

In Acts 11:24 we find: "For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith, and many persons were added unto the Lord." Those words describe Russie Vance McGuire. He was kind and compassionate and caring. He was selfless, humble and real. He was too big to be little because "...he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and faith, and many persons were added unto the Lord."

EDGAR PAUL MCWHIRTER
June 22, 1914–February 29, 1992

Often we feel incapable of hearing the voice of God, don't we? But on last Saturday about mid-morning I clearly heard God say to a dear friend of yours and mine: "Welcome home, Paul!" Then I heard Paul's answer: "Yes, God, thank you."

Today as we come to this holy place to celebrate the life, and life eternal, of Paul McWhirter, it is easy for us to believe that Paul's parents must have heard a prophetic word when, in 1914, they named their new baby son Edgar Paul — especially as they chose the second name, Paul. Could these parents have sensed that this son, when mature, would have so many of the qualities associated with another man by the same name, an apostle of the early church? Among the traits found in both men are unswerving honesty, missionary fervor and zeal for the extension of the Christian Church in the world.

Recall those leadership qualities we saw in our Paul: builder of beautiful church buildings, able administrator in parish and district ministry, pastor of unusual compassion, and trustee with a vision of progress for Columbia and Wofford College. And haven't we seen him act with uncommon wisdom in committees and on the Annual Conference floor as he made statements, filled with balanced thought, as the conference made crucial decisions? Especially was he effective during those periods of tension when the two South Carolina Conferences, black and white, were finally merging after many years of separation and alienation.

Upon retirement, Paul had given tremendous service to the church, and to a number of organizations designed to help people in need: Habitat for Humanity, the United Way, the Junalusks, and the Intentional Growth Center. Indeed, Paul's last public statement was made just a few weeks ago from this pulpit when he spoke on behalf of Habitat for Humanity. Those of us present will never forget that moment. Obviously, just going to the pulpit took almost all of his energy, yet he grasped it and made a powerful statement!

When we think of Paul McWhirter, don't we think of courage? An old English novel by Hugh Walpole has the village sage, Frosted Moses, talking to Peter Wescott, a little street urchin who has lost hope. Frosted Moses says: "Peter, tisn't life that matters — it's the courage you bring to it!" Surely Paul helped countless persons to find courage, as he spoke and acted in many communities across the Carolinas, and in distant places as he served the Chaplaincy.

Here was a man of rugged determination and quiet resolve — with a sly sense of humor. And there was in him also the unmistakable qualities of tenderness and compassion. How he loved flowers, trees, gardens, golf courses, wide open spaces and all God's beauty from mountains to oceans!

As a family man Paul's life was exemplary. We feel happiness and love radiating from this home through Nell, loving companion of fifty-seven years, daughters Judith and Jane, sons Paul and Timothy, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. These dear ones were always at the center of his love and concern.

Now a personal word for our dear friend: Paul, we are grateful for your life of courage and integrity, and for the influence you have had on our lives. We pledge to you and to God that we shall continue your work; to provide housing for the poor, care for the troubled, and the gospel of love for all God's family! God Bless!

LEWIS AUGUSTUS SWEAT

"Rise up, O men of God! Have done with lesser things; Give heart and mind and soul and strength to serve the King of Kings."

Lewis Sweat was such a man of God! Having been privileged to serve as "his pastor," I know that these verses truly speak of who he was and what he did. Every waking moment was devoted to serving God in pastoral ministry even though he had retired in 1987. Indeed, Lewis gave his heart and mind and soul and strength to serve our Lord and Savior, Christ Jesus.

I believe if we had asked him the reasons for his great devotion to his calling, that Lewis would have certainly echoed the words of Micah in the Old Testament:

"God has shown you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God."

Lewis exemplified that kindness and gentleness and servanthood in his lifelong walk with God. Man of God that he was, Lewis would go the second mile if asked to go one, and if asked for his shirt, would gladly give the coat off his back as well. We confess that we are not often that dedicated to our share of the ministry; this ministry of all believers.

I believe that Lewis would also have pointed us to the words found in I Timothy 6, concerning pastoral ministry:

"But as for you, man of God ... pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. ... As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of 'the life that really is life'."

Lewis Sweat, man of God, most surely had taken hold of the "life that really is life." This became his "charge," his reason for living! It can be honestly said that Lewis Sweat the minister literally gave his heart to his calling. And that he gave the very last measure of strength he had to the pastoral ministry.

We were blessed by that last measure of strength. Our own walks with God have been encouraged and enabled by what he said and did. I believe that we can best honor his life and memory by remembering his example among us. We can remember all those times he was there for us, to comfort, to teach, to lead. We can honor Lewis by remembering the many sacrifices his family made, for they were an extension of his dedication. Their love of Christ was so immense that they gave this loved one to us. They gave Lewis to us to comfort our pains, even when their own pains were perhaps greater than ours. They gave Lewis to supply our needs even when their own needs were perhaps greater than ours. And we who took heart and mind and soul and strength which he gladly gave, must remember and never forget the many blessings received from Lewis and his family. Praise be to God, that Lewis Sweat once among us can gladly sing II Timothy 4:7-8:

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished the race, and I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid upon me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them that love his appearing."

WILLIAM ALFRED EDWARDS
January 10, 1912–July 9, 1991

For reasons which were obvious to all who knew him, Al Edwards was a large man of enormous faith, and he carried with him a calming trust in God's ability and desire to take care of us, regardless of our life-circumstances. This gift, his capacity to trust God whatever befalls us, is reflected in the fact that Al became the most highly decorated United States Veteran of World War II. This fitting tribute by the Nation was in recognition of one of its bravest heroes, and was awarded to this giant of a man whose selfless commitment resulted in his being captured — three times during World War II — each time being made a Prisoner of War.

Al was born in Danville, Virginia, and was a graduate of North Carolina State University. Upon retirement from military service, he taught until his "second" retirement in the Hampton Virginia Public Schools.

On December 12, 1986, he married Annette Coker, and together they began life as a married student couple at Candler School of Theology. In June 1988, when "their" theological education had been completed, as Al put it, "we" were appointed to the McClellanville Charge.

Following Hurricane Hugo, the charge was divided so that Ocean Grove might become a station United Methodist Church. The first ministerial family to be appointed to Ocean Grove was Annie and Al, and immediately Al became engaged in the construction of the new parsonage for the church. In fact he became, in effect, the resident "coordinator" for all of the volunteer teams (mostly coming from his home state of Virginia!), which had a hand in its construction. As the project neared completion, Al shifted his energies so he could help in developing plans for the new church building and sanctuary for Ocean Grove, which was completed after his death.

"Be not dismayed, whate'er betide..."

Through days of toil when heart doth fail...

No matter what may be the test, God will take care of you."

JUANITA (NICKIE) GAINES FLOYD
February 26, 1931–October 28, 1991

Juanita (Nickie) Gaines Floyd was born on February 26, 1931 in Coal Camp, Missouri. At the age of four, she moved with her family to Fort Lauderdale, Florida. She died in Spartanburg on October 28, 1991.

Nickie received her A.B. degree from the University of Florida and her M.A. degree in religion from Emory University.

On August 17, 1955, Nickie married the Rev. W. Harvey Floyd, Jr., whom she had met at Emory, and began thirty six years of being a co-pastor with him in churches over the South Carolina Conference.

In the churches where Harvey and Nickie served, she made significant contributions to the life of the churches as she used her training and God-given talent in being co-pastor with him. Her four children dictated that her family responsibilities were heavy, but this did not prevent her from being invaluable in every phase of church work. The lives of her children attest to the good job she did with the family; and the lives of countless people, made better through her work and testimony, attest to the good account she gave as a witness for Jesus Christ.

Nickie is survived by her husband; daughters Linda Blackwell, Donna Saba, and Margaret Smith; a son, William Harvey Floyd III; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on October 31 in Bethel Church with a large number of friends attending. Bishop Joseph Bethea, the Rev. Dr. James Hunter, the Rev. Sara White, the Rev. James Alewine, and the Rev. Dr. Charles Graves paid tribute to this outstanding wife, mother, and Christian leader.

During the last years of her life, Nickie's body was ravaged by illness, but her spirit remained strong as she knew that leaving her earthly form meant living with her Heavenly Father forevermore. Thanks be to God for the life of Nickie Floyd.

MARGARET ANDERSON GLEATON
February 23, 1904–February 11, 1992

Margaret Anderson Gleaton was born in Oakland, California on February 23, 1904. She grew up in San Francisco where her parents were actively involved in the Salvation Army. It was through the Salvation Army that Margaret met Bascom Cuyler Gleaton while he was stationed in California by the U.S. Navy. They were married on November 14, 1925.

Later, Cuyler felt strongly God's claim upon his life for the Christian ministry and returned to school for the necessary preparation. Their first appointment was to the Methodist Episcopal church, South, in Roseburg, Oregon (1935–38). They then returned to his home state of South Carolina where they ministered, under appointment of the South Carolina Methodist Conference, to the following churches: Pinopolis Charge, Louis Charge, Cherokee Place, Fort Mill, Indian Field, Chesterfield Charge, and Wesley Memorial in Hollywood. Steadfastly walking the pathway of duty, Margaret Gleaton's life was characterized by hard work, simplicity, devotion to her family and to the Lord and his work in each charge they served. She freely gave of her time and talent, especially using her gift of singing in grateful praise to God.

Upon retirement, they moved to Georgia where they enjoyed rich, fulfilling years before her health began to decline seriously. She died in Tallahassee, Florida, on February 11, 1992. She is survived by her husband of 66 years, Bascom Cuyler Gleaton, two daughters, Mrs. Marilyn Williams of Columbus, GA, Mrs. Patsy Knight of St. George, S.C., one son, Bobby Gleaton of Fayetteville, N.C., seven grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

Dorothy Elizabeth Reel was born in Columbus, Ohio, in 1904. At an early age her family moved to Spartanburg, S.C. She was a senior in high school when she met Paul Hardin, Jr., a freshman at Wofford College. She went on to study music at Converse College. About five years after they met they married and went on to the Candler School of Theology, Emory University, and then into the Western North Carolina Conference. Later they transferred to North Alabama and for eleven years experienced a successful and growing ministry at First Church, Birmingham, Alabama.

In 1960 Paul was elected a Bishop and they were appointed to the newly created Columbia area, which embraced all of South Carolina. With their roots deeply established in South Carolina they set about forming the direction and mission of their new area. As in their pastorates, Dot became dearly loved in her adopted state. Her warmth and affection endeared her to lay and clergy alike, and she especially became cherished for her helpful relationships with clergy spouses.

Her loving encouragement and companionship strengthened Paul, who in the latter days in South Carolina courageously led both white and black conferences into a sound merger. They were so much a team in South Carolina that Paul frequently spoke of "Dot and I." They became lovingly known in the area as "Bishop Dot and I."

Dot Hardin gave the main thrust of her life to her husband and family. This was her career. While she was much involved in church activities, her great joy was in her family — Betsy Hoak of Charlotte, NC; Dr. Paul Hardin III, Chancellor of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; Edward Reel Hardin, an attorney at Banner Elk, NC; seven grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. In a few months the Hardins would have celebrated their 65th Wedding Anniversary.

So much could be said about Dot Hardin — words like beauty, grace, and gentility. She had the personality and manner of a regal lady. So many stories could be shared that would illustrate her active Christian influence. Let the remark of her son, Paul III, suffice — "She lights up every room she enters."

In 1972 the Hardins retired to their beloved Lake Junaluska and, after many happy years there, entered the Givens United Methodist Retirement Community in Asheville, NC, where they lived comfortably and Paul served until recently on the staff.

Dot had been in declining health for some time, but she never lost her beauty, her quick wit or her gracious smile. She chose to stay in their apartment after a series of heart attacks, and died in her home early in the morning of April 22, 1992 with Bishop Paul and Betsy at her side.

Her memorial service was conducted on April 24 at the First United Methodist Church, Waynesville, NC, by her pastor Dr. George Thompson, and Bishop Edward L. Tullis. Burial was in the mausoleum at Hillcrest Cemetery in Waynesville, NC.

The memorial service had a definite note of celebration as in the beauty of Eastertide we committed Dorothy Hardin to share in the great heavenly anthems she so dearly loved. Such a marvelous life causes us all to rejoice in the fact that in the family of God, we are all together Easter people.

— Edward L. Tullis

REBA WEISNER MCALISTER
December 10, 1934–May 19, 1992

Reba W. McAlister was born on December 10, 1934 in Greer, SC. She was married to Rev. Richard McAlister and to this union was born two children, Kay and David.

Reba spent her life helping other people. This was her calling. She was truly a pastor's helpmate. She worked briefly outside the home — once again helping people. She worked for the Council on Aging.

She was always actively involved in the local church where her husband served. She supported her husband in the church school, the UMW and the worship services. She sought ways to use her talents and she used them to keep building God's Kingdom.

I was only privileged to know Reba for seven years as a close acquaintance. I believe the best word to describe Reba is to say she was a true friend. I believe all who knew her knew her to be their friend.

I remember an incident in the life of Jesus. Things were very difficult. He looked at his disciples and called them friends. I'm so happy to have had Reba as a friend.

Reba, after a long illness, met Jesus face to face on May 19, 1992. The funeral was held at John Wesley UMC, Charleston, conducted by Bishop Joseph Bethea, Rev. Sam Johnson and Rev. Tom Brittain. The interment was in the cemetery of Woods Chapel UMC, Greer, with Rev. Harvey Floyd in charge.

"Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful.
Enter thou into the joy of your Lord."

— Thomas N. Brittain

RHONDA MINETTE JACKSON MCDOWELL
May 1, 1951–May 24, 1992

Services for Rhonda Minette Jackson McDowell were held at College Place United Methodist Church, with burial in Greenlawn Memorial Park.

Mrs. McDowell died Sunday, May 24, 1992. Born in Charleston, she was a daughter of the Rev. Isaiah and Elgina Taylor Jackson. A cum laude graduate of Claflin College, she was the cultural outreach coordinator of the Department of Health and Environmental Control for the WIC program. She was a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Jack and Jill of America, Irmo/St. Andrews Women's Society, Cooperative Ministry Board of Directors, Columbia District Committee on Superintendency, S.C. Conference Ministers' Wives Association and Francis Burns United Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband, the Rev. Edward H. McDowell, Jr.; sons Edward III and Timothy McDowell, both of Columbia; a daughter, Erin McDowell of Columbia; her parents of Charleston; sisters Yvette Shepherd, Annette Shepherd, Odessa Grant and Edmonia Jackson, all of Charleston; and brothers Isaiah Jr. and Stonewall Jackson, both of Charleston.

DIXIE MILLERJanuary 15, 1927–December 30, 1991

Ms. Dixie Miller was a wonderful person, a person of strong character and will. Sickness had been a part of her life for quite a long time but had not broken her spirit. She was proud to be the wife of a United Methodist minister. Her conversations time and time again turned to her love for her Lord, her pride in her husband's work, and her concern for her church. Lots of people remember her well: her family, a host of friends, community, and neighbors. As her pastor for just a few months, I enjoyed the short time we spent together because her simple faith was one of affirmation. She lived her faith and when death came, faced it as a child of God. Our loss is heaven's gain.

— A. Robert Nix

DOROTHY HOWARD NESMITHMarch 6, 1937–July 9, 1991

Mrs. Dorothy Howard Nesmith, daughter of the late Louie and Hattie Howard, was born March 6, 1937 in Florence County. One of thirteen children, she entered into eternal rest July 9, 1991, eulogized by the Rev. George W. Watson.

Dorothy attended the public schools of Florence County, received her bachelor of science degree in elementary education from Claflin College and her master's degree in elementary education from South Carolina State College, Orangeburg, SC.

She was married to the Reverend Harry V. Nesmith, Sr., and this union was blessed with two children, Harry V. Nesmith, Jr., and Ansonia V. Nesmith.

Dot, as she was affectionately called, strongly felt that she could bet accomplish the objectives of her career as a teacher by complete dedication of herself to the job as she worked twenty one years in Bamberg County and Orangeburg County District Five Bennett Middle School.

She held membership with the National Education Association, South Carolina Education Association, National Association for the Advancement for Colored People, Orangeburg County Retired Teachers, Church Women United, United Methodist Women, and Trinity United Methodist Church.

A wife, mother, teacher, fellow worker and friend, she leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, the Rev. Harry V. Nesmith, Sr.; one son, Harry V. Nesmith, Jr.; one daughter, Miss Ansonia V. Nesmith; one sister, Mrs. Lela H. James; two brothers, Willie G. Howard of Columbia, SC and James C. Howard of Philadelphia, PA; relatives and many dear friends.

"I go to prepare a place for you, for where I am ye may be also."

MARY CAROLYN TURNER SHERIDANNovember 2, 1931–January 14, 1992

Life takes many unexpected turns and the person who has the maturity to say "thanks" for what has been and "yes" to what is yet to be, will find it also has many wonderful surprises. Thus it was with Carolyn. She did not marry a minister of the gospel, but when Rut received and responded to God's call, Carolyn's life took an unexpected turn which led to years of experiencing life as a helpmate in ministry. With grace and style she accepted the challenge and in her way became a significant source of ministry herself. Serving beside Rut at Walnut Grove Charge, Main Street in Greenwood, Belvedere, Beulah and Brookland provided Carolyn the opportunity to model the gospel as she best could. Many have been blessed with her presence, counsel and deep faith.

She was born November 2, 1931 in Union, S.C. to Patrick Thompson Turner and Lunette Farr Turner. She married Rutledge D. Sheridan, Jr., on October 8, 1950 and they have three children, Alan Turner Sheridan, Paul Robert Sheridan and Carol Sheridan Butler, and three grandchildren.

WILHELMENA BLANDONMarch 11, 1896–April 25, 1992

Mrs. Wilhelmena Snipe Blandon, widow of the late Rev. James H. Blandon and daughter of the late Harry and Lillie White Snipe, was born March 11, 1896 in Bonneau, South Carolina. She joined the church triumphant April 25, 1992. After a homegoing worship service at Sumter Chapel United Methodist Church celebrating a life well-lived, her earthly body was laid to rest in the church cemetery on April 29, 1992.

Mrs. Blandon's faith journey in Methodism began at an arly age when she joined St. Paul Methodist Episcopal Church in St. Stephen, South Carolina. On January 20, 1921, she was united in holy matrimony to the Rev. James H. Blandon. This union was blessed with one son. She served faithfully in ministry with her husband until his death. She later became a member of Sumter Chapel United Methodist Church where she served tirelessly until she became ill. Her greatest joy in serving God and the church was to help her fellow man and to sing in the church choir. Those left to cherish her fond memory are one son, Malachi Blandon, a daughter-in-law, Ida Mae Blandon, five grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren and many loving relatives and friends.

Being a junior to her by 50 years of age, it was a joy and delight to have served as her pastor in my early years of ministry and to receive such honor and respect.

Heaven is a goodly land; and God is love

JEANETTE CLATSWORTHY CANNONMay 25, 1897–August 20, 1991

Jeanette Pollock Clatworthy Cannon, a native of Honea Path, South Carolina, married Carlisle Thaddeus Cannon on December 31, 1924. They are both survived by one daughter, Mary Babb Turner of Morganton, North Carolina and two grandsons, Alex and Carlisle.

Mrs. Cannon grew up in a home of three brothers, loved music, flowers and children. In her younger years she played the organ for the Honea Path Presbyterian Church. Even at the age of 94 and suffering from a broken hip, she pushed up to her beloved piano in her wheelchair and played. Mrs. Cannon never tired of telling stories of days gone by, especially of her family and friends. In later years when her health declined, she continued to greet visitors with her warm, gracious smile.

Mrs. Cannon was devoted to her husband and his work. She had known Carlisle since the third grade and served beside him forty-five years in the ministry, including six years as District Superintendent. She fulfilled the words of Ruth and Naomi with much grace: "Where you go, I will go; Where you lodge, I will lodge, Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die, I will die — there I will be buried." Her life and love was celebrated in a service of worship at Trinity United Methodist Church in Honea Path, August 23, 1991.

MILDRED MANNING CHRISTOPHEROctober 16, 1908–September 6, 1991

Mildred Christopher married Robert K. Christopher on November 30, 1940. Their son Robert Manning Christopher and his wife had one son, Robert M. Christopher, Jr.

Mildred was educated at Winthrop College, taught in the public schools of Landrum, Bennettsville, and Clio.

When I made my first visit to her home I knew then that she had four great loves in her heart. From her sick bed, she shared with me her love for God, her children, her friends, and her church. Each visit she wanted me to remind her of World Wide Communion Sunday. She prayed that she would be well enough to come to church to worship and to receive communion.

I only knew Mildred from June until her death in September. I know you don't have to know a person all of your life to love. Her friends and loved ones spoke of her loyalty and dedication to Trinity United Methodist Church, the Mildred McQuage Circle of the United Methodist Women, the Eula Roper McColl Sunday School Class, the Saturday Afternoon Book Club, the Alpha Beta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, the Retired Teachers Association, the Pee Dee Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of American Colonists, where she was a past chaplain.

The service of worship was held for Mildred September 8, 1991 at the Whitner/Evans Funeral Home in Bennettsville. Her body was laid to rest in the Hebron United Methodist Cemetery. Reverend Chesley Covington and Reverend Joseph Flowers assisted me in the service.

MARY VIRGINIA HARMON COLLINS
November 27, 1904–December 17, 1991

Mary Virginia Collins was the daughter of Rev. George Thomas Harmon and Mary Virginia Sullivan Harmon. Soon after graduating from Lander College in 1925 she was married to the Reverend Henry F. Collins. There were three children: H. Fitzhugh, who died in 1986; Mary Virginia Shea, of Surfside Beach, S.C.; and George Harmon, of Arlington, Texas. There are four grandchildren. There was a memorial service in Texas, where Mrs. Collins was living at the time of her death; burial was beside her husband in Columbia, S.C.

Always this lady was known as a lovely lady who presided with grace and charm in her parsonage, assisting her husband in every way she could. Henry was my family's minister just as I was beginning my work at Wofford. When they learned that I was preparing for ministry in Methodism, both were most helpful and encouraging. He asked me to preach my first sermon in my home church, Trinity, Clio.

In the forties, when Henry made a change in his professional life—moving into an extended period of distinguished service in Masonry of South Carolina, Virginia continued to help Henry in her own charming way, hosting many social functions related to her husband's new position. First Henry served as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge, and later, for some ten years, as Grand Secretary in South Carolina. Throughout her husband's tenure in Masonry this beautiful lady supported and assisted as she had during those years when she presided in the parsonage. How fortunate we are to have known Virginia Collins!

ELLEN BOUKNIGHT DERRICK
September 20, 1895–November 29, 1991

"Mrs. Ellen," as she was fondly called, lived long enough to see her family tribe grow five generations.

Born on Dutch Fork soil, Mrs. Ellen was raised to love God, who brings sunshine and rain to make things grow. She proudly became a farmer's wife, helping with the crops and raising of seven children, all of whom became active members of the Shady Grove United Methodist Church. In the late middle years of her life, her husband died and then Mrs. Ellen Bouknight married the Reverend Theodore Elbridge Derrick, and faithfully joined the ranks of itinerant pastors and spouses.

Mrs. Ellen was loved by many people. She will be lovingly remembered by her large family for her playful wit, her pets, beautiful flowers, chocolate pies and prayers.

MITTIE HINNANT HENDERSON
March 12, 1894–December 28, 1991

In remembering "Miss Mittie," in whom we experienced life most abundantly, and having seen the beauty of human strength, steadfast loyalty, unwavering courage, and hallowed faithfulness, let us give thanks and praise to our Father in heaven for loving us, and knowing each of us personally. Through the years with its constant changes, increasing pressures, and never-ending disappointments, "Miss Mittie" was a bulwark of integrity and inclusive love. Her unselfishness, her gentle caring, her charity, her constant prayers, demonstrated to all who knew and loved her the many dimensions of this wonderful woman.

"Miss Mittie" was born and spent her formative years in Williamsburg County. She was married on her eighteenth birthday, March 12, 1912, to the late Rev. William Olin Henderson. Both admirably served the S.C. Annual Conference, he as pastor, she as pastor's spouse, until his retirement in St. Stephen in 1951. After the death of Rev. Henderson, Mrs. Henderson continued to live in the St. Stephen area and became the "pastor" to so many of us who had the opportunity to know her, to love her, and to seek her counsel.

Mrs. Henderson exemplifies for all the gentle, loving, caring example that our God through Jesus Christ demonstrated while he humanly dwelt among us. Her light has shown in her life time and those who have felt its rays will continue that light for centuries to come.

GERTRUDE PETTIGREW HIDDLESTON

Gertrude Pettigrew Hiddleston was born August 26, 1902 in St. Stephen, South Carolina.

She was the daughter of the late Reverend Adam and Anna Pettigrew.

She received her education in the public schools in Berkeley County.

At an early age, she was converted, baptized and became a member of St. Stephen Baptist Church.

Later, she joined Zion United Methodist Church, where she served faithfully for many years, as President of the Senior Choir and Usher's Board.

Many of her friends called her "Trudie"; Trudie was a great songster.

She was married to the late Reverend Paul C. Hiddleston. To this union, one son was born. He preceded her to the grave.

Trudie leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Hester P. Manigault of Moncks Corner, SC; three grandchildren, Paul III, Antonio and Gabrelle Hiddleston of Baltimore, Maryland; one sister-in-law, Mrs. Exie Pettigrew of St. Stephen, SC; a devoted niece (as a daughter), Mrs. Lillie Mae Jasper of Moncks Corner, SC, a host of nieces, nephews and many caring friends.

Funeral service was held on Wednesday, April 1, 1992, at 3:00 p.m., at Zion United Methodist Church, St. Stephen, SC.

ELSIE SELLENEIT TAYLOR KEIRN
September 12, 1903–September 11, 1991

Elsie Taylor Keirn, daughter of A.F. and Clara Pugehi Selleneit, was the wife of the late Eben Taylor, Sr. Surviving children are the Rev. Eben Taylor, Jr., Mamie Clara Taylor Baker, and Ann Taylor Seebeck. Later in life she married Thomas Gray Keirn.

Most ministers, when looking back over their service, gratefully recall certain faithful members whose love for God, Church and clergy was always present.

Elsie Taylor Keirn was that kind of church member and friend. Unpretentious, never noisy, she made no big splash. Soft-spoken, gentle, an earth-salt kind of person, her encouragement was always there. Pure and poor in spirit, she quietly lived out so much of the Mountain Sermon. No perfection claimed, no phony serenity pretended, she had her heavy burdens, trials and tribulations as all followers of the Way.

Charleston, when we knew her best, was caught up in conflict, with lunch counter sit-ins, church visitors being turned away, anguished street-marching protests. She knew what was right and loving, in contrast to the fear and malice of the times. It was a Shalom experience to visit in the home of Elsie and Tom Keirn in those days. Mother hen-like, she watched over our parsonage home as well.

Our faith, oh God, when the saints go marching in, Elsie Taylor Keirn will quietly and faithfully be in that number. And thank you, Lord, for this dear one and all who stand by your Church, without whose love and faithfulness those who preach might not endure.

RUTH JONES MERCHANT
June 9, 1923–May 11, 1992

Ruth Jones and James Merchant were married on February 1, 1945 and, until Jimmy's retirement, they itinerated across the South Carolina Annual Conference serving churches in Hickory Grove, Blacksburg, Greenville, Seneca, Dillon, Orangeburg, Greenwood, Lancaster and Marion. While Jimmy served the Anderson District, Ruth led the ministerial spouses. Del and Carol Merchant, Ruth and Jimmy's children, can share good stories of how their parents shared ministry together.

Ruth Merchant was patient and persistent. She never abandoned a project or gave upon a cause or a person. She was always available to listen or plan or help. She thought before she spoke. She could tie up loose ends, keep track of things and keep people on track, too. Everything Ruth Merchant did was done with grace and humor and a lot of care.

"If I walk the pathway of duty,
If I work til the close of the day,
I shall see the great king in his beauty,
When I've gone the last mile of the way.
When I've gone the last mile of the way,
I will rest at the close of the day,
And I know there are joys that wait me,
When I've gone the last mile of the way."

I believe that Ruth and Jimmy Merchant, who shared so much in life, now share the same vision, the same joys in the life to come. The last mile was not easy, and they did not walk alone, but in life they walked the pathway that leads to light and life forever.

MADGE HANCOCK NEWELL
June 24, 1906–October 9, 1991

Madge Hancock Newell will be remembered as a woman of strong, courageous spirit. She was an independent thinker and very forthright with her words. Her delightful sense of humor and her marvelous determination made her a colorful person.

She attended Weaver College, now known as Brevard College, and taught at the old Fairview School in the Ashwood community until she married. On December 24, 1925, Madge Hancock of Spring Hill married Samuel Davis Newell, an ordained Methodist minister. They had one son, Samuel Durant Newell, who died in 1985.

Mrs. Newell's devotion as wife and mother was paralleled by her dedication to the Methodist church. One of the ways she lived out her faith was by teaching Sunday school in most of the churches they served. Using her musical talents, she enjoyed playing the organ and directing or singing in the choir. Her leadership skills were notable in her work with the United Methodist Women and in her teaching in the Conference leadership training programs. During the years Rev. Newell served as District Superintendent of the Spartanburg district, Mrs. Newell often had advice for the young pastors serving with them. She was a great believer in the Methodist system and a source of encouragement and support for ministers and their families.

After Rev. Newell's death, Madge Newell entered the Methodist Home at Orangeburg in September 1989. While there she enjoyed many friends she had made over the years as a minister's wife.

I count it an honor to have known Madge Newell, however briefly, and felt her challenge to take the call to ministry very seriously. The Rev. Alan Kubach shared with me in celebrating her life at St. John UMC, Rembert (Spring Hill) on October 9. Truly it could be said that she was a good and faithful servant.

ROSALIE TRAILL POLK
November 12, 1901–March 5, 1992

So her life began on November 12, 1901 and so it ended on March 5, 1992. But in between was the joyous, full life of Rosalie Traill Polk. What a place of excitement the home of John and Harriet Traill must have been — with eight girls and two boys — including Rosalie!

Then there was grade school, high school and days at Linwood College. It was at Linwood that she won the piano medal, given to the most outstanding piano student. She was a senior.

Then she married N. Keith, Sr. and began a career of "parsonage" life in the United Methodist Church. She brought delight to many a person by her skill at the piano and "in the kitchen!" She and her husband and her son and their friends ate well from the large family garden where she was a helper in the spring and the cook when "the garden came in." In the midst of all this there was time to raise Keith, Jr. to manhood (now in the Methodist ministry).

It would be easy to think ... "enough!" — but Sunday found her playing the piano, teaching a class in Sunday school and often singing in the choir as she worshiped with her family and friends.

Having served a full ministry in South Carolina Conference, including Batesburg, Mr. Polk chose Batesburg as a place of retirement. Then, at last, health needs brought them nearer to Keith, Jr. in Greenwood.

One is tempted by the many words of scripture that come to mind that clamor for quotation with the ending of her earthly life. Let each choose! But let us not leave out the thought that we join our heart with the family and "rise up to call her blessed!"

— R. Bryce Herbert

PATSY WALKER STOKES
June 16, 1940–March 30, 1992

Patsy Varnell Walker Stokes, the surviving spouse of Hoke Z. Stokes, was born in Calhoun County, Alabama. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Kelly of Mandeville, LA, Mrs. Becky Earnhardt of Spartanburg, SC, and two sons, Stanley Stokes of York, PA and Mark Stokes of Phoenix City, AL. Mrs. Stokes is also survived by her mother, five sisters, her brother and ten grandchildren.

In addition to her parsonage duties and local church responsibilities, Patsy Stokes was a public school teacher for twenty-five years in Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina. In the last ten years of her career, Mrs. Stokes taught at Anniston High School in Anniston, Alabama and coordinated the Scholars Bowl program.

The funeral service for Mrs. Stokes was held at New Haven Baptist Church and interment was in Trinity Baptist Church Cemetery. During her final illness, Patsy Stokes was a participant in Hospice of East Alabama and gave as much care as she received.

Patsy Stokes was a lovable, practical, patient and joyous person. She faced life and death, and life beyond death with awe and reverence and hope.

"God of the great blue rafter
That props the skies from earth;
Let us go up with laughter;
Let us come down with mirth.

Give us a valiant vision,
That sees the starry whole,
And shed all vain derision,
Like shards, from off the soul.

Lord of our heart's elation
Spirit of things unseen;
Be thou our inspiration Consuming and serene."

—Ethel W. Davis

LETA GRICE THOMAS
June 17, 1899–July 25, 1991

Leta Grice Thomas, the only child of the late John and Emma Grice, was born in Blenheim, SC, on June 17, 1899. She passed calmly to her eternal resting place on Thursday, July 25, 1991 at the Chesterfield General Hospital.

She attended boarding school at Clinton Junior College in Rock Hill, SC.

In 1920, she married her pastor and to this union, ten children were born. Four preceded her to the grave. She served faithfully by her husband's side as a helpmate in several of the pastorates in the South Carolina Conference. She was preceded in death by her husband, the Reverend Darius E. Thomas, Sr., in 1951. With strong determination and a steadfast faith in God, she continued the responsibilities of nurturing and educating her children.

As a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church in Cheraw, Leta served as a communion steward until her death. She was also a member of the United Methodist Women and chairperson of the Evangelism Committee for many years.

Of her many and varied interests, gardening, playing the piano, and singing were her favorites. Her yard with its wide array of beautiful trees, flowers and shrubbery was a delight to observe. There is a special tree in the yard today named for her husband, the late D.E. Thomas. In 1989, it was used for part of the Cheraw Chamber of Commerce logo.

Those who shared the joys of life with her and survive to cherish her memory are: one son, Rev. Darius Edwin Thomas of Harvey, Illinois; five daughters, Caroline T. Farmer of the home, Mildred T. Lester of Durham, NC, Dorothy T. Wright of Cross, SC, Joyce T. Bethea of Ocean City, New Jersey and Jean T. Sharperson of Alexandria, Virginia; nine grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; three sons-in-law; one daughter-in-law; and a host of other relatives and friends.

THERESA McDONALD TURNER
October 30, 1895–November 30, 1991

Theresa McDonald Turner was born in Kershaw, South Carolina, on October 30, 1895. She was the daughter of Daniel and Julia Alice McDonald. She married Robert Patrick Turner in Kershaw on August 8, 1918. There they began their long life together which was to eventually lead them to a blessed life in the ministry. Mr. and Mrs. Turner had one daughter, Alice Turner Norris. The Turners leave a great legacy through their four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Turner was a lifetime United Methodist. Rev. and Mrs. Turner served fifteen pastorates in 50 years. They retired to Holly Hill, S.C., where they served a second time at Target United Methodist Church. They left a legacy of building lives for God everywhere they served.

Mrs. Turner's outstanding church work was with youth. She enjoyed sharing her faith and talents through the Methodist Youth Fellowship. She held various offices in the local church, district, and conference. A Sunday School teacher and lifetime member of the Women's Society of Christian Service were privileges of which she was proudest. Attesting to the high esteem in which she was held, Sunday school classes in Moncks Comer, Clio, and Drayton still bear her name.

I knew her during her work at the Orangeburg Methodist Home where she spent her final days. She was an inspiration to all she met despite her bad health. Her spirit was always willing to serve others through a kind word and always prayer. This caring spirit is characterized through this quote from one of her "youth" from Target UMC. "Mrs. Turner always made me feel good, like I was special. She brought out talents that I had sleeping inside. The confidence she gave me was immeasurable. She always made me reach with such caring."

 She triumphed in her trouble
 She gave and asked nothing in return
 She loved her fellow man
 She put her God first, her family second, and her fellow man third.
 Forgiveness was one of her greatest virtues.
 I am so proud she was my mother.

— Alice T. Norris

She is missed and never forgotten.

After it is organized, the Board of Laity shall have authority to elect no more than three (3) at large members who may serve as Directors of Program to relate to the section on lay ministry and the section on stewardship of the General Board of Discipleship. (See functions in Paras. 729.5 through 730.5 of the Book of Discipline.)
5. The Board of Ordained Ministry shall be composed of thirty-six (36) ministers and two lay observers.
6. The Board of Diaconal Ministry shall be composed of fifteen (15) persons. It is recommended that at least five (5) of these persons shall be in Diaconal Ministry careers, preferably, Diaconal Ministers.
7. The Board of Pensions shall be composed of eighteen (18) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay men, six (6) be lay women, and six be (6) clergy persons. (See functions in Para. 736.)
8. There shall be a Board of Trustees of the James L. Belin Property composed of twelve (12) elected members. It is recommended that six (6) be lay persons and six (6) be clergy persons. The Marion District Superintendent shall serve as an ex-officio member of the Board.
 - a. Persons serving on this Board shall be nominated by the Board of Missions.
 - b. The Board shall be organized into four (4) classes of three (3) persons.
 - c. One class shall be elected annually to serve for four years.
 - d. The tenure of the Trustees shall be limited to twelve (12) consecutive years and this tenure shall apply to the consecutive years of present Trustees. After such period of service a former trustee shall be ineligible for reelection until a lapse of four (4) years.
 - e. The Board of Trustees shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Missions.
9. There shall be a Board of Trustees of Claflin College composed of not less than seven (7) nor more than twenty-seven (27) members divided into three classes serving three (3) years respectively, elected at the annual meeting of the Board. Successors for each class, as their term expires, shall be nominated by a college related agency and/or the Nominating Committee of the Board of Trustees and elected by the Board of Trustees for a term of three (3) years. After twenty-four (24) years of continuous service, trustees may be placed in a class of "trustee emeritus."
 - a. The trustees shall elect their successors from a list of nominees submitted by the various supporting conferences of the United Methodist Church and the Claflin College General Alumni Association. The composition of the Board shall at all times include three (3) members from the South Carolina Annual Conference and with one representative of the Conference to be placed in each class and shall be replaced or renominated by the South Carolina Annual Conference upon the expiration of each succeeding class. The remaining membership of the Claflin Board of Trustees shall be elected by the Board from nominations made to and approved by the Nominating Committee of the Board from recommendations received from the General Alumni Association and other college related conferences and agencies.

- b. This institution shall report to the Annual Conference through the Board of Higher Education.
10. There shall be Boards of Trustees for Columbia College and for Wofford College, each of which shall be composed of twenty-seven (27) members, elected by the Annual Conference in conformity with the respective charters. The term of office for trustees shall be four (4) years. Each board shall be organized into three (3) classes of seven (7) members each and of one (1) class of six (6) members.
 - a. The Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry annually shall nominate suitable persons to fill vacancies in each class after prior consultation with the respective Boards of Trustees. Those elected shall be eligible for re-election to a maximum tenure of twelve (12) consecutive years except where thirteen (13) consecutive years will allow the completion of tenure with one of the classes. This exception to the tenure of twelve (12) consecutive years shall not apply to trustees elected in 1990 and thereafter. After a full tenure of service a former trustee shall be ineligible for re-election until a lapse of two (2) years.

This nominating committee shall make its report to the Annual Conference as Report No. 2 of the Report of the Board of Laity without endorsement. The Conference Lay Leader shall be elected each quadrennium and the tenure shall be limited to two (2) consecutive quadrennia. Election to a portion of a quadrennium shall be considered a full quadrennium.
96. Compensation for the officers of the Annual Conference shall be determined by the Council on Finance and Administration subject to the approval of the Annual Conference. The Conference Treasurer shall pay those persons from the appropriate fund(s).
97. Lay members of Boards, Councils, Commissions and Committees; lay members of the Conference Staff; and lay persons who are heads of Conference institutions supported by the Conference, who are not members of the Annual Conference, shall have the privilege of the floor without vote.
98. A member of the Conference may not speak more than once on a question before the Conference until every member who wishes to speak has spoken. A member shall not speak for more than three (3) minutes at any time, except by permission of the Conference.
99. A copy of any motion made on the Conference floor shall be sent to the secretary's desk as soon as the person making the motion returns to his/her seat.

100. The report of the Committee on Standing Rules shall be made as a part of the organization of the Conference and as often during the session as necessary.
 - a. All proposed changes in the Standing Rules shall be submitted in writing for referral to the Committee on Standing Rules and then reported out with recommendations after twelve (12) hours.
 - b. It shall require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote to suspend the rules.
 - c. When the rules are to be suspended, only that specific portion of the rules under consideration shall be suspended.
 - d. The Annual Conference by a majority vote can amend or alter the Standing Rules with or without the concurrence of the Committee on Standing Rules, provided that any change or alteration not originating in the Committee on Standing Rules may be voted on after the lapse of twelve (12) hours from the time of its submission to the Conference.
101. It shall be an Order of the Day at the morning session of the second day of Annual Conference that the floor shall be opened for additional nominations to all boards, councils, commissions, and committees to which the Committee on Nominations and parent boards are prepared to make nominations.
102. It shall be an Order of the Day on the third full day of Annual Conference to have the election of boards, councils, commissions, and committees. If additional nominations have been made per rule 101, and if requested by the Annual Conference, ballots shall be prepared by the Conference secretary for use in the election.
103. The report of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be placed on the Conference Program for information on the first full day of the Conference and for action on the last day of the Conference. When a motion for an increase in World Service and Conference Benevolences arises from anyone other than the Council on Finance and Administration and is approved by the Annual Conference, that motion shall be held a minimum of twelve (12) hours and shall require an affirmative vote at a second reading for final approval. If such a motion arises from the conference floor on the last day of Annual Conference, a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote shall be required for approval.

III. DISTRICT ORGANIZATION

110. There shall be a Committee on Nominations in each district. This committee shall make nominations to be forwarded by the two district representatives to the Annual Conference Committee on Nominations for election by the Annual Conference.
 1. The District Committee on Nominations shall be composed of: The district superintendent as chairperson; the District lay leader; one (1) representative from the District Council on Ministries; two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Women (It is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority.); two (2) representatives from the District United Methodist Men (It is recommended that one be from an ethnic minority.); two (2) representatives of the District Youth Council (It is recommended there be one male, one female, of which one be from an ethnic minority.); and the two (2) Conference Nominating Committee members from the district. Board, council, commission and committee members may continue to serve on program implementing task groups through the program year in which their term of office ends.
124. Youth and young adult members of the Annual Conference, and their reserves, shall be elected by the District Council on Ministries from nominations which arise from the District Council on Youth Ministry, District Coordinators of Adult Ministry and from the local churches within the districts. Their expense shall be borne by the districts electing them.
125. Members of general church agencies, who serve as ex-officio members of the related conference agencies, shall be ineligible to hold office.
126. Members of the Annual Conference Council on Ministries staff, when appointed as representatives to various Conference Agencies, shall be ex-officio members without vote.
127. Ex-officio members (excluding Conference Staff) of all Conference boards, councils, commissions and committees shall have a vote (unless prohibited by the Discipline), but shall be ineligible to hold office.
128. No trustee, member of the faculty, manager of any interest, or staff person shall at the same time be a member of the parent or supervising board, council, commission or committee, unless otherwise required by the Discipline or Standing Rules.
129. Parent boards may not nominate their own members to any board of trust until said member has been off that parent board for at least one (1) year.
130. Where the Discipline requires a district director or secretary for a conference agency, the person or persons named shall be from among the elected members of that agency.

131. Any member of a quadrennial board, council, commission or committee who is absent from two (2) consecutive meetings of the same, without rendering an acceptable excuse to the chairperson, shall forfeit membership on such board, council, commission or committee and the chairperson shall notify the person of this action. The chairperson shall notify the Committee on Nominations of such forfeiture. The Committee on Nominations shall nominate for election replacements at the next session of the Annual Conference.
132. When a minister is appointed as District Superintendent, membership on any quadrennial board, council, commission or committee shall automatically cease: provided, that this shall not apply to ex-officio membership on any board, council, commission or committee as required by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.
133. All lay persons employed by the agencies of the Conference shall conform to the compulsory retirement age set for the ministers of the church. Such retired lay persons may be employed on a part-time basis without executive administrative responsibility.
134. a. All amounts paid to or on the behalf of the minister (including district superintendents and ministers serving special appointments) to provide for payment of all or part of his/her Social Security obligation shall be reported as salary.
b. Funds provided for continuing education shall not be reported as salary. Such funds shall be made available to the minister by voucher. The Conference Board of Ordained Ministry recommends that each charge provide $500.00 per year for this purpose.
135. All monies to be credited to the accounts of local churches for the fiscal year shall be in the hands of the Conference treasurer not later than fifteen (15) days after the end of the fiscal year.
136. There shall be twelve (12) districts in the South Carolina Annual Conference.
137. "Moving Day" for the ministers shall be the second Wednesday following the close of Annual Conference.
a. Where special circumstances dictate any alteration of this moving date, the affected persons and the district superintendent involved shall be permitted to make the necessary adjustments.
b. Ministers shall be paid during the month of June proportionately by the charge from which they are moved and the charge to which they are moved on the basis of the percentage of Sundays actually served in each charge.
c. The moving expenses of the pastor shall be paid by the charge to which he/she is moved, not to include more than $150.00 packing expenses.
138. Pastors reports to Annual Conference shall cover the calendar year (January 1-December 31) and shall be sent to the Conference treasurer-statistician so as to reach that office not later than January 15 of the year immediately following.
139. All support ministries or agencies which receive funds from the South Carolina Annual Conference, but which are not directly responsible to the Conference shall submit an annual program and an audit including a management letter to the sponsoring Conference agency.
140. Persons applying for Sabbatical Leave who are requesting funding for pension and insurance benefits shall apply to the Board of the Ordained Ministry for funding consideration prior to February 1st preceding the Annual Conference session. Funding will be granted for no more than two (2) persons on Sabbatical Leave in any conference appointment year.
141. No requests shall be made for services of the Conference chancellor except by the Episcopal Office.
142. The Conference treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds collected unless otherwise specifically designated. He/she shall be custodian of the funds held by the Annual Conference Trustees. (The Trustees shall administer these funds.) He/she shall be the custodian of the Board of Pension funds. He/she shall be the custodian of the Group Insurance Funds. (The Commission on Group Insurance shall administer these funds.) These and all funds allocated to the various boards, councils, commissions and committees by the Council on Finance and Administration shall be credited by the Conference treasurer in separate accounts to the boards, councils, commissions, and committees. Disbursement of funds to conference agencies shall be made by the Conference treasurer upon order by voucher drawn by the secretary and a co-signer designated by the board, council, commission or committee requesting funds. All boards, councils, commissions, or committees drawing money in block amounts shall make itemized statements of these expenditures to the Conference treasurer as supporting evidence for his/her records.

143. In making nominations for Boards of Trustees, it is recommended that parent boards or agencies (CCOM, BHECM, BHW, MISSIONS) within the framework of the institution's charter (if applicable) maintain at least 25 percent ethnic minority representation; and when vacancies are filled, at least 25 percent ethnic minority representation be maintained in the total number of members. It is further recommended that until this representation is achieved, if from one to four members are to be elected, at least one be an ethnic minority; if five to eight members are to be elected, at least two be ethnic minority persons. Nominations from the floor of the session shall comply with the recommended representation.
144. When a leave of absence is granted, and upon the recommendation of the Bishop and the Cabinet, the Council on Finance and Administration shall make a sustentation grant from the Conference contingency funds not to exceed forty percent of the denominational average compensation paid on a monthly basis. All interim sustentation grants shall be reported to the Annual Conference at its next session. Upon the recommendation of the Bishop and Cabinet and the approval of the Annual Conference, the Commission on Equitable Salaries shall continue to fund the sustentation grants in the same monthly percentage for a period not to exceed one additional conference year. No claim may be made on the sustentation fund when disability benefits are granted from the Board of Pensions.
145. The resident bishop may authorize a mail ballot on matters arising between sessions of the Annual Conference and requiring a vote of the ministerial members of the Conference. Chairs of Annual Conference program boards, councils, commissions and committees and their subcommittees may authorize mail ballots on matters arising between regular meetings of these bodies.

V. STANDING RESOLUTIONS

200. Election of Lay Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences System of Nomination: The following system of nomination and selection shall be followed in the election of lay delegates to the General and Jurisdictional Conferences:
1. District Nominations:
 - a. Each local Church may submit nominations to the district superintendent. The district superintendent and the District Board of the Laity will be responsible for requesting a list of nominees from each local Church. These nominees shall be selected by the Administrative Board, certified by the Board chairperson and pastor. Only nominations from local churches, prepared on proper forms and received on scheduled time (on or before January 10th), shall be considered for election by the district's lay members of the succeeding annual conference.
 - b. A meeting of the persons from the District elected to serve as Lay Members of the succeeding Annual Conference shall be held no later than January 30 of the year in which the election occurs. The district superintendent shall convene the meeting and preside. The Lay Members shall vote by ballot until a maximum of fifteen persons receive a majority of the votes cast. Fifteen persons shall be the limit for each District and not the prescribed number for each District. These persons shall be certified to the Conference secretary as District nominees by the district superintendent no later than February 10. A biographical sketch on prescribed form (prepared by the Board of Laity) is to be presented on each local Church nominee to the District meeting.
 2. Conference Procedure
 - a. A maximum of 180 names selected by the Districts shall be listed and presented to the Conference United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, the Conference Board of the Laity, and the Conference Council on Youth Ministry. Each of these may select up to fifteen (15) additional names.

- b. The biographical format shall be consistent for all nominees and shall be submitted on a form prepared by the Board of Laity. It shall be submitted to the Conference secretary by the District Superintendent no later than March 1st. It shall include prior years elected to General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference; sex; race; and age level and a summary of qualifications up to twenty (20) words in length submitted by the nominee. If a biographical sketch does not adhere to specifications of this resolution, the name and sketch shall be omitted from publication in the Pre-Conference Journal.
- c. Provision shall be made for write-in ballots.
- d. The Conference secretary in preparing the balloting for General and Jurisdictional Conference delegates is authorized to utilize computerization for both lay and clerical ballots.

201. Guidelines for Training Quadrennial Lay Members of Annual Conference

- a. That a training session be held in each district no later than January 30 of the year in which delegates are elected to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The purpose of this session is to prepare local church members of the Annual Conference for this highly important quadrennial process of the United Methodist Church. The training session, which would precede the district nominations for the pool of possible delegates, would include the following:
 1. The important role of Annual Conference lay members.
 2. Connectionalism/Representative system.
 3. Functions of General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference.
 4. Commitment and involvement of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
 5. Process for selection of Bishops.
- b. That this training session be planned by the District Superintendent, the district lay leader, and a committee of no less than five persons; and include all persons in the district who have served as delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
- c. That a follow-up session be held in each local church for education of local church members.

SECTION XI

HISTORICAL RECORD OF SESSIONS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

A detailed history of the South Carolina Conference has been published in The History of South Carolina Methodism by Albert D. Betts (Columbia: The Advocate Press, 1982), and the following chronology is based on the information contained in Dr. Betts' history. When John Wesley called his lay preachers together in London on June 25, 1744, to "confer" on the work of the growing Methodist Societies, the die for the annual Conference was cast. The practice was brought to the American shore as the Methodist Societies grew in the Colonies.

In colonial times Conferences were not neatly divided by the geographic divisions we find today, and, correspondingly, it is difficult to trace precisely a lineage that would make it possible to identify "the first Conference." Dr. Betts refers to the "first American 'Annual Conference'" (p. 34) as the one held in George's Church, Philadelphia, July 14, 1773, on the call of John Rankin who had been sent to America by John Wesley. The South Carolina Conference was organized in 1785, when a "section" of the Annual Conference was called at Louisburg, North Carolina, on April 20, 1785, the first Annual Conference at which Francis Asbury presided. About two years later, on March 22, 1787, the first session of the South Carolina Conference was held in Charleston, with both Bishops Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke sharing responsibilities as presiding officers. Sessions of the 1785 Conference are delineated as shown in the tables below.

The 1866 South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church was organized on April 2, 1866, in Charleston, South Carolina, following disagreement between blacks and whites about simultaneous but segregated worship of the two races.* (Detailed history of the 1866 Conference may be found in Passionate Journey, by John W. Curry, St. Matthews: Bill Wise Printers, 1980.) Pursuant to the 1964 General Conference action which dissolved the Central Jurisdiction to achieve "racial inclusiveness at all levels of the church," the 181st Session of the South Carolina Conference (1785) passed a resolution requesting bishops of the two South Carolina conferences to appoint a committee to work out a plan of merger. The two conferences became one again in 1972. Sessions of the 1866 Conference are shown in tables below.

In 1914, General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted to divide the South Carolina Annual Conference (1785) and instructed the conference to fix a line of division. At its 129th Session the South Carolina Conference (1785) created the Upper South Carolina Conference. The two were combined again in 1948. Sessions of the Upper South Carolina Conference are shown in tables below.

1. Nature of Activities and Significant Accounting Policies:Nature of Activities:

- 1.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church governs the various boards, commissions, committees and agencies whose purpose is to carry out the programs of the United Methodist Church. The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church is a nonprofit religious organization and is exempt from paying income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. These financial statements report only those transactions maintained by the Treasurer of the South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

Significant Accounting Policies:1.2 Fund Accounting:

In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, its accounts are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. Resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund. Although transactions and balances of each board, commission, committee and agency are maintained separately, accounts which have similar characteristics are combined in the accompanying financial statements.

1.3 Cash and Cash Equivalents:

For purposes of reporting the statement of cash flows, the Conference considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

1.4 Investments:

Investments are recorded at cost which approximates market value. Earned income received on investments by the Conference Treasurer is allocated on the last business day of the year to the Conference Boards and Agencies and to certain district funds on the basis of month-end average balances held by the Treasurer.

2. Fidelity Bond:

The General Council on Finance and Administration provides $ 1,000,000 fidelity bond protection for all Annual Conference Treasurers at no charge. Fidelity bonding for trustees and related staff is provided by the Annual Conference.

3. Ministerial Pension Plan and Comprehensive Protection Plan (MPP/CPP) and Cumulative Pension and Benefit Fund (CPBF):

3.1 The South Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit multi-employer pension plan administered by the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church. The plan provides pension benefits to retiring members in addition to providing disability income benefits and guaranteed minimum benefits for widows and dependent children of deceased members.

3.2 The Conference contributes to the fund an amount equivalent to twelve percent (12%) of each minister's annual plan compensation (cash salary, tax-deferred contributions made, and housing allowance). For lay employees, the Conference contributes nine percent (9%) and the lay employee contributes three percent (3%). CPP contributions for eligible full-time ministers is the equivalent of 4.4% of the minister's plan compensation. MPP and CPP contributions are limited by the current denominational average compensation. Past service defined benefit funding is an annual actuarially determined amount approved by the Annual Conference. Each participants contributions are fully vested. The Conference Treasurer remitted $ 3,270,000 in 1991 and $ 3,250,000 in 1990 to the General Board of Pensions. The Conference is not liable for any unfunded liabilities.

Past service expenses charged to the Annual Conference are $ 1,083,204 and $ 1,370,277 in 1991 and 1990, respectively. The Individual Annuity Mortality Table adjusted with a six percent (6%) interest assumption was used in the determination of these amounts.

3.3 Minister's pension payments received by the Conference Treasurer are remitted to the General Board of Pensions of the United Methodist Church.
